5 Act.

6 Section 5. Eligibility criteria and assistance level for temporary assistance for needy families
7 shall be determined by the department with due regard to the necessary expenditures of families 8 in this state.

9 Section 6. An applicant for or recipient of assistance under this Act shall supply proof of or

14 eligibility for assistance, cooperate with proceedings to establish paternity and to enforce, collect, 15 or modify child support on behalf of any child for whom assistance is claimed or received.

16 Section 8. Application for or receipt of assistance under this Act or of foster care 17 maintenance payments under the Title IV-E state plan shall operate as an assignment by 18 operation of law of all support rights from any person, which such applicant or recipient may 19 have on the applicant's or recipient's own behalf or on behalf of any other family member for 20 whom the recipient is receiving assistance or Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments, 21 including any support payments accrued and unpaid at the time of the assignment.

3 reasonable standards for the participation of eligible recipients in work activities and programs
4 of assistance calculated to foster parental responsibility, employment, or family independence.

5 Section 12. The department may deny, reduce, or terminate assistance to an applicant or 6 recipient who voluntarily refuses to participate in an assessment, work activity, or assistance 7 program for such period as may be reasonably necessary to deter program waste or abuse. The 8 department may adopt by rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 1-26 necessary and reasonable 9 exemptions and deferrals. The department shall have access to the home of a dependent child at 10 reasonable times for the purpose of conducting such investigation as may be necessary to assure

18 or if the employer has terminated the employment of any regular employee or otherwise caused 19 an involuntary reduction of its workforce in order to fill the vacancy so created.

20 Section 15. The department may reconsider assistance as frequently as may be required. The 21 department may deny, reduce, suspend, or terminate assistance as the circumstances may indicate 22 upon such reconsideration.

23 Section 16. An applicant or recipient whose application is denied or not acted upon or who

5 eligibility for assistance, intentionally conceal or fail to disclose that event or 6 circumstance for the purpose of obtaining assistance.

7 The department may deny, reduce, or terminate assistance to any person or household who 8 has violated this section for such period as may be reasonable or necessary to deter fraud or 9 program abuse.

10 Section 18. The department may adopt, pursuant to chapter 1-26, necessary and reasonable 11 policies and procedures to recover or recoup any overpayment of assistance that resulted from 12 fraud or misrepresentation, erroneous determination of eligibility or amount of assistance, or 13 otherwise.

14 Section 19. Assistance granted under this Act is not transferable or assignable at law or in 15 equity. No money paid or assistance granted under this Act is subject to execution, levy,
