U. S. MEDIAN	5.75%		28 states allow vendor discounts

Source: Compiled by FTA from various sources.

- (1) In some states, the vendors' discount varies by the amount paid. In AL and SC, the larger discounts apply to the first $100. In GA, the larger discount applies to the first $3,000. In KY, the larger discounts apply to the first $1,000, while MD applies the larger discount to annual collections of $6,000. In WY, the larger discount applies to the first $6,250. The lower discounts apply to the remaining collections above these amounts.
- (2) Utilities are not permitted to take discount. Collection allowances are 0.73% if total sales tax collected is less than $60,000; 0.53% if total taxes is between $60,000 and $600,000; 0.26% if total sales tax collected is more than $600,000.
- (3) Rate does not include a statewide local rate of 1.0% in VA and 1.25% in UT. In UT, a discount of 1% is applicable to local taxes.
- (4) Local option sales tax discount varies from 0% to 3.33%.
- (5) Vendors are allowed to keep any excess collections prescribed under the bracket system.
- (6) Vendor discount only applies to the first 4.0% of the tax. A 0.75% discount if paid by the 12th of the month.
- (7) An additional discount of 1.25% applies for early payment.
- (8) Discount varies; 1.1% (1.6% for food) of the first $62,500, 0.84% (1.2%) of the amount to $208,000, and 0.56% (0.8%) of the remainder. Applies to the state tax only. No discount allowed on electronically file returns.
- (9) New Jersey rate scheduled to decrease to 6.625% on 1/1/18, Louisiana rate will decrease to 4% on 7/1/18.
- (10) Electronic Filers only.
