

SENATE COMMEMORATION NO. 16

Introduced by: The Members of the 73rd Legislative Session

A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Honoring Mavis Schrempp of rural Lantry, as the South Dakota Mother of the Year.

WHEREAS, Mavis Schrempp has been an active South Dakota rancher's wife, mother, and grandmother for many years; and

WHEREAS, Mavis Schrempp and her husband, Dean, have raised five sons and three daughters as well as a nephew, and have helped another generation of Schrempps continue the family tradition of ranching; and

WHEREAS, Mavis Schrempp has captured the beauty of South Dakota and especially the prairie landscapes of northwestern South Dakota in her paintings; and

WHEREAS, Mavis Schrempp has generously volunteered of her time, especially through the Heritage Center and the All Saints Church in Eagle Butte; and

WHEREAS, she and Dean have traveled the world and always anxiously returned to their ranch near the tiny community of Lantry:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Seventy-third Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that Mavis Schrempp be honored for her selection as South Dakota Mother of the Year for 1998.
