Motivation to Not Use Substances is collected at time of admission and at discharge. Clients are asked a series of four question to gauge the client's motivation when leaving services. In addition, the same four questions are asked six months following services for clients receiving Cognitive Behavioral Intervention for Substance Abuse (CBISA) services.

Question:

8. I would be able to resist the urge to drink heavily and/or use drugs...	Not at all confident										Very Confident
... if I were angry at the way things had turned out	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
... if I had unexpectedly found some booze/drugs or happened to see something that reminded me of drinking/using drugs	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
... if other people treated me unfairly or interfered with my plans	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
... if I were out with friends and they kept suggesting we go somewhere to drink/use drugs	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Ability to Control Use is only asked at discharge. Clients are asked retrospectively to evaluate what their ability to control their use was at admission compared to discharge. These questions are also asked six months following services for client receiving Cognitive Behavioral Intervention for Substance Abuse (CBISA) services.

6. White Bison Program research

White Bison, Inc., is an American Indian/Alaska Native non-profit charitable organization based in Colorado Springs, CO. White Bison has offered healing resources to Native America since 1988, by offering sobriety, recovery, addictions prevention, and wellness/Wellbriety learning resources to the Native American/Alaska Native community nationwide. Many non-Native people also use White Bison's healing resource products, attend its learning circles, and volunteer their services.

White Bison, Inc. offers an option for treatment centers as a whole to become certified and allows the treatment center to be listed on the White Bison website for 1 year, renewable annually, upon completion of the center meeting certain criteria. The initial certification and annual fee is $5,000, which includes an annual on-site inspection.

White Bison, Inc. also provides a number of training programs through the Wellbriety Training Institute for individual clinicians and professionals to implement the curriculum, regardless of treatment center certification. All trainings are available as part of a training package, or as a stand-alone program.
