6 Section 3. That chapter 13-53 be amended by adding a NEW SECTION to read:

7 Any outdoor area of a campus of a public institution of higher education in this state is a
8 public forum. A public institution of higher education may maintain and enforce reasonable 9 time, place, and manner restrictions narrowly tailored in service of a significant institutional
10 interest only if those restrictions employ clear, published, content, and viewpoint-neutral 11 criteria, and provide for ample alternative means of expression. Any restriction shall allow for 12 members of the campus community to spontaneously and contemporaneously assemble and 13 distribute literature. Nothing in this section limits the right of student expression elsewhere on 14 campus.

15 Section 4. That chapter 13-53 be amended by adding a NEW SECTION to read:

16 Any person who wishes to engage in noncommercial expressive activity on campus may do 17 so freely, as long as the person's conduct is not unlawful and does not materially and 18 substantially disrupt the functioning of the public institution of higher education, subject only 19 to the requirements in section 3 of this Act.

20 A public institution of higher education may maintain and enforce reasonable time, place,
21 and manner restrictions that are narrowly tailored in service of a significant institutional interest 22 only when the restrictions employ clear, published, content, and viewpoint-neutral criteria, and 23 provide for ample alternative means of expression. Any such restriction shall allow for members 24 of the campus community to spontaneously and contemporaneously assemble and distribute

1 literature.

2 Nothing in this section may be interpreted to prevent a public institution of higher education
3 from prohibiting, limiting, or restricting expression that is not protected under the First
4 Amendment to the United States Constitution, including any true threat or expression intended
5 to provoke and likely to produce imminent lawless action, or prohibiting harassment as defined
6 in section 1 of this Act.

7 Nothing in this section limits the right of members of the campus community from holding 8 a counter demonstration if the conduct of any counter demonstration is not unlawful and does 9 not materially and substantially prohibit the free expression rights of others on campus, or 10 disrupts the functioning of the institution of higher education.

11 Section 5. That chapter 13-53 be amended by adding a NEW SECTION to read:

12 Each public institution of higher education shall make public in the institution's handbook, 13 on the institution's website, and through the institution's orientation programs for students the 14 policies, regulations, and expectations of students regarding free expression on campus as 15 provided in this Act.

16 Section 6. That chapter 13-53 be amended by adding a NEW SECTION to read:

17 Each public institution of higher education shall develop materials, programs, and 18 procedures to ensure that those persons who have responsibility for discipline or education of 19 students, such as administrators, campus police officers, residence life officials, and professors,
20 understand the policies, regulations, and duties of the public institution of higher education
21 regarding free expression on campus as provided in this Act.

22 Section 7. That chapter 13-53 be amended by adding a NEW SECTION to read:

23 Each public institution of higher education shall publicly post on the institution's website,
24 as well as submit to the Governor, to the members of the Senate and House standing committees

1 on education, and to the members of the Joint Committee on Appropriations by December 2 fifteenth of each year, a report that details the actions implemented to comply with the 3 requirements of this Act. A revised report shall also be provided if any changes or updates are 4 made to the actions implemented. The information required in the report includes the following:

5 (1) A description of any barriers to or incidents of disruption of free expression occurring 6 on campus, including any attempt to block or prohibit any speakers and any 7 investigation into students or student organizations for their speech. The description
8 shall include the nature of each barrier or incident, as well as any disciplinary action 9 taken against any member of the campus community determined to be responsible 10 for those specific barriers or incidents. Any incident involving a student shall be 11 reported without revealing any of the student's personally identifiable information;

12 (2) A description of the actions the institution is taking to promote and ensure 13 intellectual diversity and the free exchange of ideas;

14 (3) Any other information each public institution of higher education determines is 15 valuable for the public to evaluate whether free expression rights for all members of 16 the campus community have been equally protected and enforced as provided in this 17 Act; and

18 (4) If a public institution of higher education is sued for an alleged violation of any 19 person's rights under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, a 20 supplementary report with a copy of the complaint shall be submitted to the 21 Governor, to the members of the Senate and House standing committees on 22 education, and to the members of the Joint Committee on Appropriations within 23 thirty days.

24 Any report provided pursuant to this section shall be accessible on the institution's website

1 by use of not more than three links. The report shall be searchable by key words and phrases and 2 accessible to the public with no required registration, user identification, or password.

3 Section 8. That chapter 13-53 be amended by adding a NEW SECTION to read:

4 Any person or student association aggrieved by a violation of this Act may bring an action 5 against the public institution of higher education and any other person responsible for the 6 violation and seek appropriate relief, including injunctive relief, monetary damages, reasonable
7 attorneys' fees, and court costs. Any person or student organization aggrieved by a violation of 8 this Act may assert the violation as a defense or counter claim in any disciplinary action or in 9 any civil or administrative proceedings brought against the student or student organization.
10 Nothing in this section limits any other remedies available to any person or student organization.

11 Section 9. That chapter 13-53 be amended by adding a NEW SECTION to read:

12 A person shall be required to bring suit for violation of this section no later than one year
13 after the day the cause of action accrues. For purposes of calculating the one-year limitation
14 period, each day that the violation persists, and each day that a policy in violation of this section 15 remains in effect, constitutes a new violation of this section and, therefore, a new day that the 16 cause of action has accrued.
