New Senators Sworn in to Office

PIERRE – The South Dakota Senate’s newest members were sworn in to office this morning in the Senate chambers by Chief Justice David Gilbertson. Gov. Dennis Daugaard appointed Sen. William Shorma (R-Dakota Dunes) to serve the remaining term of former Sen. Dan Lederman (R-Dakota Dunes), while Sen. Scott Fiegen (R-Dell Rapids) was appointed to serve the remaining term of former Sen. Tim Rave (R-Baltic).
