Applicants Sought for Vacancy on State Investment Council

Pierre—The Executive Board of the Legislative Research Council is seeking applicants to serve on the State Investment Council. The Investment Council is responsible for investing state revenues and pension funds, and determining state investment policies.

Individuals who are trained in the field of investment and finance but who are not engaged in the sale of marketable or public securities to the state may apply for this appointment. Statute requires that no more than four of the appointed members may be of the same political party. This year, the appointment may be from a registered member of any political party, or no political party.

Applications may be obtained at the following link:
