Introduced by: Representatives Smidt, Burg, Chicoine, Crisp, Cutler, Diedrich (Larry), Duenwald, Fiegen, Garnos, Jaspers, Juhnke, Konold, Lucas, Roe, Solum, Volesky, and Wilson and Senators Brown (Arnold), Drake, Duxbury, Frederick, Kloucek, and Rounds

A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Honoring South Dakota State University's marching band as the state's lone entrant in this nation's millennium parade on July 4, 2000, in Washington, D.C.

WHEREAS, the South Dakota State University marching band has been designated by the South Dakota Legislature as the Pride of the Dakotas Marching Band; and

WHEREAS, this band has entertained the people of South Dakota and the region with its magnificent music, high precision football halftime performances, and parade appearances; and

WHEREAS, this band has brought national recognition and honor to our state by its participation in presidential inauguration parades and halftime performances at professional football games:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Seventy-fifth Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that the Pride of the Dakotas Marching Band be applauded and commended as the millennium band of South Dakota.
