

AN ACT

ENTITLED, An Act to provide a penalty for strikes by public employees.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

Section 1. That § 3-18-10 be amended to read as follows:

3-18-10. No public employee may strike against the State of South Dakota, any political subdivisions of the state, any of its authorities, commissions, or boards, the public school system, or any other branch of the public service. However, nothing in this chapter limits, impairs, or affects the right of any public employee to the expression or communication of a view, grievance, complaint, or opinion on any matter related to the conditions or compensation of public employment or their betterment with the full, faithful, and proper performance of the duties of employment. Any person who violates this section is subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars for each day of violation. The governing boards of the state and its political subdivisions may seek enforcement of civil penalties in circuit court. All moneys recovered shall be paid to the affected governmental entity. However, any person bringing the action may recover all costs, expenses, and attorneys fees expended to enforce this section.
