HOUSE BILL NO. 1075

Introduced by: Representatives Kazmerzak, Brown (Jarvis), Diedrich, Koskan, Lee, and Weber and Senators Hutmacher, Brosz, Lange, and Morford

1 FOR AN ACT ENTITLED, An Act to authorize the towing of certain vehicles in combination 2 by farm implement dealers under certain conditions.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

4 Section 1. That chapter 32-22 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as 5 follows:

6 The provisions of §§ 32-22-9 to 32-22-12.1, inclusive, do not apply to any combination of 7 vehicles consisting of a towing motor vehicle and two implements of husbandry which is being 8 operated by or for a farm implement dealer. The operator of any such combination shall have in 9 possession an oversize permit issued pursuant to § 32-22-42. In such a combination, the vehicles 10 shall be connected to each other by a ball hitch, a pintle hitch, or a pin hitch. The maximum 11 length of the vehicles in this combination may not exceed one hundred feet and neither implement 12 may exceed forty-five feet in length. The combination may not be operated on the interstate 13 highway system. The combination may travel on other public highways only during the hours of 14 sunrise to sunset, may not travel in excess of twenty-five miles per hour, and the rearmost
15 implement shall display red flags on the extremities. A violation of this section is a Class 2

1 misdemeanor.
