

State of South Dakota

SEVENTY-FIFTH SESSION
LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, 2000

642D0797

HOUSE COMMEMORATION NO. 1002

Introduced by: Representatives Brooks and Brown (Richard) and Senator Brown (Arnold)

A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Commending and honoring Diane H. Falin of the Aid Association for Lutherans as a 1999 Fraternalist of the Year.

WHEREAS, Diane Falin has headed numerous pancake and chili feeds to benefit several cancer victims, blood drives for the United Blood Services "Let's Make a Difference Day," and fundraisers for church youth groups to help them with youth gathering expenses; and

WHEREAS, Diane Falin has organized work crews to help elderly and widowed church members paint, shingle, insulate, and maintain their homes; and

WHEREAS, Diane Falin has dedicated countless hours to helping others by volunteering and is currently involved in a project to build a park next to Peace Lutheran Church in Rapid City:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Seventy-fifth Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that Diane H. Falin, a lifelong AAL member, be hereby honored for being recognized by the South Dakota Fraternal Congress as a 1999 Fraternalist of the Year at its sixty-third annual meeting in Rapid City, South Dakota, on October 8, 1999.
