

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 1010

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION, Urging the United States Secretary of Agriculture to take steps to save America's family farms.

WHEREAS, agriculture remains the number one industry in the United States, and the family farm has been the backbone of the agricultural industry for the past two hundred years; and

WHEREAS, United States Agriculture Secretary Glickman has created a federal commission to hold six hearings throughout the agricultural states on saving and rejuvenating America's small family farms; and

WHEREAS, we in the Midwest can save more of our small family farms, our schools, and our small towns and help to reinvigorate rural America; and

WHEREAS, Secretary Glickman's hearings have produced large turnouts and demonstrate great concern and recognition of the need to save the family farm:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the House of Representatives of the Seventy-third Legislature of the State of South Dakota, the Senate concurring therein, that United States Agriculture Secretary Glickman be urged to take steps to save America's family farms.

Adopted by the House of Representatives,
Concurred in by the Senate,
