1 by attaching to the petition the document and the Office of the Secretary of State's explanation 2 of the refusal to file.

3 The court may summarily order the Office of the Secretary of State to file the document or 4 take other action the court considers appropriate. The court's final decision may be appealed as 5 in other civil proceedings.

18 enumerated in this Act.

19 Section 31. Provisions of the articles of incorporation may be made dependent upon facts 20 objectively ascertainable outside the articles of incorporation in accordance with sections 3 to 21 5, inclusive, of this Act.

22 Section 32. Unless a delayed effective date is specified, the corporate existence begins when 23 the articles of incorporation are filed. The Office of the Secretary of State's filing of the articles 24 of incorporation is conclusive proof that the incorporators satisfied all conditions precedent to

1 incorporation except in a proceeding by the state to cancel or revoke the incorporation or 2 involuntarily dissolve the corporation.

3 Section 33. Any person purporting to act as or on behalf of a corporation, knowing there was 4 no incorporation under this Act, is jointly and severally liable for all liabilities created while so 5 acting.

6 Section 34. After incorporation:

7 (1) If initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, the initial directors shall 8 hold an organizational meeting, at the call of a majority of the directors, to complete 9 the organization of the corporation by appointing officers, adopting bylaws, and 10 carrying on any other business brought before the meeting;

11 (2) If initial directors are not named in the articles, the incorporator or incorporators shall 12 hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators:

13 (a) To elect directors and complete the organization of the corporation; or 14 (b) To elect a board of directors who shall complete the organization of the 15 corporation.

16 Action required or permitted by this Act to be taken by incorporators at an organizational 17 meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action taken is evidenced by one or more written 18 consents describing the action taken and signed by each incorporator. An organizational meeting 19 may be held in or out of this state.

20 Section 35. The incorporators or board of directors of a corporation shall adopt initial 21 bylaws for the corporation. The bylaws of a corporation may contain any provision for managing 22 the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation that is not inconsistent with law or the 23 articles of incorporation.

24 Section 36. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the board of directors of 1 a corporation may adopt bylaws to be effective only in an emergency. The emergency bylaws, 2 which are subject to amendment or repeal by the shareholders, may make all provisions 3 necessary for managing the corporation during the emergency, including:

- 4 (1) Procedures for calling a meeting of the board of directors;
- 5 (2) Quorum requirements for the meeting; and
- 6 (3) Designation of additional or substitute directors.

7 All provisions of the regular bylaws consistent with the emergency bylaws remain effective 8 during the emergency. The emergency bylaws are not effective after the emergency ends. Any 9 corporate action taken in good faith in accordance with emergency bylaws binds the corporation 10 and may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

11 An emergency exists for purposes of this section if a quorum of the corporation's directors 12 cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

13 Section 37. Any corporation incorporated under this Act has the purpose of engaging in any 14 lawful business unless a more limited purpose is set forth in the articles of incorporation.

15 A corporation engaging in a business that is subject to regulation under another statute of 16 this state may incorporate under this Act only if permitted by, and subject to all limitations of, 17 the other statute.

18 Section 38. Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation has 19 perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and has the same powers as an 20 individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its business and affairs, including 21 the power to:

- 22 (1) Sue and be sued, complain, and defend in its corporate name;
- 23 (2) Have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use it, or a facsimile of 24 it, by impressing or affixing it or in any other manner reproducing it;

- 1 (3) Make and amend bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with 2 the laws of this state, for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the 3 corporation;
- 4 (4) Purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, and own, hold, improve, use, and 5 otherwise deal with, real or personal property, or any legal or equitable interest in 6 property, wherever located;
- 7 (5) Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any 8 part of its property;
- 9 (6) Purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire; own, hold, vote, use, sell, 10 mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of; and deal in and with shares or other 11 interests in, or obligations of, any other entity;
- 12 (7) Make contracts and guarantees, incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its notes, 13 bonds, and other obligations, which may be convertible into or include the option to 14 purchase other securities of the corporation, and secure any of its obligations by 15 mortgage or pledge of any of its property, franchises, or income;
- 16 (8) Lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal 17 property as security for repayment;
- 18 (9) Be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint 19 venture, trust, or other entity;
- 20 (10) Conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this Act 21 within or without this state;
- 22 (11) Elect directors and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the corporation, define 23 their duties, fix their compensation, and lend them money and credit;
- 24 (12) Pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, share

1 bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any or all of its 2 current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

3 (13) Make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational 4 purposes;

5 (14) Transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy;

6 (15) Make payments or donations, or do any other act, not inconsistent with law, that 7 furthers the business and affairs of the corporation.

8 Section 39. In anticipation of or during an emergency, the board of directors of a corporation 9 may modify lines of succession to accommodate the incapacity of any director, officer, 10 employee, or agent; and relocate the principal office, designate alternative principal offices or 11 regional offices, or authorize the officers to do so.

12 During an emergency, unless emergency bylaws provide otherwise:

13 (1) Notice of a meeting of the board of directors need be given only to those directors 14 whom it is practicable to reach and may be given in any practicable manner, 15 including by publication and radio; and 16 (2) One or more officers of the corporation present at a meeting of the board of directors 17 may be deemed to be directors for the meeting, in order of rank and within the same 18 rank in order of seniority, as necessary to achieve a quorum.

19 Corporate action taken in good faith during an emergency under this section to further the 20 ordinary business affairs of the corporation binds the corporation and may not be used to impose 21 liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

22 An emergency exists for purposes of this section if a quorum of the corporation's directors
23 cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

24 Section 40. The validity of corporate action may not be challenged on the ground that the

1 corporation lacks or lacked power to act. However, a corporation's power to act may be 2 challenged in the following proceedings:

- 3 (1) In a proceeding by a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the act;
- 4 (2) In a proceeding by the corporation, directly, derivatively, or through a receiver, 5 trustee, or other legal representative, against an incumbent or former director, officer, 6 employee, or agent of the corporation; or
- 7 (3) In a proceeding by the attorney general under section 332 of this Act.

8 In a shareholder's proceeding under subdivision (1) to enjoin an unauthorized corporate act, 9 the court may enjoin or set aside the act, if equitable and if all affected persons are parties to the 10 proceeding, and may award damages for loss, other than anticipated profits, suffered by the 11 corporation or another party because of enjoining the unauthorized act.

12 Section 41. A corporate name must contain the term, corporation, incorporated, company, 13 or limited, or the abbreviation, corp., inc., co., or ltd., or terms or abbreviations of like import 14 in another language. A corporate name may not contain language stating or implying that the 15 corporation is organized for a purpose other than that permitted by section 37 of this Act and 16 its articles of incorporation.

17 Section 42. Except as authorized by sections 43 and 44 of this Act, a corporate name shall 18 be distinguishable upon the records of the Office of the Secretary of State from:

- 19 (1) The corporate name of a corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business 20 in this state;
- 21 (2) A corporate name reserved or registered under section 45 or 46 of this Act;
- 22 (3) The fictitious name adopted by a foreign corporation authorized to transact business 23 in this state because its real name is unavailable;
- 24 (4) The corporate name of a not-for-profit corporation incorporated or authorized to

1 transact business in this state; and

2 (5) The name of a limited liability company, limited liability partnership, limited 3 partnership, or limited liability limited partnership organized or authorized to transact 4 business in this state.

5 Section 43. A corporation may apply to the Office of the Secretary of State for authorization
6 to use a name that is not distinguishable upon the records of the Office of the Secretary of State
7 from one or more of the names described in section 42 of this Act. The Office of the Secretary 8 of State shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

9 (1) The other corporation or entity consents to the use in writing and submits an 10 undertaking in form satisfactory to the Office of the Secretary of State to change its 11 name to a name that is distinguishable upon the records of the Office of the Secretary 12 of State from the name of the applying corporation; or

13 (2) The applicant delivers to the Office of the Secretary of State a certified copy of the 14 final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right 15 to use the name applied for in this state.

16 Section 44. A corporation may use the name, including the fictitious name, of another 17 domestic or foreign corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated 18 or authorized to transact business in this state and the proposed user corporation:

19 (1) Has merged with the other corporation;

20 (2) Has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

21 (3) Has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the 22 other corporation.

23 This Act does not control the use of fictitious names.

24 Section 45. A person may reserve the exclusive use of a corporate name, including a

1 fictitious name for a foreign corporation whose corporate name is not available, by delivering 2 an application to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing. The application shall set forth 3 the name and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the Office of the 4 Secretary of State finds that the corporate name applied for is available, the Office of the 5 Secretary of State shall reserve the name for the applicant's exclusive use for a nonrenewable 6 one-hundred-twenty-day period.

7 The owner of a reserved corporate name may transfer the reservation to another person by 8 delivering to the Office of the Secretary of State a signed notice of the transfer that states the 9 name and address of the transferee.

10 Section 46. A foreign corporation may register its corporate name, or its corporate name 11 with any addition required by sections 355 to 359 of this Act, if the name is distinguishable 12 upon the records of the Office of the Secretary of State from the corporate names that are not 13 available under section 42 of this Act. A foreign corporation registers its corporate name, or its 14 corporate name with any addition required by sections 355 to 559, inclusive, of this Act, by 15 delivering to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing an application:

16 (1) Setting forth its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition required by 17 sections 355 to 559, inclusive, of this Act, the state or country and date of its 18 incorporation, and a brief description of the nature of the business in which it is 19 engaged; and

20 (2) Accompanied by a certificate of existence, or a document of similar import, from the 21 state or country of incorporation.

22 The name is registered for the applicant's exclusive use upon the effective date of the 23 application.

24 Section 47. A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may renew it for successive

1 years by delivering to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing a renewal application, which 2 complies with the requirements of section 46 of this Act, between October first and December 3 thirty-first of the preceding year. The renewal application when filed renews the registration for 4 the following calendar year.

5 Section 48. A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may thereafter qualify as 6 a foreign corporation under the registered name or consent in writing to the use of that name by 7 a corporation thereafter incorporated under this Act or by another foreign corporation thereafter 8 authorized to transact business in this state. The registration terminates if the domestic 9 corporation is incorporated or the foreign corporation qualifies or consents to the qualification 10 of another foreign corporation under the registered name.

11 Section 49. Each corporation shall continuously maintain in this state:

- 12 (1) A registered office that may be the same as any of its places of business; and
- 13 (2) A registered agent, who may be:
 - 14 (a) An individual who resides in this state and whose business office is identical
 - 15 with the registered office;
 - 16 (b) A domestic corporation or not-for-profit domestic corporation whose business
 - 17 office is identical with the registered office; or
 - 18 (c) A foreign corporation or not-for-profit foreign corporation authorized to
 - 19 transact business in this state whose business office is identical with the
 - 20 registered office.

21 Section 50. A corporation may change its registered office or registered agent by delivering 22 to the secretary of state for filing a statement of change that sets forth:

- 23 (1) The name of the corporation;
- 24 (2) The street address, or a statement that there is no street address, of its current

1 registered office;

2 (3) If the current registered office is to be changed, the street address, or a statement 3 there is no street address, of the new registered office;

4 (4) The name of its current registered agent;

5 (5) If the current registered agent is to be changed, the name of the new registered agent
6 and the new agent's written consent to the appointment. Such consent may be given 7 by electronic signature pursuant to chapter 53-12; and

8 (6) That after any change is made, the street addresses of its registered office and the 9 business office of its registered agent will be identical.

10 If a registered agent changes the street address of the agent's business office, the agent may 11 change the street address of the registered office of any corporation for which the agent is the 12 registered agent by notifying the corporation in writing of the change and signing, either 13 manually or in facsimile, and delivering to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing a 14 statement that complies with the requirements of this section and recites that the corporation has 15 been notified of the change.

16 Section 51. A registered agent may resign the agency appointment by signing and delivering 17 to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing a statement of resignation. The statement may 18 include a statement that the registered office is also discontinued. After delivering the statement 19 to the Office of the Secretary of State, the registered agent shall mail one copy to the registered 20 office, if not discontinued, and another copy to the corporation at its principal office. The agency 21 appointment is terminated, and the registered office discontinued if so provided, on the thirty-22 first day after the date on which the statement was filed.

23 Section 52. A corporation's registered agent is the corporation's agent for service of process, 24 notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the corporation. If a corporation

1 has no registered agent, or the agent cannot with reasonable diligence be served, the corporation 2 may be served by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the secretary 3 of the corporation at its principal office. Service is perfected under this section at the earliest of:

- 4 (1) The date the corporation receives the mail;
- 5 (2) The date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of the corporation; or
- 6 (3) Five days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, 7 if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

8 If service cannot be obtained pursuant to this section, the Office of the Secretary of State is 9 the corporation's agent for service of process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law 10 to be served on the corporation.

11 This section does not prescribe the only means, or necessarily the required means of serving 12 a corporation.

13 Section 53. The articles of incorporation shall set forth any classes of shares and series of 14 shares within a class, and the number of shares of each class and series, that the corporation is 15 authorized to issue. If more than one class or series of shares is authorized, the articles of 16 incorporation shall prescribe a distinguishing designation for each class or series and shall 17 describe, prior to the issuance of shares of a class or series, the terms, including the preferences, 18 rights, and limitations, of that class or series. Except to the extent varied as permitted by this 19 section, all shares of a class or series shall have terms, including preferences, rights, and 20 limitations, that are identical with those of other shares of the same class or series. Terms of 21 shares may be made dependent upon facts objectively ascertainable outside the articles of 22 incorporation in accordance with sections 3 to 5, inclusive, of this Act. Any of the terms of 23 shares may vary among holders of the same class or series so long as such variations are 24 expressly set forth in the articles of incorporation.

1 Section 54. The articles of incorporation shall authorize:

- 2 (1) One or more classes or series of shares that together have unlimited voting rights; and 3 (2) One or more classes or series of shares, which may be the same class or classes as 4 those with voting rights, that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the 5 corporation upon dissolution.

6 Section 55. The articles of incorporation may authorize one or more classes or series of 7 shares that:

- 8 (1) Have special, conditional, or limited voting rights, or no right to vote, except to the 9 extent otherwise provided by this Act;
10 (2) Are redeemable or convertible as specified in the articles of incorporation:
11 (a) At the option of the corporation, the shareholder, or another person or upon 12 the occurrence of a specified event;
13 (b) For cash, indebtedness, securities, or other property; and 14 (c) At prices and in amounts specified, or determined in accordance with a 15 formula;
16 (3) Entitle the holders to distributions calculated in any manner, including dividends that 17 may be cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative; or 18 (4) Have preference over any other class or series of shares with respect to distributions, 19 including distributions upon the dissolution of the corporation.

20 The description of the preferences, rights, and limitations of classes or series of shares in this 21 section is not exhaustive.

22 Section 56. If the articles of incorporation so provide, the board of directors, without 23 shareholder approval, may:

- 24 (1) Classify any unissued shares into one or more classes or into one or more series

1 within a class;

2 (2) Reclassify any unissued shares of any class into one or more classes or into one or 3 more series within one or more classes; or

4 (3) Reclassify any unissued shares of any series of any class into one or more classes or 5 into one or more series within a class.

6 Section 57. If the board of directors acts pursuant to section 56 of this Act, the board shall 7 determine the terms, including the preferences, rights, and limitations, to the same extent 8 permitted under sections 53 to 55, inclusive, of this Act, of:

9 (1) Any class of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class; or 10 (2) Any series within a class before the issuance of any shares of that series.

11 Before issuing any shares of a class or series created under section 56 of this Act, the 12 corporation shall deliver to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing articles of amendment 13 setting forth the terms determined under this section.

14 Section 58. A corporation may issue the number of shares of each class or series authorized 15 by the articles of incorporation. Shares that are issued are outstanding shares until they are 16 reacquired, redeemed, converted, or cancelled. The reacquisition, redemption, or conversion of 17 outstanding shares is subject to the limitations of section 59 and sections 80 to 85, inclusive, of 18 this Act.

19 Section 59. At all times that shares of the corporation are outstanding, one or more shares 20 that together have unlimited voting rights and one or more shares that together are entitled to 21 receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution must be outstanding.

22 Section 60. A corporation may:

23 (1) Issue fractions of a share or pay in money the value of fractions of a share;

24 (2) Arrange for disposition of fractional shares by the shareholders;

1 (3) Issue scrip in registered or bearer form entitling the holder to receive a full share 2 upon surrendering enough scrip to equal a full share.

3 Section 61. Each certificate representing scrip shall be conspicuously labeled scrip and shall 4 contain the information required by section 70 of this Act.

5 Section 62. The holder of a fractional share is entitled to exercise the rights of a shareholder, 6 including the right to vote, to receive dividends, and to participate in the assets of the 7 corporation upon liquidation. The holder of scrip is not entitled to any of these rights unless the 8 scrip so provides.

9 Section 63. The board of directors may authorize the issuance of scrip subject to any 10 condition considered desirable, including:

11 (1) That the scrip will become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified 12 date; and

13 (2) That the shares for which the scrip is exchangeable may be sold and the proceeds 14 paid to the scripholders.

15 Section 64. A subscription for shares entered into before incorporation is irrevocable for six 16 months unless the subscription agreement provides a longer or shorter period or all the 17 subscribers agree to revocation. The board of directors may determine the payment terms of 18 subscription for shares that were entered into before incorporation, unless the subscription 19 agreement specifies them. A call for payment by the board of directors shall be uniform so far 20 as practicable as to all shares of the same class or series, unless the subscription agreement 21 specifies otherwise.

22 Shares issued pursuant to subscriptions entered into before incorporation are fully paid and 23 nonassessable when the corporation receives the consideration specified in the subscription 24 agreement. If a subscriber defaults in payment of money or property under a subscription

1 agreement entered into before incorporation, the corporation may collect the amount owed as 2 any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription agreement provides otherwise, the 3 corporation may rescind the agreement and may sell the shares if the debt remains unpaid for 4 more than twenty days after the corporation sends written demand for payment to the subscriber.

5 A subscription agreement entered into after incorporation is a contract between the 6 subscriber and the corporation subject to sections 65 and 66 of this Act.

7 Section 65. The powers granted in this section to the board of directors may be reserved to 8 the shareholders by the articles of incorporation.

9 No corporation may issue stocks or bonds except for money, labor done, or money or 10 property, tangible or intangible, actually received. Before the corporation may issue shares, the 11 board of directors shall determine that the consideration received or to be received for shares 12 to be issued is adequate. That determination by the board of directors is conclusive insofar as 13 the adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares relates to whether the shares are validly 14 issued, fully paid, and nonassessable. When the corporation receives the consideration for which 15 the board of directors authorized the issuance of shares, the shares issued therefore are fully paid 16 and nonassessable.

17 Section 66. An issuance of shares or other securities convertible into or rights exercisable 18 for shares, in a transaction or a series of integrated transactions, requires approval of the 19 shareholders, at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes 20 entitled to be cast on the matter exists, if:

21 (1) The shares, other securities, or rights are issued for consideration other than cash or 22 cash equivalents; and

23 (2) The voting power of shares that are issued and issuable as a result of the transaction 24 or series of integrated transactions will comprise more than twenty percent of the 1 voting power of the shares of the corporation that were outstanding immediately 2 before the transaction.

3 For purposes of determining the voting power of shares issued and issuable as a result of a 4 transaction or series of integrated transactions, the voting power of shares shall be the greater 5 of the voting power of the shares to be issued, or the voting power of the shares that would be 6 outstanding after giving effect to the conversion of convertible shares and other securities and 7 the exercise of rights to be issued. For the purposes of this section, a series of transactions is 8 integrated if consummation of one transaction is made contingent on consummation of one or 9 more of the other transactions.

10 Section 67. A purchaser from a corporation of its own shares is not liable to the corporation 11 or its creditors with respect to the shares except to pay the consideration for which the shares 12 were authorized to be issued or specified in the subscription agreement.

13 Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, no shareholder of a corporation 14 is personally liable for the acts or debts of the corporation except that a shareholder may become 15 personally liable by reason of the shareholder's own acts or conduct.

16 Section 68. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares may be issued pro 17 rata and without consideration to the corporation's shareholders or to the shareholders of one 18 or more classes or series. An issuance of shares under this section is a share dividend.

19 Shares of one class or series may not be issued as a share dividend in respect of shares of 20 another class or series unless:

- 21 (1) The articles of incorporation so authorize;
- 22 (2) A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the class or series to be issued approve 23 the issue; or
- 24 (3) There are no outstanding shares of the class or series to be issued.

1 If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled 2 to a share dividend, it is the date the board of directors authorizes the share dividend.

3 Section 69. A corporation may issue rights, options, or warrants for the purchase of shares 4 or other securities of the corporation. The board of directors shall determine the terms upon 5 which the rights, options, or warrants are issued, and the terms, including the consideration, for 6 which the shares or other securities are to be issued. The authorization by the board of directors 7 for the corporation to issue such rights, options, or warrants constitutes authorization of the 8 issuance of the shares or other securities for which the rights, options, or warrants are 9 exercisable.

10 The terms and conditions of such rights, options, or warrants, including those outstanding 11 on the effective date of this section, may include restrictions or conditions that:

- 12 (1) Preclude or limit the exercise, transfer, or receipt of such rights, options, or warrants 13 by any person or persons owning or offering to acquire a specified number or 14 percentage of the outstanding shares or other securities of the corporation or by any 15 transferee or transferees of any such person or persons; or 16 (2) Invalidate or void such rights, options, or warrants held by any such person or 17 persons or any such transferee or transferees.

18 Section 70. Shares may but need not be represented by certificates. Unless this Act or 19 another statute expressly provides otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders are 20 identical whether or not their shares are represented by certificates. At a minimum each share 21 certificate shall state on its face:

- 22 (1) The name of the issuing corporation and that it is organized under the law of this 23 state;
24 (2) The name of the person to whom issued; and

1 (3) The number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, the 2 certificate represents.

3 Section 71. If the issuing corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or 4 different series within a class, the designations, relative rights, preferences, and limitations 5 applicable to each class and the variations in rights, preferences, and limitations determined for 6 each series, and the authority of the board of directors to determine variations for future series, 7 shall be summarized on the front or back of each certificate. Alternatively, each certificate may 8 state conspicuously on its front or back that the corporation will furnish the shareholder this 9 information on request in writing and without charge.

10 Section 72. Each share certificate shall be signed, either manually or in facsimile, by two 11 officers designated in the bylaws or by the board of directors and may bear the corporate seal 12 or its facsimile. If the person who signed a share certificate no longer holds office when the 13 certificate is issued, the certificate is nevertheless valid.

14 Section 73. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of 15 directors of a corporation may authorize the issue of some or all of the shares of any or all of its 16 classes or series without certificates. The authorization does not affect shares already 17 represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the corporation.

18 Within a reasonable time after the issue or transfer of shares without certificates, the 19 corporation shall send the shareholder a written statement of the information required on 20 certificates by sections 70 and 71 of this Act, and, if applicable, sections 74 to 76, inclusive, of 21 this Act.

22 Section 74. The articles of incorporation, bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, or an 23 agreement between shareholders and the corporation may impose restrictions on the transfer or 24 registration of transfer of shares of the corporation. A restriction does not affect shares issued

1 before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction 2 agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

3 Section 75. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is valid and 4 enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this 5 section and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is 6 contained in the information statement required by section 73 of this Act. Unless so noted, a 7 restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction. A restriction 8 on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is authorized:

- 9 (1) To maintain the corporation's status when it is dependent on the number or identity 10 of its shareholders;
- 11 (2) To preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law;
- 12 (3) For any other reasonable purpose.

13 Section 76. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may:

- 14 (1) Obligate the shareholder first to offer the corporation or other persons, separately, 15 consecutively, or simultaneously, an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares;
- 16 (2) Obligate the corporation or other persons, separately, consecutively, or 17 simultaneously, to acquire the restricted shares;
- 18 (3) Require the corporation, the holders of any class of its shares, or another person to 19 approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not manifestly 20 unreasonable;
- 21 (4) Prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of 22 persons, if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

23 Section 77. A corporation may pay the expenses of selling or underwriting its shares, and 24 of organizing or reorganizing the corporation, from the consideration received for shares.

1 Section 78. The shareholders of a corporation have the preemptive right to acquire unissued 2 or treasury shares of a corporation, except, to the extent, if any, that such right is limited or 3 denied in the articles of incorporation. Having preemptive rights means that the following 4 provisions apply except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

5 (1) The shareholders of the corporation have a preemptive right, granted on uniform 6 terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors to provide a fair and 7 reasonable opportunity to exercise the right, to acquire proportional amounts of the 8 corporation's unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue 9 them;

10 (2) A shareholder may waive any preemptive right. A waiver evidenced by a writing is 11 irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration;

12 (3) There is no preemptive right with respect to:

13 (a) Shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of 14 the corporation, its subsidiaries or affiliates;

15 (b) Shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide 16 compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation, 17 its subsidiaries or affiliates;

18 (c) Shares authorized in articles of incorporation that are issued within six months 19 from the effective date of incorporation;

20 (d) Shares sold otherwise than for money;

21 (4) Holders of shares of any class without general voting rights, but with preferential 22 rights to distributions or assets, have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of 23 any class;

24 (5) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights, but without preferential

1 rights to distributions or assets, have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of 2 any class with preferential rights to distributions or assets unless the shares with 3 preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or acquire 4 shares without preferential rights;

5 (6) Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be 6 issued to any person for a period of one year after being offered to shareholders at a 7 consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set 8 for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower consideration or after the 9 expiration of one year is subject to the shareholders' preemptive rights.

10 For purposes of this section, the term, shares, includes a security convertible into or carrying 11 a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

12 Section 79. A corporation may acquire its own shares, and shares so acquired constitute 13 authorized but unissued shares. If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of the 14 acquired shares, the number of authorized shares is reduced by the number of shares acquired.

15 Section 80. A board of directors may authorize, and the corporation may make, distributions 16 to its shareholders subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation and the limitation in 17 section 81 of this Act. If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining 18 shareholders entitled to a distribution, other than one involving a purchase, redemption, or other 19 acquisition of the corporation's shares, it is the date the board of directors authorizes the 20 distribution.

21 Section 81. No distribution may be made if, after giving it effect:

22 (1) The corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual 23 course of business; or

24 (2) The corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus,

1 unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise, the amount that would be 2 needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to 3 satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential 4 rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

5 The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under 6 this section either on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and 7 principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that 8 is reasonable under the circumstances.

9 Section 82. Except as provided in section 84 of this Act, the effect of a distribution under 10 section 81 of this Act is measured:

- 11 (1) In the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the 12 corporation's shares, as of the earlier of the date money or other property is 13 transferred or debt incurred by the corporation, or the date the shareholder ceases to 14 be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares;
- 15 (2) In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness 16 is distributed; and
- 17 (3) In all other cases, as of the date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs 18 within one hundred twenty days after the date of authorization, or the date the 19 payment is made if it occurs more than one hundred twenty days after the date of 20 authorization.

21 Section 83. A corporation's indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by reason of a 22 distribution made in accordance with sections 80 to 85, inclusive, of this Act, is at parity with 23 the corporation's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors except to the extent 24 subordinated by agreement.

1 Section 84. Indebtedness of a corporation, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, 2 is not considered a liability for purposes of determinations under section 81 of this Act if its 3 terms provide that payment of principal and interest are made only if and to the extent that 4 payment of a distribution to shareholders could then be made under this section. If the 5 indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a 6 distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is actually made.

7 Section 85. The provisions of sections 80 to 84, inclusive, of this Act do not apply to 8 distributions in liquidation under sections 309 to 347, inclusive, of this Act.

9 Section 86. A corporation shall hold a meeting of shareholders annually at a time stated in 10 or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. Annual shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of 11 this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated in or 12 fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal 13 office. The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with 14 a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

15 Section 87. A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders:

- 16 (1) On call of its board of directors or any persons authorized to do so by the articles of 17 incorporation or bylaws; or
- 18 (2) If the holders of at least ten percent of all the votes entitled to be cast on an issue 19 proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to 20 the corporation one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose 21 or purposes for which it is to be held. However, the articles of incorporation may fix 22 a lower percentage or a higher percentage not exceeding twenty-five percent of all 23 the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered. Unless otherwise 24 provided in the articles of incorporation, a written demand for a special meeting may

1 be revoked by a writing to that effect received by the corporation prior to the receipt 2 by the corporation of demands sufficient in number to require the holding of a special 3 meeting.

4 If not otherwise fixed under section 88 or 93 of this Act, the record date for determining 5 shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the 6 demand. Special shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in 7 or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated or fixed in accordance with the 8 bylaws, special meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office. Only business within 9 the purposes described in the meeting notice required by section 91 of this Act may be 10 conducted at a special shareholders' meeting.

11 Section 88. The circuit court of the county where a corporation's principal office, or, if none 12 in this state, its registered office, is located may summarily order a meeting to be held:

13 (1) On application of any shareholder of the corporation entitled to participate in an 14 annual meeting if an annual meeting was not held within the earlier of six months 15 after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or fifteen months after its last annual 16 meeting; or

17 (2) On application of a shareholder who signed a demand for a special meeting valid 18 under section 87 of this Act, if:

19 (a) Notice of the special meeting was not given within thirty days after the date 20 the demand was delivered to the corporation's secretary; or 21 (b) The special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

22 The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, determine the shares entitled to 23 participate in the meeting, specify a record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice 24 of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the

1 quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting, or direct that the votes 2 represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other 3 orders necessary to accomplish the purposes of the meeting.

4 Section 89. Action required or permitted by this Act to be taken at a shareholders' meeting 5 may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all the shareholders entitled to vote on 6 the action. The action shall be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action 7 taken, signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action, and delivered to the 8 corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. If not otherwise 9 fixed under section 88 or 93 of this Act, the record date for determining shareholders entitled 10 to take action without a meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the consent under this 11 section. No written consent is effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless 12 written consents signed by all shareholders entitled to vote on the action are received by the 13 corporation. A written consent may be revoked by a writing to that effect received by the 14 corporation prior to receipt by the corporation of unrevoked written consents signed by all 15 shareholders entitled to vote on the action. A consent signed under this section has the effect of 16 a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

17 Section 90. If this Act requires that notice of proposed action be given to nonvoting 18 shareholders and the action is to be taken by unanimous consent of the voting shareholders, the 19 corporation shall give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of the proposed action at least 20 ten days before the action is taken. The notice shall contain or be accompanied by the same 21 material that, under this Act, would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in 22 a notice of meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders 23 for action.

24 Section 91. Except for the increase of stock and indebtedness when sixty days' notice is

1 required by S.D. Const., Art. XVII, § 8, a corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, 2 and place of each annual and special shareholders' meeting no fewer than ten nor more than 3 sixty days before the meeting date. Unless this Act or the articles of incorporation require 4 otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the 5 meeting. Unless this Act or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, notice of an annual 6 meeting need not include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is 7 called. However, notice of a special meeting shall include a description of the purpose or 8 purposes for which the meeting is called. If not otherwise fixed under section 88 or 93 of this 9 Act, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual 10 or special shareholders' meeting is the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

11 Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders' meeting is 12 adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time, or 13 place if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new 14 record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under section 93 of this Act, notice 15 of the adjourned meeting shall be given under this section to persons who are shareholders as 16 of the new record date.

17 Section 92. A shareholder may waive any notice required by this Act, the articles of 18 incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver shall 19 be in writing, shall be signed by the shareholder entitled to the notice, and shall be delivered to 20 the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

21 A shareholder's attendance at a meeting:

- 22 (1) Waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the 23 shareholder at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or 24 transacting business at the meeting;

1 (2) Waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not 2 within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the 3 shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

4 Section 93. The bylaws may fix or provide the manner of fixing the record date for one or 5 more voting groups in order to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of a shareholders' 6 meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote, or to take any other action. If the bylaws do not 7 fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board of directors of the corporation may fix a future 8 date as the record date. A record date fixed under this section may not be more than seventy 9 days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of shareholders. A determination 10 of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a shareholders' meeting is effective for any 11 adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date, which it must 12 do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty days after the date fixed 13 for the original meeting.

14 If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty days after the 15 date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date continues in 16 effect or it may fix a new record date.

17 Section 94. At each meeting of shareholders, a chair shall preside. The chair shall be 18 appointed as provided in the bylaws or, in the absence of such provision, by the board. The 19 chair, unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, shall determine the order 20 of business and may establish rules for the conduct of the meeting. Any rules adopted for, and 21 the conduct of, the meeting shall be fair to shareholders. The chair of the meeting shall 22 announce at the meeting when the polls close for each matter voted upon. If no announcement 23 is made, the polls are deemed to have closed upon the final adjournment of the meeting. After 24 the polls close, no ballots, proxies, or votes nor any revocations or changes thereto may be

1 accepted.

2 Section 95. After fixing a record date for a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an 3 alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a shareholders' 4 meeting. The list shall be arranged by voting group, and within each voting group by class or 5 series of shares, and show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder. The 6 shareholders' list shall be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning two business 7 days after notice of the meeting is given for which the list was prepared and continuing through 8 the meeting, at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice
9 in the city where the meeting will be held. A shareholder, a shareholder's agent, or an attorney 10 is entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of section 376 of this 11 Act, to copy the list, during regular business hours and at the person's expense, during the period 12 it is available for inspection. The corporation shall make the shareholders' list available at the 13 meeting, and any shareholder, shareholder's agent, or attorney is entitled to inspect the list at any 14 time during the meeting or any adjournment. If the corporation refuses to allow any shareholder, 15 or the shareholder's agent or attorney to inspect the shareholders' list before or at the meeting, 16 or copy the list as permitted by this section, the circuit court of the county where a corporation's 17 principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, is located, on application of the 18 shareholder, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense and 19 may postpone the meeting for which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is 20 complete. Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list does not affect 21 the validity of action taken at the meeting.

22 Section 96. Except as provided in sections 97 and 98 of this Act or unless the articles of 23 incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class, is entitled to one 24 vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders' meeting. Only shares are entitled to vote.

1 Section 97. Absent special circumstances, the shares of a corporation are not entitled to vote 2 if they are owned, directly or indirectly, by a second corporation, domestic or foreign, and the 3 first corporation owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the shares entitled to vote for 4 directors of the second corporation. This section does not limit the power of a corporation to 5 vote any shares, including its own shares, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

6 Section 98. Redeemable shares are not entitled to vote after notice of redemption is mailed 7 to the holders and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a bank, trust 8 company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable obligation to pay the holders the 9 redemption price on surrender of the shares.

10 Section 99. A shareholder may vote the shareholder's shares in person or by proxy. Any 11 shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney-in-fact may appoint a proxy to vote or 12 otherwise act for the shareholder by signing an appointment form, or by an electronic 13 transmission. An electronic transmission shall contain or shall be accompanied by information 14 from which one can determine that the shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney-in-fact 15 authorized the transmission.

16 Section 100. An appointment of a proxy is effective when a signed appointment form or an 17 electronic transmission of the appointment is received by the inspector of election or the officer 18 or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for eleven 19 months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

20 Section 101. An appointment of a proxy is revocable unless the appointment form or 21 electronic transmission states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an 22 interest. Appointments coupled with an interest include the appointment of:

- 23 (1) A pledgee;
- 24 (2) A person who purchased or agreed to purchase the shares;

1 (3) A creditor of the corporation who extended it credit under terms requiring the 2 appointment;

3 (4) An employee of the corporation whose employment contract requires the 4 appointment; or

5 (5) A party to a voting agreement created under section 115 of this Act.

6 An appointment made irrevocable under this section is revoked when the interest with which 7 it is coupled is extinguished.

8 Section 102. The death or incapacity of the shareholder appointing a proxy does not affect 9 the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or 10 incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes 11 before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

12 Section 103. A transferee for value of shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may 13 revoke the appointment if the transferee did not know of its existence when the transferee 14 acquired the shares and the existence of the irrevocable appointment was not noted 15 conspicuously on the certificate representing the shares or on the information statement for 16 shares without certificates.

17 Section 104. Subject to sections 106 and 107 of this Act and to any express limitation on 18 the proxy's authority stated in the appointment form or electronic transmission, a corporation 19 is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the 20 appointment.

21 Section 105. A corporation may establish a procedure by which the beneficial owner of 22 shares that are registered in the name of a nominee is recognized by the corporation as the 23 shareholder. The extent of this recognition may be determined in the procedure. The procedure 24 may set forth:

- 1 (1) The types of nominees to which it applies;
- 2 (2) The rights or privileges that the corporation recognizes in a beneficial owner;
- 3 (3) The manner in which the procedure is selected by the nominee;
- 4 (4) The information that must be provided when the procedure is selected;
- 5 (5) The period for which selection of the procedure is effective; and
- 6 (6) Other aspects of the rights and duties created.

7 Section 106. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment 8 corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith is entitled to 9 accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the 10 shareholder. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not 11 correspond to the name of its shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith is nevertheless 12 entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act 13 of the shareholder if:

- 14 (1) The shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or 15 agent of the entity;
- 16 (2) The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or 17 conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence 18 of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to 19 the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;
- 20 (3) The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the 21 shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the 22 corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy 23 appointment;
- 24 (4) The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-

1 fact of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the 2 corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented 3 with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

4 (5) Two or more persons are the shareholder as co-tenants or fiduciaries and the name 5 signed purports to be the name of at least one of the co-owners and the person 6 signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the co-owners.

7 Section 107. The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy 8 appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good 9 faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the 10 signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder. The corporation and its officer or agent who 11 accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance 12 with the standards of this section or section 99 of this Act are not liable in damages to the 13 shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection. Corporate action based on the 14 acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is 15 valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

16 Section 108. Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter 17 at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. Unless the 18 articles of incorporation or this Act provide otherwise, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast 19 on the matter by the voting group constitutes a quorum of that voting group for action on that 20 matter. Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is deemed present for 21 quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting 22 unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting. If a quorum exists, action 23 on a matter, other than the election of directors, by a voting group is approved if the votes cast 24 within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the

1 articles of incorporation or this Act require a greater number of affirmative votes. An 2 amendment of articles of incorporation adding, changing, or deleting a quorum or voting 3 requirement for a voting group greater than specified in this section is governed by section 110
4 of this Act.

5 Section 109. If the articles of incorporation or this Act provide for voting by a single voting 6 group on a matter, action on that matter is taken when voted upon by that voting group as 7 provided in section 108 of this Act. If the articles of incorporation or this Act provide for voting 8 by two or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter is taken only when voted upon 9 by each of those voting groups counted separately as provided in section 108 of this Act. Action 10 may be taken by one voting group on a matter even though no action is taken by another voting 11 group entitled to vote on the matter.

12 Section 110. The articles of incorporation may provide for a greater quorum or voting 13 requirement for shareholders, or voting groups of shareholders, than is provided for by this Act.
14 An amendment to the articles of incorporation that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum 15 or voting requirement shall meet the same quorum requirement and shall be adopted by the same 16 vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then 17 in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

18 Section 111. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, directors are elected 19 by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which 20 a quorum is present. Shareholders may cumulate their votes for directors. The right to cumulate 21 votes for directors means that the shareholders are entitled to multiply the number of votes that 22 they are entitled to cast by the number of directors for whom they are entitled to vote and cast 23 the product for a single candidate or distribute the product among two or more candidates. If 24 there exists a tie vote between candidates, with resulting failure of choice as to any place as

1 director, such choice shall be determined by drawing of lots under such procedure that all rights 2 of the candidates involved in such tie are adequately safeguarded.

3 Section 112. A corporation having any shares listed on a national securities exchange or 4 regularly traded in a market maintained by one or more members of a national or affiliated 5 securities association shall, and any other corporation may, appoint one or more inspectors to 6 act at a meeting of shareholders and make a written report of the inspectors' determinations.
7 Each inspector shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict 8 impartiality and according to the best of the inspector's ability. The inspectors shall:

- 9 (1) Ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each;
- 10 (2) Determine the shares represented at a meeting;
- 11 (3) Determine the validity of proxies and ballots;
- 12 (4) Count all votes; and
- 13 (5) Determine the result.

14 An inspector may be an officer or employee of the corporation.

15 Section 113. One or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the 16 right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the 17 trust, which may include anything consistent with its purpose, and transferring their shares to 18 the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names 19 and addresses of all owners of beneficial interests in the trust, together with the number and 20 class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the 21 corporation's principal office.

22 A voting trust becomes effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered 23 in the trustee's name. A voting trust is valid for not more than ten years after its effective date 24 unless extended under section 114 of this Act.

1 Section 114. All or some of the parties to a voting trust may extend it for additional terms 2 of not more than ten years each by signing written consent to the extension. An extension is 3 valid for ten years from the date the first shareholder signs the extension agreement. The voting 4 trustee must deliver copies of the extension agreement and list of beneficial owners to the 5 corporation's principal office. An extension agreement binds only those parties signing it.

6 Section 115. Two or more shareholders may provide for the manner in which they will vote 7 their shares by signing an agreement for this purpose. A voting agreement created under this 8 section is not subject to the provisions of sections 113 and 114 of this Act. A voting agreement 9 created under this section is specifically enforceable.

10 Section 116. An agreement among the shareholders of a corporation that complies with this 11 section is effective among the shareholders and the corporation even though it is inconsistent 12 with one or more other provisions of this Act in that it:

- 13 (1) Eliminates the board of directors or restricts the discretion or powers of the board of 14 directors;
- 15 (2) Governs the authorization or making of distributions whether or not in proportion to 16 ownership of shares, subject to the limitations in sections 80 to 85, inclusive, of this 17 Act;
- 18 (3) Establishes who shall be directors or officers of the corporation, or their terms of 19 office or manner of selection or removal;
- 20 (4) Governs, in general or in regard to specific matters, the exercise or division of voting 21 power by or between the shareholders and directors or by or among any of them, 22 including use of weighted voting rights or director proxies;
- 23 (5) Establishes the terms and conditions of any agreement for the transfer or use of 24 property or the provision of services between the corporation and any shareholder,

1 director, officer, or employee of the corporation or among any of them;

2 (6) Transfers to one or more shareholders or other persons all or part of the authority to 3 exercise the corporate powers or to manage the business and affairs of the 4 corporation, including the resolution of any issue about which there exists a deadlock 5 among directors or shareholders;

6 (7) Requires dissolution of the corporation at the request of one or more of the 7 shareholders or upon the occurrence of a specified event or contingency; or 8 (8) Otherwise governs the exercise of the corporate powers or the management of the 9 business and affairs of the corporation or the relationship among the shareholders, 10 the directors, and the corporation, or among any of them, and is not contrary to public 11 policy.

12 Section 117. Any agreement authorized by section 116 of this Act shall be:

13 (1) Set forth in the articles of incorporation or bylaws and approved by all persons who 14 are shareholders at the time of the agreement, or in a written agreement that is signed 15 by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the agreement and is made known 16 to the corporation;

17 (2) Subject to amendment only by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the 18 amendment, unless the agreement provides otherwise; and 19 (3) Valid for ten years, unless the agreement provides otherwise.

20 Section 118. The existence of an agreement authorized by section 116 of this Act shall be 21 noted conspicuously on the front or back of each certificate for outstanding shares or on the 22 information statement required by section 73 of this Act. If, at the time of the agreement, the 23 corporation has shares outstanding represented by certificates, the corporation shall recall the 24 outstanding certificates and issue substitute certificates that comply with this section. The failure

1 to note the existence of the agreement on the certificate or information statement does not affect 2 the validity of the agreement or any action taken pursuant to it. Any purchaser of shares who, 3 at the time of purchase, did not have knowledge of the existence of the agreement is entitled to 4 rescission of the purchase. A purchaser is deemed to have knowledge of the existence of the 5 agreement if its existence is noted on the certificate or information statement for the shares in 6 compliance with this section and, if the shares are not represented by a certificate, the 7 information statement is delivered to the purchaser at or prior to the time of purchase of the 8 shares. An action to enforce the right of rescission authorized by this section must be 9 commenced within the earlier of ninety days after discovery of the existence of the agreement 10 or two years after the time of purchase of the shares.

11 Section 119. An agreement authorized by section 116 of this Act shall cease to be effective 12 when shares of the corporation are listed on a national securities exchange or regularly traded 13 in a market maintained by one or more members of a national or affiliated securities association.
14 If the agreement ceases to be effective for any reason, the board of directors may, if the 15 agreement is contained or referred to in the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, 16 adopt an amendment to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, without shareholder action, to 17 delete the agreement and any references to it.

18 Section 120. An agreement authorized by section 116 of this Act that limits the discretion 19 or powers of the board of directors shall relieve the directors of, and impose upon the person or 20 persons in whom such discretion or powers are vested, liability for acts or omissions imposed 21 by law on directors to the extent that the discretion or powers of the directors are limited by the 22 agreement.

23 Section 121. The existence or performance of an agreement authorized by section 116 of this 24 Act is not a ground for imposing personal liability on any shareholder for the acts or debts of

1 the corporation even if the agreement or its performance treats the corporation as if it were a 2 partnership or results in failure to observe the corporate formalities otherwise applicable to the 3 matters governed by the agreement.

4 Section 122. Incorporators or subscribers for shares may act as shareholders with respect to 5 an agreement authorized by section 116 of this Act if no shares have been issued when the 6 agreement is made.

7 Section 123. Terms used in sections 124 to 135, inclusive, of this Act mean:

- 8 (1) "Derivative proceeding," a civil suit in the right of a domestic corporation or, to the 9 extent provided in section 135 of this Act, in the right of a foreign corporation;
- 10 (2) "Shareholder," includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or 11 held by a nominee on the beneficial owner's behalf.

12 Section 124. No shareholder may commence or maintain a derivative proceeding unless the 13 shareholder:

- 14 (1) Was a shareholder of the corporation at the time of the act or omission complained 15 of or became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was 16 a shareholder at that time; and
- 17 (2) Fairly and adequately represents the interests of the corporation in enforcing the right 18 of the corporation.

19 Section 125. No shareholder may commence a derivative proceeding until:

- 20 (1) A written demand has been made upon the corporation to take suitable action; and 21 (2) Ninety days have expired from the date the demand was made unless the shareholder 22 has earlier been notified that the demand has been rejected by the corporation or 23 unless irreparable injury to the corporation would result by waiting for the expiration 24 of the ninety-day period.

1 Section 126. If the corporation commences an inquiry into the allegations made in the 2 demand or complaint, the court may stay any derivative proceeding for such period as the court 3 deems appropriate.

4 Section 127. A derivative proceeding shall be dismissed by the court on motion by the 5 corporation if one of the groups specified in sections 128 or 132 of this Act has determined in 6 good faith after conducting a reasonable inquiry upon which its conclusions are based that the 7 maintenance of the derivative proceeding is not in the best interests of the corporation.

8 Section 128. Unless a panel is appointed pursuant to section 132 of this Act, the 9 determination in section 127 of this Act shall be made by:

- 10 (1) A majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of 11 directors if the independent directors constitute a quorum; or 12 (2) A majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more independent directors 13 appointed by majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board 14 of directors, whether or not such independent directors constituted a quorum.

15 Section 129. None of the following is, by itself, cause for a director to be considered not 16 independent for purposes of sections 127 to 132, inclusive, of this Act:

- 17 (1) The nomination or election of the director by persons who are defendants in the 18 derivative proceeding or against whom action is demanded; 19 (2) The naming of the director as a defendant in the derivative proceeding or as a person 20 against whom action is demanded; or 21 (3) The approval by the director of the act being challenged in the derivative proceeding 22 or demand if the act resulted in no personal benefit to the director.

23 Section 130. If a derivative proceeding is commenced after a determination has been made 24 rejecting a demand by a shareholder, the complaint shall allege with particularity facts

1 establishing either (1) that a majority of the board of directors did not consist of independent 2 directors at the time the determination was made, or (2) that the requirements of section 127 of 3 this Act have not been met.

4 Section 131. If a majority of the board of directors does not consist of independent directors 5 at the time the determination is made, the corporation shall have the burden of proving that the 6 requirements of section 127 of this Act have been met. If a majority of the board of directors 7 consists of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the plaintiff has the 8 burden of proving that the requirements of section 127 of this Act have not been met.

9 Section 132. The court may appoint a panel of one or more independent persons upon 10 motion by the corporation to make a determination whether the maintenance of the derivative 11 proceeding is in the best interests of the corporation. In such case, the plaintiff has the burden 12 of proving that the requirements of section 127 of this Act have not been met.

13 Section 133. A derivative proceeding may not be discontinued or settled without the court's 14 approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially 15 affect the interests of the corporation's shareholders or a class of shareholders, the court shall 16 direct that notice be given to the shareholders affected.

17 Section 134. On termination of the derivative proceeding the court may:

- 18 (1) Order the corporation to pay the plaintiff's reasonable expenses, including counsel 19 fees, incurred in the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding has resulted in a 20 substantial benefit to the corporation;
- 21 (2) Order the plaintiff to pay any defendant's reasonable expenses, including counsel 22 fees, incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was 23 commenced or maintained without reasonable cause or for an improper purpose; or
- 24 (3) Order a party to pay an opposing party's reasonable expenses, including counsel fees,

1 incurred because of the filing of a pleading, motion or other paper, if it finds that the 2 pleading, motion, or other paper was not well grounded in fact, after reasonable 3 inquiry, or warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, 4 modification, or reversal of existing law and was interposed for an improper purpose, 5 such as to harass or cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of 6 litigation.

7 Section 135. In any derivative proceeding in the right of a foreign corporation, the matters 8 covered by sections 123 to 135, inclusive, of this Act shall be governed by the laws of the 9 jurisdiction of incorporation of the foreign corporation except for sections 126, 133, and 134
10 of this Act.

11 Section 136. Except as provided in sections 116 to 122, inclusive, of this Act, each 12 corporation must have a board of directors. All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under 13 the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation managed by or under the 14 direction of, its board of directors, subject to any limitation set forth in the articles of 15 incorporation or in an agreement authorized under section 116 of this Act.

16 Section 137. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for 17 directors. A director need not be a resident of this state or a shareholder of the corporation 18 unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so prescribe.

19 Section 138. A board of directors must consist of one or more individuals, with the number 20 specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws. The number of 21 directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to, or in the manner 22 provided in, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Directors are elected at the first annual 23 shareholders' meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter unless their terms are staggered 24 under section 141 of this Act.

1 Section 139. If the articles of incorporation authorize dividing the shares into classes, the 2 articles may also authorize the election of all or a specified number of directors by the holders
3 of one or more authorized classes of shares. A class of shares entitled to elect one or more 4 directors is a separate voting group for purposes of the election of directors.

5 Section 140. The terms of the initial directors of a corporation expire at the first 6 shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected. The term of any other director expires at 7 the next annual shareholders' meeting following the director's election unless the terms of the 8 directors are staggered under section 141 of this Act. A decrease in the number of directors does 9 not shorten an incumbent director's term. The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires 10 at the next shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected. Despite the expiration of a 11 director's term, a director continues to serve until a successor is elected and qualifies or until 12 there is a decrease in the number of directors.

13 Section 141. The articles of incorporation may provide for staggering the terms of directors 14 by dividing the total number of directors into two or three groups, with each group containing 15 as close to one-half or one-third of the total as possible. In that event, the terms of directors in 16 the first group expire at the first annual shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of 17 the second group expire at the second annual shareholders' meeting after their election, and the 18 terms of the third group, if any, expire at the third annual shareholders' meeting after their 19 election. At each annual shareholders' meeting held thereafter, directors shall be chosen for a 20 term of two years or three years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms expire.

21 Section 142. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the board of 22 directors, or its chair, or to the corporation. A resignation is effective when the notice is 23 delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

24 Section 143. The shareholders may remove one or more directors, with or without cause,

1 unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause. If a 2 director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group 3 may participate in the vote to remove that director.

4 If cumulative voting is authorized, a director may not be removed if the number of votes
5 sufficient to elect that director under cumulative voting is voted against removal. If cumulative 6 voting is not authorized, a director may be removed only if the number of votes cast to remove 7 that director exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove that director.

8 A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for the purpose of 9 removing that director and the meeting notice must state that the purpose, or one of the 10 purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

11 Section 144. The circuit court of the county where a corporation's principal office, or, if 12 none in this state, its registered office, is located may remove a director of the corporation from 13 office in a proceeding commenced by or in the right of the corporation if the court finds that (1) 14 the director engaged in fraudulent conduct with respect to the corporation or its shareholders, 15 grossly abused the position of director, or intentionally inflicted harm on the corporation; and 16 (2) considering the director's course of conduct and the inadequacy of other available remedies, 17 removal would be in the best interest of the corporation.

18 A shareholder proceeding on behalf of the corporation under this section shall comply with 19 all of the requirements of sections 123 to 135, inclusive, of this Act, except subdivision (1) of 20 section 124 of this Act.

21 The court, in addition to removing the director, may bar the director from reelection for a 22 period prescribed by the court. Nothing in this section limits the equitable powers of the court 23 to order other relief.

24 Section 145. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, if a vacancy occurs on 1 a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:

2 (1) The shareholders may fill the vacancy;

3 (2) The board of directors may fill the vacancy; or 4 (3) If the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they 5 may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors 6 remaining in office.

7 If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only 8 the holders of shares of that voting group are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by 9 the shareholders.

10 A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a resignation effective at a 11 later date under section 142 of this Act or otherwise, may be filled before the vacancy occurs 12 but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

14 directors may fix the compensation of directors.

15 Section 147. The board of directors may hold regular or special meetings in or out of this 16 state. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors 17 may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the 18 meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating 19 may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting 20 by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

21 Section 148. Except to the extent that the articles of incorporation or bylaws require that 22 action by the board of directors be taken at a meeting, action required or permitted by this Act 23 to be taken by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if each director signs a 24 consent describing the action to be taken and delivers it to the corporation.

1 Action taken under this section is the act of the board of directors when one or more
2 consents signed by all the directors are delivered to the corporation. The consent may specify 3 the time at which the action taken thereunder is to be effective. A director's consent may be 4 withdrawn by a revocation signed by the director and delivered to the corporation prior to 5 delivery to the corporation of unrevoked written consents signed by all the directors.

6 A consent signed under this section has the effect of action taken at a meeting of the board 7 of directors and may be described as such in any document.

8 Section 149. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular 9 meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice of the date, time, place, or 10 purpose of the meeting.

11 Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a longer or shorter period, special 12 meetings of the board of directors must be preceded by at least two days' notice of the date, time, 13 and place of the meeting. The notice need not describe the purpose of the special meeting unless 14 required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

15 Section 150. A director may waive any notice required by this Act, the articles of 16 incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except as 17 provided by this section, the waiver must be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the 18 notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records.

19 A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to the 20 director of the meeting unless the director at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon 21 arrival, objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not 22 thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

23 Section 151. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number or 24 unless otherwise specifically provided in this Act, a quorum of a board of directors consists of:

- 1 (1) A majority of the fixed number of directors if the corporation has a fixed board size; 2 or
3 (2) A majority of the number of directors prescribed, or if no number is prescribed the 4 number in office immediately before the meeting begins, if the corporation has a 5 variable-range size board.

6 The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize a quorum of a board of directors to 7 consist of no fewer than one-third of the fixed or prescribed number of directors determined 8 under this section. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority 9 of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or 10 bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

11 Section 152. A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee 12 of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action 13 taken unless:

- 14 (1) The director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon arrival, to 15 holding it or transacting business at the meeting; 16 (2) The director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of 17 the meeting; or 18 (3) The director delivers written notice of dissent or abstention to the presiding officer 19 of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after 20 adjournment of the meeting.

21 The right of dissent or abstention is not available to a director who votes in favor of the 22 action taken.

23 Section 153. Unless this Act, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws provide otherwise, 24 a board of directors may create one or more committees and appoint one or more members of

1 the board of directors to serve on any such committee. Unless the provisions of this Act 2 otherwise provides, the creation of a committee and appointment of members to it must be 3 approved by the greater of a majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken or the 4 number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to take action under 5 section 152 of this Act.

6 Sections 147 to 152, inclusive, of this Act apply both to committees of the board and to their 7 members.

8 Section 154. To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles of 9 incorporation or bylaws, each committee may exercise the powers of the board of directors 10 under section 136 of this Act. However, a committee may not:

- 11 (1) Authorize or approve distributions, except according to a formula or method, or 12 within limits, prescribed by the board of directors;
- 13 (2) Approve or propose to shareholders action that this Act requires be approved by 14 shareholders;
- 15 (3) Fill vacancies on the board of directors or, subject to section 156 of this Act, on any 16 of its committees; or
- 17 (4) Adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws.

18 Section 155. The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by, a committee does not 19 alone constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in sections 20 157 and 158 of this Act.

21 Section 156. The board of directors may appoint one or more directors as alternate members 22 of any committee to replace any absent or disqualified member during the member's absence or 23 disqualification. Unless the articles of incorporation or the bylaws or the resolution creating the 24 committee provide otherwise, in the event of the absence or disqualification of a member of a

1 committee, the member or members present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, 2 unanimously, may appoint another director to act in place of the absent or disqualified member.

3 Section 157. Each member of the board of directors, when discharging the duties of a 4 director, shall act in good faith and in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best 5 interests of the corporation. The members of the board of directors or a committee of the board, 6 when becoming informed in connection with their decision-making function or devoting 7 attention to their oversight function, shall discharge their duties with the care that a person in 8 a like position would reasonably believe appropriate under similar circumstances.

9 Section 158. In discharging board or committee duties, a director, who does not have 10 knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted, is entitled to rely on the performance by any of the 11 persons specified in subdivision (1) or subdivision (3) to whom the board may have delegated, 12 formally or informally by course of conduct, the authority or duty to perform one or more of the 13 board's functions that are delegable under applicable law.

14 In discharging board or committee duties, a director, who does not have knowledge that 15 makes reliance unwarranted, is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, 16 including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by any of the 17 following persons specified in subdivisions (1) to (3), inclusive.

18 A director is entitled to rely, in accordance with this section, on:

- 19 (1) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably 20 believes to be reliable and competent in the functions performed or the information, 21 opinions, reports, or statements provided;
- 22 (2) Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons retained by the corporation as to 23 matters involving skills or expertise the director reasonably believes are matters 24 within the particular person's professional or expert competence or as to which the 1 particular person merits confidence; or

2 (3) A committee of the board of directors of which the director is not a member if the 3 director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

4 Section 159. A director is not liable to the corporation or its shareholders for any decision 5 to take or not to take action, or any failure to take any action, as a director, unless the party 6 asserting liability in a proceeding establishes that:

7 (1) Any provision in the articles of incorporation authorized by subdivision (4) of section 8 29 of this Act or the protection afforded by sections 184 and 185 of this Act for 9 action taken in compliance with sections 186 to 189, inclusive, of this Act or sections 10 190 to 193, inclusive of this Act, if interposed as a bar to the proceeding by the 11 director, does not preclude liability; and 12 (2) The challenged conduct consisted or was the result of:

13 (a) Action not in good faith; or

14 (b) A decision:

15 (i) Which the director did not reasonably believe to be in the best interests 16 of the corporation; or

17 (ii) As to which the director was not informed to an extent the director 18 reasonably believed appropriate in the circumstances; or

19 (c) A lack of objectivity due to the director's familial, financial, or business 20 relationship with, or a lack of independence due to the director's domination 21 or control by, another person having a material interest in the challenged 22 conduct:

23 (i) Which relationship or which domination or control could reasonably be 24 expected to have affected the director's judgment respecting the 1 challenged conduct in a manner adverse to the corporation; and

2 (ii) After a reasonable expectation to such effect has been established, the 3 director has not established that the challenged conduct was reasonably 4 believed by the director to be in the best interests of the corporation; or 5 (d) A sustained failure of the director to devote attention to ongoing oversight of 6 the business and affairs of the corporation, or a failure to devote timely 7 attention, by making, or causing to be made, appropriate inquiry, when 8 particular facts and circumstances of significant concern materialize that 9 would alert a reasonably attentive director to the need therefor; or 10 (e) Receipt of a financial benefit to which the director was not entitled or any 11 other breach of the director's duties to deal fairly with the corporation and its 12 shareholders that is actionable under applicable law.

13 Section 160. The party seeking to hold the director liable:

14 (1) For money damages, also has the burden of establishing that:

15 (a) Harm to the corporation or its shareholders has been suffered; and 16 (b) The harm suffered was proximately caused by the director's challenged 17 conduct; or

18 (2) For other money payment under a legal remedy, such as compensation for the 19 unauthorized use of corporate assets, also has whatever persuasion burden may be 20 called for to establish that the payment sought is appropriate in the circumstances; or 21 (3) For other money payment under an equitable remedy, such as profit recovery by or 22 disgorgement to the corporation, also has whatever persuasion burden may be called 23 for to establish that the equitable remedy sought is appropriate in the circumstances.

24 Section 161. Nothing contained in sections 159 and 160 of this Act:

- 1 (1) In any instance where fairness is at issue, such as consideration of the fairness of a 2 transaction to the corporation under subdivision (3) of section 185 of this Act, alters 3 the burden of proving the fact or lack of fairness otherwise applicable;
- 4 (2) Alters the fact or lack of liability of a director under another section of this Act, such 5 as the provisions governing the consequences of an unlawful distribution under 6 sections 162 and 163 of this Act, or a transactional interest under sections 184 and 7 185 of this Act; or
- 8 (3) Affects any rights to which the corporation or a shareholder may be entitled under 9 another statute of this state or the United States.

10 Section 162. A director who votes for or assents to a distribution in excess of what may be 11 authorized and made pursuant to section 80 or 326 of this Act is personally liable to the 12 corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed 13 without violating section 80 or 326 of this Act if the party asserting liability establishes that 14 when taking the action the director did not comply with sections 157 and 158 of this Act. A 15 proceeding to enforce the liability of a director under this section is barred unless it is 16 commenced within two years after the date:

- 17 (1) On which the effect of the distribution was measured under section 82 or 84 of this 18 Act;
- 19 (2) As of which the violation of section 80 of this Act occurred as the consequence of 20 disregard of a restriction in the articles of incorporation; or
- 21 (3) On which the distribution of assets to shareholders under section 326 of this Act was 22 made.

23 Section 163. A director held liable under section 162 of this Act for an unlawful distribution 24 is entitled to:

- 1 (1) Contribution from every other director who could be held liable under section 162 2 of this Act for the unlawful distribution; and
- 3 (2) Recoupment from each shareholder of the pro-rata portion of the amount of the 4 unlawful distribution the shareholder accepted, knowing the distribution was made 5 in violation of section 80 or 326 of this Act.

6 A proceeding to enforce contribution or recoupment under this section is barred unless it is 7 commenced within one year after the liability of the claimant has been finally adjudicated under 8 section 162 of this Act.

9 Section 164. A corporation has the officers described in its bylaws or appointed by the board 10 of directors in accordance with the bylaws. The board of directors may elect individuals to fill 11 one or more offices of the corporation. An officer may appoint one or more officers if 12 authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors. The bylaws or the board of directors shall 13 assign to one of the officers responsibility for preparing the minutes of the directors' and 14 shareholders' meetings and for maintaining and authenticating the records of the corporation 15 required to be kept under sections 371 and 372 of this Act. The same individual may 16 simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation.

17 Section 165. Each officer has the authority, and shall perform the duties, set forth in the 18 bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties prescribed by the board of 19 directors or by direction of an officer authorized by the board of directors to prescribe the duties 20 of other officers.

21 Section 166. An officer, when performing in such capacity, shall act:

- 22 (1) In good faith;
- 23 (2) With the care that a person in a like position would reasonably exercise under similar 24 circumstances; and

1 (3) In a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the 2 corporation.

3 Section 167. In discharging those duties, an officer, who does not have knowledge that 4 makes reliance unwarranted, is entitled to rely on:

5 (1) The performance of properly delegated responsibilities by one or more employees of 6 the corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent 7 in performing the responsibilities delegated; or

8 (2) Information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other 9 financial data, prepared or presented by one or more employees of the corporation 10 whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters 11 presented or by legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons retained by the 12 corporation as to matters involving skills or expertise the officer reasonably believes 13 are matters within the particular person's professional or expert competence or as to 14 which the particular person merits confidence.

15 Section 168. An officer is not liable to the corporation or its shareholders for any decision 16 to take or not to take action, or any failure to take any action, as an officer, if the duties of the 17 office are performed in compliance with sections 166 and 167 of this Act. Whether an officer 18 who does not comply with this section is liable depends in such instance on applicable law, 19 including those principles of sections 159 to 161, inclusive, of this Act that have relevance.

20 Section 169. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation. A 21 resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective 22 time. If a resignation is made effective at a later time and the board or the appointing officer 23 accepts the future effective time, the board or the appointing officer may fill the pending 24 vacancy before the effective time if the board or the appointing officer provides that the 1 successor does not take office until the effective time.

2 An officer may be removed at any time with or without cause by the board of directors; the 3 officer who appointed such officer, unless the bylaws or the board of directors provide 4 otherwise; or any other officer if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.

5 In this section, the term, appointing officer, means the officer, including any successor to 6 that officer, who appointed the officer resigning or being removed.

7 Section 170. The appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights. An officer's 8 removal does not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the corporation. An officer's 9 resignation does not affect the corporation's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

10 Section 171. Terms used in sections 171 to 182, inclusive, of this Act, mean:

11 (1) "Corporation," includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a corporation 12 in a merger;

13 (2) "Director" or "officer," an individual who is or was a director or officer, respectively, 14 of a corporation or who, while a director or officer of the corporation, is or was 15 serving at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, 16 or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, 17 employee benefit plan, or other entity. A director or officer is considered to be 18 serving an employee benefit plan at the corporation's request if any duties to the 19 corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, the director or 20 officer to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. The term, director 21 or officer, includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal 22 representative of a director or officer;

23 (3) "Disinterested director," a director who, at the time of a vote referred to in section 24 176 of this Act or a vote or selection referred to in section 179 of this Act, is not a

1 party to the proceeding, or an individual having a familial, financial, professional or 2 employment relationship with the director whose indemnification or advance for 3 expenses is the subject of the decision being made, which relationship would, in the 4 circumstances, reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's 5 judgment when voting on the decision being made;

6 (4) "Expenses," includes counsel fees;

7 (5) "Liability," the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, including an 8 excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or reasonable expenses 9 incurred with respect to a proceeding;

10 (6) "Official capacity," when used with respect to a director, the office of director in a 11 corporation; and when used with respect to an officer, as contemplated in section 179 12 of this Act, the office in a corporation held by the officer. Official capacity does not 13 include service for any other domestic or foreign corporation or any partnership, joint 14 venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity;

15 (7) "Party," an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made, a defendant or 16 respondent in a proceeding;

17 (8) "Proceeding," any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, 18 whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative and whether 19 formal or informal.

20 Section 172. Except as otherwise provided in section 173 of this Act, a corporation may 21 indemnify a director who is a party to a proceeding by reason of being a director, against 22 liability incurred in the proceeding if the director:

23 (1) Acted in good faith; and 24 (2) Reasonably believed:

1 adjudged liable on the basis that the director received a financial benefit to which the 2 director was not entitled, whether or not involving action in the director's official 3 capacity.

4 Section 174. A corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the 5 merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party by reason 6 of being a director of the corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred in connection with 7 the proceeding.

8 Section 175. A corporation may, before final disposition of a proceeding, advance funds to 9 pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a 10 proceeding by reasons of being a director if the director delivers to the corporation:

11 (1) A written affirmation of the director's good faith belief that the director has met the 12 relevant standard of conduct described in section 172 of this Act or that the 13 proceeding involves conduct for which liability has been eliminated under a 14 provision of the articles of incorporation as authorized by subdivision (4) of section 15 29 of this Act; and

16 (2) The director's written undertaking to repay any funds advanced if the director is not 17 entitled to mandatory indemnification under section 174 of this Act and it is 18 ultimately determined under section 177 or section 178 of this Act that the director 19 has not met the relevant standard of conduct described in section 172 of this Act.

20 The undertaking required by subdivision (2) must be an unlimited general obligation of the 21 director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to the financial ability 22 of the director to make repayment.

23 Section 176. Authorizations under section 175 of this Act shall be made:

24 (1) By the board of directors:

1 (a) If there are two or more disinterested directors, by a majority vote of all the 2 disinterested directors, a majority of whom shall for such purpose constitute 3 a quorum, or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more 4 disinterested directors appointed by such a vote; or

5 (b) If there are fewer than two disinterested directors, by the vote necessary for 6 action by the board in accordance with section 151 of this Act, in which 7 authorization directors who do not qualify as disinterested directors may 8 participate; or

9 (2) By the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who 10 at the time does not qualify as a disinterested director may not be voted, on the 11 authorization.

12 Section 177. A director who is a party to a proceeding by reason of being a director may 13 apply for indemnification or an advance for expenses to the court conducting the proceeding or 14 to another court of competent jurisdiction. After receipt of an application and after giving any 15 notice it considers necessary, the court shall:

16 (1) Order indemnification if the court determines that the director is entitled to 17 mandatory indemnification under section 174 of this Act;

18 (2) Order indemnification or advance for expenses if the court determines that the 19 director is entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses pursuant to a provision 20 authorized by section 181 of this Act; or

21 (3) Order indemnification or advance for expenses if the court determines, in view of all 22 the relevant circumstances, that it is fair and reasonable to:

23 (a) Indemnify the director, or

24 (b) Advance expenses to the director, even if the director has not met the relevant

1 standard of conduct set forth in section 172 of this Act, failed to comply with 2 sections 175 and 176 of this Act, or was adjudged liable in a proceeding 3 referred to in subdivision (1) or (2) of section 173 of this Act, but if the 4 director was adjudged so liable the indemnification is limited to reasonable 5 expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

6 If the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification under subdivision (1) 7 or to indemnification or advance for expenses under subdivision (2), the court shall also order 8 the corporation to pay the director's reasonable expenses incurred in connection with obtaining 9 court-ordered indemnification or advance for expenses. If the court determines that the director 10 is entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses under subdivision (3), the court may also 11 order the corporation to pay the director's reasonable expenses to obtain court-ordered 12 indemnification or advance for expenses.

13 Section 178. A corporation may not indemnify a director under sections 172 and 173 of this 14 Act unless authorized for a specific proceeding after a determination has been made that 15 indemnification of the director is permissible because the director has met the relevant standard 16 of conduct set forth in section 172 of this Act.

17 The determination shall be made:

- 18 (1) If there are two or more disinterested directors, by the board of directors by a 19 majority vote of all the disinterested directors, a majority of whom shall for such 20 purpose constitute a quorum, or by a majority of the members of a committee of two 21 or more disinterested directors appointed by such a vote;
- 22 (2) By special legal counsel:
- 23 (a) Selected in the manner prescribed in subdivision (1); or
- 24 (b) If there are fewer than two disinterested directors, selected by the board of 1 directors, in which selection directors who do not qualify as disinterested 2 directors may participate; or

3 (3) By the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who 4 at the time does not qualify as a disinterested director may not be voted, on the 5 determination.

6 Authorization of indemnification shall be made in the same manner as the determination that 7 indemnification is permissible. However, if there are fewer than two disinterested directors or 8 if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification shall be 9 made by those entitled under subsection (2)(b) to select special legal counsel.

10 Section 179. A corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under sections 171 to 182, 11 inclusive, of this Act to an officer of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding by reason 12 of being an officer of the corporation:

13 (1) To the same extent as a director; and 14 (2) If the officer is not also a director, to such further extent as may be provided by the 15 articles of incorporation, the bylaws, a resolution of the board of directors, or contract 16 except for:

17 (a) Liability in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation 18 other than for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding;

19 or

20 (b) Liability arising out of conduct that constitutes:

21 (i) Receipt of a financial benefit to which the officer is not entitled;

22 (ii) An intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders;

23 or

24 (iii) An intentional violation of criminal law.

1 The provisions of subdivision (2) apply to an officer who is also a director if the basis on 2 which the officer is made a party to the proceeding is an act or omission solely as an officer.

3 An officer of a corporation who is not also a director is entitled to mandatory 4 indemnification under section 174 of this Act, and may apply to a court under section 177 of this 5 Act for indemnification or an advance for expenses, in each case to the same extent to which 6 a director may be entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses under those provisions.

7 Section 180. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual 8 who is a director or officer of the corporation, or who, while a director or officer of the 9 corporation, serves at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, 10 or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee 11 benefit plan, or other entity, against liability asserted against or incurred by the individual in that 12 capacity or arising from the individual's status as a director or officer, whether or not the 13 corporation would have power to indemnify or advance expenses to the director or officer 14 against the same liability under sections 171 to 182, inclusive, of this Act.

15 Section 181. A corporation may, by a provision in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or 16 in a resolution adopted or a contract approved by its board of directors or shareholders, obligate 17 itself in advance of the act or omission giving rise to a proceeding to provide indemnification
18 in accordance with sections 172 and 173 of this Act or advance funds to pay for or reimburse 19 expenses in accordance with sections 175 and 176 of this Act. Any such obligatory provision 20 shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements for authorization referred to in sections 176 and 178 21 of this Act. Any such provision that obligates the corporation to provide indemnification to the 22 fullest extent permitted by law shall be deemed to obligate the corporation to advance funds to 23 pay for or reimburse expenses in accordance with sections 175 and 176 of this Act to the fullest 24 extent permitted by law, unless the provision specifically provides otherwise.

1 Any provision pursuant to this section does not obligate the corporation to indemnify or 2 advance expenses to a director of a predecessor of the corporation, pertaining to conduct with 3 respect to the predecessor, unless otherwise specifically provided. Any provision for 4 indemnification or advance for expenses in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution 5 of the board of directors or shareholders of a predecessor of the corporation in a merger or in 6 a contract to which the predecessor is a party, existing at the time the merger takes effect, is 7 governed by subdivision (4) of section 265 of this Act.

8 A corporation may, by a provision in its articles of incorporation, limit any of the rights to 9 indemnification or advance for expenses created by or pursuant to sections 171 to 182, 10 inclusive, of this Act. The provisions of sections 171 to 182, inclusive, of this Act do not limit 11 a corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director or an officer in 12 connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding if the director or officer is not a 13 party.

14 The provisions of sections 171 to 182, inclusive, of this Act do not limit a corporation's 15 power to indemnify, advance expenses to, or provide or maintain insurance on behalf of, an 16 employee or agent.

17 Section 182. A corporation may provide indemnification or advance expenses to a director 18 or an officer only as permitted by sections 171 to 182, inclusive, of this Act.

19 Section 183. Terms used in sections 183 to 193, inclusive, of this Act mean:

20 (1) "Conflicting interest," with respect to a corporation, the interest a director of the 21 corporation has respecting a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the 22 corporation, or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the 23 corporation has a controlling interest, if:

24 (a) Whether or not the transaction is brought before the board of directors of the 1 corporation for action, the director knows at the time of commitment that the 2 director or a related person is a party to the transaction or has a beneficial 3 financial interest in or so closely linked to the transaction and of such financial 4 significance to the director or a related person that the interest would 5 reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment if the 6 director were called upon to vote on the transaction; or 7 (b) The transaction is brought, or is of such character and significance to the 8 corporation that it would in the normal course be brought, before the board of 9 directors of the corporation for action, and the director knows at the time of 10 commitment that any of the following persons is either a party to the 11 transaction or has a beneficial financial interest in or so closely linked to the 12 transaction and of such financial significance to the person that the interest 13 would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment 14 if the director were called upon to vote on the transaction: (i) an entity, other 15 than the corporation, of which the director is a director, general partner, agent, 16 or employee; (ii) a person that controls one or more of the entities specified in 17 (i) or an entity that is controlled by, or is under common control with, one or 18 more of the entities specified in (i); or (iii) an individual who is a general 19 partner, principal, or employer of the director;

20 (2) "Director's conflicting interest transaction," with respect to a corporation, a 21 transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation, or by a subsidiary 22 of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling 23 interest, respecting which a director of the corporation has a conflicting interest;

24 (3) "Related person," of a director: (i) the spouse, or a parent or sibling thereof, of the 1 director, or a child, grandchild, sibling, parent, or spouse of any thereof, of the 2 director, or an individual having the same home as the director, or a trust or estate of 3 which an individual specified in this definition is a substantial beneficiary; or (ii) a 4 trust, estate, incompetent, conservatee, or minor of which the director is a fiduciary;

5 (4) "Required disclosure," disclosure by the director who has a conflicting interest of (i) 6 the existence and nature of the conflicting interest, and (ii) all facts known to the 7 director respecting the subject matter of the transaction that an ordinarily prudent 8 person would reasonably believe to be material to a judgment about whether or not 9 to proceed with the transaction;

10 (5) "Time of commitment," respecting a transaction, the time when the transaction is 11 consummated or, if made pursuant to contract, the time when the corporation, or its 12 subsidiary or the entity in which it has a controlling interest, becomes contractually 13 obligated so that its unilateral withdrawal from the transaction would entail 14 significant loss, liability, or other damage.

15 Section 184. A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by a corporation, or by a 16 subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling 17 interest, that is not a director's conflicting interest transaction, may not be enjoined, set aside, 18 or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions, in a proceeding by a shareholder or by 19 or in the right of the corporation, because a director of the corporation, or any person with whom 20 or which the director has a personal, economic, or other association, has an interest in the 21 transaction.

22 Section 185. A director's conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside, or 23 give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions, in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or 24 in the right of the corporation, because the director, or any person with whom or which the 1 director has a personal, economic, or other association, has an interest in the transaction, if:

- 2 (1) Directors' action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance with 3 sections 186 to 189, inclusive, of this Act;
- 4 (2) Shareholders' action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance 5 with sections 190 to 193, inclusive of this Act; or
- 6 (3) The transaction, judged according to the circumstances at the time of commitment, 7 is established to have been fair to the corporation.

8 Section 186. Directors' action respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of 9 subdivision (1) of section 185 of this Act if the transaction received the affirmative vote of a 10 majority, but no fewer than two, of those qualified directors on the board of directors or on a 11 duly empowered committee of the board who voted on the transaction after either required 12 disclosure to them, to the extent the information was not known by them, or compliance with 13 section 185 of this Act. However, action by a committee is so effective only if:

- 14 (1) All its members are qualified directors; and
- 15 (2) Its members are either all the qualified directors on the board or are appointed by the 16 affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified directors on the board.

17 Section 187. If a director has a conflicting interest respecting a transaction, but neither the 18 director nor a related person of the director specified in subsection (3)(i) of section 183 of this 19 Act is a party to the transaction, and if the director has a duty under law or professional canon, 20 or a duty of confidentiality to another person, respecting information relating to the transaction 21 such that the director may not make the disclosure described in subsection (4)(ii) of section 183
22 of this Act, then disclosure is sufficient for purposes of section 186 of this Act if the director:

- 23 (1) Discloses to the directors voting on the transaction the existence and nature of the 24 conflicting interest and informs them of the character and limitations imposed by that

1 duty before their vote on the transaction; and 2 (2) Plays no part, directly or indirectly, in their deliberations or vote.

3 Section 188. A majority, but no fewer than two, of all the qualified directors on the board 4 of directors, or on the committee, constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with 5 sections 186 and 187 of this Act. Directors' action that otherwise complies with sections 186 and 6 187 of this Act is not affected by the presence or vote of a director who is not a qualified 7 director.

8 Section 189. For purposes of sections 186 and 187 of this Act, the term, qualified director 9 means, with respect to a director's conflicting interest transaction, any director who does not 10 have either a conflicting interest respecting the transaction, or a familial, financial, professional, 11 or employment relationship with a second director who does have a conflicting interest 12 respecting the transaction, which relationship would, in the circumstances, reasonably be 13 expected to exert an influence on the first director's judgment when voting on the transaction.

14 Section 190. Shareholders' action respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of 15 subdivision (2) of section 185 of this Act if a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the 16 holders of all qualified shares were cast in favor of the transaction after:

17 (1) Notice to shareholders describing the director's conflicting interest transaction;

18 (2) Provision of the information referred to in section 192 of this Act; and 19 (3) Required disclosure to the shareholders who voted on the transaction, to the extent 20 the information was not known by them.

21 For purposes of this section, the term, qualified shares, means any shares entitled to vote 22 with respect to the director's conflicting interest transaction except shares that, to the knowledge, 23 before the vote, of the secretary, or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to 24 tabulate votes, are beneficially owned, or the voting of which is controlled, by a director who

1 has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction or by a related person of the director, or both.

2 Section 191. A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares
3 constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with section 190 of this Act. Subject
4 to the provisions of sections 192 and 193 of this Act, shareholders' action that otherwise 5 complies with section 190 of this Act is not affected by the presence of holders, or the voting, 6 of shares that are not qualified shares.

7 Section 192. For purposes of compliance with section 190 of this Act, a director who has 8 a conflicting interest respecting the transaction shall, before the shareholders' vote, inform the 9 secretary, or other office or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes, of the number,
10 and the identity of persons holding or controlling the vote, of all shares that the director knows 11 are beneficially owned, or the voting of which is controlled, by the director or by a related 12 person of the director, or both.

13 Section 193. If a shareholders' vote does not comply with section 190 of this Act solely 14 because of a failure of a director to comply with section 192 of this Act, and if the director 15 establishes that the director's failure did not determine and was not intended by the director to 16 influence the outcome of the vote, the court may, with or without further proceedings respecting 17 subdivision (3) of section 185 of this Act, take such action respecting the transaction and the 18 director, and give such effect, if any, to the shareholders' vote, as it considers appropriate in the 19 circumstances.

20 Section 194. The provisions of sections 194 to 234, inclusive, of this Act may not be used 21 to effect a transaction that converts an insurance company organized on the mutual principle to 22 one organized on a stock-share basis.

23 Section 195. If a domestic or foreign business corporation or eligible entity is also governed 24 by specific statutes such as insurance, banking, public utilities, and savings and loan provisions,

1 the corporation or eligible entity cannot be a party to a transaction under sections 194 to 234, 2 inclusive, of this Act without also complying with the requirements of such specific statutes.

3 Property held in trust or for charitable purposes under the laws of this state by a domestic 4 or foreign eligible entity may not, by any transaction under sections 194 to 234, inclusive, of this 5 Act, be diverted from the objects for which it was donated, granted, or devised, unless and until 6 the eligible entity obtains an order of the circuit court specifying the disposition of the property 7 to the extent required by and pursuant to § 55-9-4.

8 Section 196. A foreign business corporation may become a domestic business corporation 9 only if the domestication is permitted by the organic law of the foreign corporation.

10 Section 197. A domestic business corporation may become a foreign business corporation 11 if the domestication is permitted by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction. Regardless of whether 12 the laws of the foreign jurisdiction require the adoption of a plan of domestication, the 13 domestication shall be approved by the adoption by the corporation of a plan of domestication 14 in the manner provided in sections 196 to 214, inclusive, of this Act.

15 Section 198. The plan of domestication shall include:

- 16 (1) A statement of the jurisdiction in which the corporation is to be domesticated;
- 17 (2) The terms and conditions of the domestication;
- 18 (3) The manner and basis of reclassifying the shares of the corporation following its 19 domestication into shares or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares or 20 other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing; and
- 21 (4) Any desired amendments to the articles of incorporation of the corporation following 22 its domestication.

23 Section 199. The plan of domestication may also include a provision that the plan may be 24 amended prior to filing the document required by the laws of this state or the other jurisdiction

1 to consummate the domestication. However, subsequent to approval of the plan by the 2 shareholders, the plan may not be amended to change:

- 3 (1) The amount or kind of shares or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares 4 or other securities, cash, or other property to be received by the shareholders under 5 the plan;
- 6 (2) The articles of incorporation as they will be in effect immediately following the 7 domestication, except for changes permitted by section 230 of this Act or by 8 comparable provisions of the laws of the other jurisdiction; or
- 9 (3) Any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect 10 any of the shareholders in any material respect.

11 Section 200. Terms of a plan of domestication may be made dependent upon facts 12 objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with sections 3 to 5, inclusive, of this 13 Act.

14 Section 201. If any debt security, note or similar evidence of indebtedness for money
15 borrowed, whether secured or unsecured, or a contract of any kind, issued, incurred, or executed
16 by a domestic business corporation before July 1, 2005, contains a provision applying to a 17 merger of the corporation and the document does not refer to a domestication of the corporation, 18 the provision is deemed to apply to a domestication of the corporation until such time as the 19 provision is amended subsequent to that date.

20 Section 202. In the case of a domestication of a domestic business corporation in a foreign 21 jurisdiction:

- 22 (1) The plan of domestication must be adopted by the board of directors;
- 23 (2) After adopting the plan of domestication the board of directors shall submit the plan 24 to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors shall also transmit to the

1 shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the plan, unless the 2 board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other 3 special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, in which case the 4 board of directors shall transmit to the shareholders the basis for that determination;

5 (3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the plan of domestication to 6 the shareholders on any basis;

7 (4) If the approval of the shareholders is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall 8 notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of 9 shareholders at which the plan of domestication is to be submitted for approval. The 10 notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to 11 consider the plan and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the 12 plan. The notice shall include or be accompanied by a copy of the articles of 13 incorporation as they will be in effect immediately after the domestication;

14 (5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to 15 subdivision (3), requires a greater vote or a greater number of votes to be present, 16 approval of the plan of domestication requires the approval of the shareholders at a 17 meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to 18 be cast on the plan exists, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a 19 separate group on the plan, the approval of each such separate voting group at a 20 meeting at which a quorum of the voting group consisting of at least a majority of the 21 votes entitled to be cast on the domestication by that voting group exists;

22 (6) Separate voting by voting groups is required by each class or series of shares that:
23 (a) Are to be reclassified under the plan of domestication into other securities, 24 obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property,

1 or any combination of the foregoing;

2 (b) Would be entitled to vote as a separate group on a provision of the plan that, 3 if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would 4 require action by separate voting groups under section 238 of this Act; or

5 (c) Is entitled under the articles of incorporation to vote as a voting group to 6 approve an amendment of the articles;

7 (7) If any provision of the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or an agreement to which 8 any of the directors or shareholders are parties, adopted or entered into before July 9 1, 2005, applies to a merger of the corporation and that document does not refer to 10 a domestication of the corporation, the provision is deemed to apply to a 11 domestication of the corporation until such time as the provision is amended 12 subsequent to that date.

13 Section 203. The articles of domestication shall either contain all of the provisions that 14 section 28 of this Act requires to be set forth in articles of incorporation and any other desired 15 provisions that section 29 of this Act permits to be included in articles of incorporation, or shall 16 have attached articles of incorporation. In either case, provisions that would not be required to 17 be included in restated articles of incorporation may be omitted.

18 Section 204. The articles of domestication shall be delivered to the Office of the Secretary 19 of State for filing, and shall take effect at the effective time provided in sections 9 and 10 of this 20 Act.

21 Section 205. If the foreign corporation is authorized to transact business in this state under 22 sections 347 to 370, inclusive, of this Act, its certificate of authority shall be cancelled 23 automatically on the effective date of its domestication.

24 Section 206. Whenever a domestic business corporation has adopted and approved, in the

1 manner required by sections 196 to 214, inclusive, of this Act, a plan of domestication providing 2 for the corporation to be domesticated in a foreign jurisdiction, articles of charter surrender shall 3 be executed on behalf of the corporation by any officer or other duly authorized representative.

4 The articles of charter surrender shall set forth:

- 5 (1) The name of the corporation;
- 6 (2) A statement that the articles of charter surrender are being filed in connection with 7 the domestication of the corporation in a foreign jurisdiction;
- 8 (3) A statement that the domestication was duly approved by the shareholders and, if 9 voting by any separate voting group was required, by each such separate voting 10 group, in the manner required by this Act and the articles of incorporation; and
- 11 (4) The corporation's new jurisdiction of incorporation.

12 Section 207. After the domestication of a foreign business corporation has been authorized 13 as required by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction, articles of domestication shall be executed 14 by any officer or other duly authorized representative. The articles shall set forth:

- 15 (1) The name of the corporation immediately before the filing of the articles of 16 domestication and, if that name is unavailable for use in this state or the corporation 17 desires to change its name in connection with the domestication, a name that satisfies 18 the requirements of sections 41 to 44, inclusive, of this Act;
- 19 (2) The jurisdiction of incorporation of the corporation immediately before the filing of 20 the articles of domestication and the date the corporation was incorporated in that 21 jurisdiction; and
- 22 (3) A statement that the domestication of the corporation in this state was duly 23 authorized as required by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the corporation was 24 incorporated immediately before its domestication in this state.

1 Section 208. The articles of charter surrender shall be delivered by the corporation to the 2 Office of the Secretary of State for filing. The articles of charter surrender shall take effect on 3 the effective time provided in sections 9 and 10 of this Act.

4 Section 209. When a domestication becomes effective:

5 (1) The title to all real and personal property, both tangible and intangible, of the 6 corporation remains in the corporation without reversion or impairment;

7 (2) The liabilities of the corporation remain the liabilities of the corporation;

8 (3) An action or proceeding pending against the corporation continues against the 9 corporation as if the domestication had not occurred;

10 (4) The articles of domestication, or the articles of incorporation attached to the articles 11 of domestication, constitute the articles of incorporation of a foreign corporation 12 domesticating in this state;

13 (5) The shares of the corporation are reclassified into shares, other securities, obligations, 14 rights to acquire shares or other securities, or into cash or other property in 15 accordance with the terms of the domestication, and the shareholders are entitled only 16 to the rights provided by those terms and to any appraisal rights they may have under 17 the organic law of the domesticating corporation; and 18 (6) The corporation is deemed to:

19 (a) Be incorporated under and subject to the organic law of the domesticated 20 corporation for all purposes;

21 (b) Be the same corporation without interruption as the domesticating corporation; 22 and

23 (c) Have been incorporated on the date the domesticating corporation was 24 originally incorporated.

1 Section 210. When a domestication of a domestic business corporation in a foreign 2 jurisdiction becomes effective, the foreign business corporation is deemed to:

- 3 (1) Appoint the Office of the Secretary of State as its agent for service of process in a 4 proceeding to enforce the rights of shareholders who exercise appraisal rights in 5 connection with the domestication; and
- 6 (2) Agree that it will promptly pay the amount, if any, to which such shareholders are 7 entitled under sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act.

8 Section 211. The owner liability of a shareholder in a foreign corporation that is 9 domesticated in this state is as follows:

- 10 (1) The domestication does not discharge any owner liability under the laws of the 11 foreign jurisdiction to the extent any such owner liability arose before the effective 12 time of the articles of domestication;
- 13 (2) The shareholder does not have owner liability under the laws of the foreign 14 jurisdiction for any debt, obligation, or liability of the corporation that arises after the 15 effective time of the articles of domestication;
- 16 (3) The provisions of the laws of the foreign jurisdiction shall continue to apply to the 17 collection or discharge of any owner liability preserved by subdivision (1), as if the 18 domestication had not occurred; and
- 19 (4) The shareholder has whatever rights of contribution from other shareholders are 20 provided by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction with respect to any owner liability 21 preserved by subdivision (1), as if the domestication had not occurred.

22 Section 212. A shareholder who becomes subject to owner liability for some or all of the 23 debts, obligations, or liabilities of the corporation as a result of its domestication in this state has 24 owner liability only for those debts, obligations, or liabilities of the corporation that arise after

1 the effective time of the articles of domestication.

2 Section 213. Unless otherwise provided in a plan of domestication of a domestic business 3 corporation, after the plan has been adopted and approved as required by sections 196 to 213, 4 inclusive, of this Act, and at any time before the domestication has become effective, it may be 5 abandoned by the board of directors without action by the shareholders.

6 If a domestication is abandoned under this section after articles of charter surrender have 7 been filed with the Office of the Secretary of State but before the domestication has become 8 effective, a statement that the domestication has been abandoned in accordance with this 9 section, executed by an officer or other duly authorized representative, shall be delivered to the 10 Office of the Secretary of State for filing prior to the effective date of the domestication. The 11 statement shall take effect upon filing and the domestication shall be deemed abandoned and 12 does not become effective.

13 Section 214. If the domestication of a foreign business corporation in this state is abandoned 14 in accordance with the laws of the foreign jurisdiction after articles of domestication have been 15 filed with the Office of the Secretary of State, a statement that the domestication has been 16 abandoned, executed by an officer or other duly authorized representative, shall be delivered to 17 the Office of the Secretary of State for filing. The statement shall take effect upon filing and the 18 domestication shall be deemed abandoned and does not become effective.

19 Section 215. A domestic business corporation may become a domestic unincorporated entity 20 pursuant to a plan of entity conversion.

21 Section 216. A domestic business corporation may become a foreign unincorporated entity 22 if the entity conversion is permitted by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction.

23 Section 217. A domestic unincorporated entity may become a domestic business 24 corporation. If the organic law of a domestic unincorporated entity does not provide procedures

1 for the approval of an entity conversion, the conversion shall be adopted and approved, and the 2 entity conversion effectuated, in the same manner as a merger of the unincorporated entity. If 3 the organic law of a domestic unincorporated entity does not provide procedures for the 4 approval of either an entity conversion or a merger, a plan of entity conversion shall be adopted 5 and approved, the entity conversion effectuated, and appraisal rights exercised, in accordance 6 with the procedures in sections 215 to 234, inclusive, of this Act and sections 280 to 307, 7 inclusive, of this Act. Without limiting the provisions of this section, a domestic unincorporated 8 entity whose organic law does not provide procedures for the approval of an entity conversion
9 is subject to section 219 of this Act and section 224 of this Act. For purposes of applying 10 sections 215 to 234, inclusive of this Act and sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act:

- 11 (1) The unincorporated entity, its interest holders, interests and organic documents taken 12 together, are deemed to be a domestic business corporation, shareholders, shares and 13 articles of incorporation, respectively and vice versa, as the context may require; and
- 14 (2) If the business and affairs of the unincorporated entity are managed by a group of 15 persons that is not identical to the interest holders, that group is deemed to be the 16 board of directors.

17 Section 218. A foreign unincorporated entity may become a domestic business corporation 18 if the organic law of the foreign unincorporated entity authorizes it to become a corporation in 19 another jurisdiction.

20 Section 219. If any debt security, note, or similar evidence of indebtedness for money
21 borrowed, whether secured or unsecured, or a contract of any kind, issued, incurred, or executed
22 by a domestic business corporation before July 1, 2005, applies to a merger of the corporation 23 and the document does not refer to an entity conversion of the corporation, the provision is 24 deemed to apply to an entity conversion of the corporation until such time as the provision is 1 amended subsequent to that date.

2 Section 220. Terms used in sections 215 to 234, inclusive, of this Act, mean:

3 (1) "Converting entity," the domestic business corporation or domestic unincorporated 4 entity that adopts a plan of entity conversion or the foreign unincorporated entity 5 converting to a domestic business corporation;

6 (2) "Surviving entity," the corporation or unincorporated entity that is in existence 7 immediately after consummation of an entity conversion pursuant to sections 215 to 8 234, inclusive, of this Act.

9 Section 221. A plan of entity conversion must include:

10 (1) A statement of the type of other entity the surviving entity will be and, if it will be 11 a foreign other entity, its jurisdiction of organization;

12 (2) The terms and conditions of the conversion;

13 (3) The manner and basis of converting the shares of the domestic business corporation 14 following its conversion into interests or other securities, obligations, rights to 15 acquire interests or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the 16 foregoing; and

17 (4) The full text, as they will be in effect immediately after consummation of the 18 conversion, of the organic documents of the surviving entity.

19 Section 222. The plan of entity conversion may also include a provision that the plan may 20 be amended prior to filing articles of entity conversion. However, subsequent to approval of the 21 plan by the shareholders, the plan may not be amended to change:

22 (1) The amount or kind of shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to 23 acquire shares, other securities or interests, cash, or other property to be received 24 under the plan by the shareholders;

- 1 (2) The organic documents that will be in effect immediately following the conversion, 2 except for changes permitted by a provision of the organic law of the surviving entity 3 comparable to section 239 of this Act; or
- 4 (3) Any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect 5 any of the shareholders in any material respect.

6 Section 223. Terms of a plan of entity conversion may be made dependent upon facts 7 objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with sections 3 to 5, inclusive, of this 8 Act.

9 Section 224. In the case of an entity conversion of a domestic business corporation to a 10 domestic or foreign unincorporated entity:

- 11 (1) The plan of entity conversion must be adopted by the board of directors;
- 12 (2) After adopting the plan of entity conversion, the board of directors shall submit the 13 plan to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors shall also transmit 14 to the shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the plan, unless 15 the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or 16 other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, in which 17 case the board of directors must transmit to the shareholders the basis for that 18 determination;
- 19 (3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the plan of entity conversion 20 to the shareholders on any basis;
- 21 (4) If the approval of the shareholders is to be given at a meeting, the corporation must 22 notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of 23 shareholders at which the plan of entity conversion is to be submitted for approval.
24 The notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to

1 consider the plan and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the 2 plan. The notice shall include or be accompanied by a copy of the organic documents 3 as they will be in effect immediately after the entity conversion;

4 (5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to 5 subdivision (3), requires a greater vote or a greater number of votes to be present, 6 approval of the plan of entity conversion requires the approval of each class or series 7 of shares of the corporation voting as a separate voting group at a meeting at which 8 a quorum of the voting group consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to 9 be cast on the conversion by that voting group exists;

10 (6) If any provision of the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or an agreement to which 11 any of the directors or shareholders are parties, adopted or entered into before July 12 1, 2005, applies to a merger of the corporation and the document does not refer to an 13 entity conversion of the corporation, the provision is deemed to apply to an entity 14 conversion of the corporation until such time as the provision is subsequently 15 amended;

16 (7) If as a result of the conversion one or more shareholders of the corporation would 17 become subject to owner liability for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of any other 18 person or entity, approval of the plan of conversion shall require the execution, by 19 each such shareholder, of a separate written consent to become subject to such owner 20 liability.

21 Section 225. After the conversion of a domestic business corporation to a domestic 22 unincorporated entity has been adopted and approved as required by this Act, articles of entity 23 conversion shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by any officer or other duly authorized 24 representative. The articles shall:

- 1 (1) Set forth the name of the corporation immediately before the filing of the articles of 2 entity conversion and the name to which the name of the corporation is to be 3 changed, which shall be a name that satisfies the organic law of the surviving entity;
- 4 (2) State the type of unincorporated entity that the surviving entity will be;
- 5 (3) Set forth a statement that the plan of entity conversion was duly approved by the 6 shareholders in the manner required by this Act and the articles of incorporation;
- 7 (4) If the surviving entity is a filing entity, either contain all of the provisions required 8 to be set forth in its public organic document and any other desired provisions that 9 are permitted, or have attached a public organic document. However, in either case, 10 provisions that would not be required to be included in a restated public organic 11 document may be omitted.

12 Section 226. After the conversion of a domestic unincorporated entity to a domestic business 13 corporation has been adopted and approved as required by the organic law of the unincorporated 14 entity, articles of entity conversion shall be executed on behalf of the unincorporated entity by 15 any officer or other duly authorized representative. The articles shall:

- 16 (1) Set forth the name of the unincorporated entity immediately before the filing of the 17 articles of entity conversion and the name to which the name of the unincorporated 18 entity is to be changed, which shall be a name that satisfies the requirements of 19 sections 41 to 44, inclusive, of this Act;
- 20 (2) Set forth a statement that the plan of entity conversion was duly approved in 21 accordance with the organic law of the unincorporated entity;
- 22 (3) Either contain all of the provisions that section 28 of this Act requires to be set forth 23 in articles of incorporation and any other desired provisions that section 29 of this 24 Act permits to be included in articles of incorporation, or have attached articles of

1 incorporation. However, in either case, provisions that would not be required to be 2 included in restated articles of incorporation of a domestic business corporation may 3 be omitted.

4 Section 227. After the conversion of a foreign unincorporated entity to a domestic business 5 corporation has been authorized as required by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction, articles of 6 entity conversion shall be executed on behalf of the foreign unincorporated entity by any officer 7 or other duly authorized representative. The articles shall:

8 (1) Set forth the name of the unincorporated entity immediately before the filing of the 9 articles of entity conversion and the name to which the name of the unincorporated 10 entity is to be changed, which shall be a name that satisfies the requirements of 11 sections 41 to 44, inclusive, of this Act;

12 (2) Set forth the jurisdiction under the laws of which the unincorporated entity was 13 organized immediately before the filing of the articles of entity conversion and the 14 date on which the unincorporated entity was organized in that jurisdiction;

15 (3) Set forth a statement that the conversion of the unincorporated entity was duly 16 approved in the manner required by its organic law; and

17 (4) Either contain all of the provisions that section 28 of this Act requires to be set forth 18 in articles of incorporation and any other desired provisions that section 29 of this 19 Act permits to be included in articles of incorporation, or have attached articles of 20 incorporation. However, in either case, provisions that would not be required to be 21 included in restated articles of incorporation of a domestic business corporation may 22 be omitted.

23 Section 228. The articles of entity conversion shall be delivered to the Office of the 24 Secretary of State for filing, and shall take effect at the effective time provided in sections 9 and

1 10 of this Act. Articles of entity conversion filed under section 225 or 226 of this Act may be 2 combined with any required conversion filing under the organic law of the domestic 3 unincorporated entity if the combined filing satisfies the requirements of sections 225 to 228, 4 inclusive, of this Act and the other organic law.

5 If the converting entity is a foreign unincorporated entity that is authorized to transact 6 business in this state under a provision of law similar to sections 347 to 370, inclusive, of this 7 Act, its certificate of authority or other type of foreign qualification shall be cancelled 8 automatically on the effective date of its conversion.

9 Section 229. Whenever a domestic business corporation has adopted and approved, in the 10 manner required by sections 215 to 234, inclusive, of this Act, a plan of entity conversion 11 providing for the corporation to be converted to a foreign unincorporated entity, articles of 12 charter surrender shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by any officer or other duly 13 authorized representative. The articles of charter surrender shall set forth:

- 14 (1) The name of the corporation;
- 15 (2) A statement that the articles of charter surrender are being filed in connection with 16 the conversion of the corporation to a foreign unincorporated entity;
- 17 (3) A statement that the conversion was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner 18 required by this Act and the articles of incorporation;
- 19 (4) The jurisdiction under the laws of which the surviving entity will be organized;
- 20 (5) If the surviving entity will be a nonfiling entity, the address of its executive office 21 immediately after the conversion.

22 The articles of charter surrender shall be delivered by the corporation to the Office of the 23 Secretary of State for filing. The articles of charter surrender shall take effect on the effective 24 time provided in sections 9 and 10 of this Act.

1 Section 230. When a conversion under sections 215 to 234, inclusive, of this Act becomes 2 effective:

3 (1) The title to all real and personal property, both tangible and intangible, of the 4 converting entity remains in the surviving entity without reversion or impairment;

5 (2) The liabilities of the converting entity remain the liabilities of the surviving entity;

6 (3) An action or proceeding pending against the converting entity continues against the 7 surviving entity as if the conversion had not occurred;

8 (4) In the case of a surviving entity that is a filing entity, its articles of incorporation or 9 public organic document and its private organic document become effective;

10 (5) In the case of a surviving entity that is a nonfiling entity, its private organic document 11 becomes effective;

12 (6) The shares or interests of the converting entity are reclassified into shares, interests, 13 other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares, interests or other securities, or 14 into cash or other property in accordance with the plan of conversion; and the 15 shareholders or interest holders of the converting entity are entitled only to the rights 16 provided to them under the terms of the conversion and to any appraisal rights that 17 they may have under the organic law of the converting entity; and 18 (7) The surviving entity is deemed to:

19 (a) Be incorporated or organized under and subject to the organic law of the 20 converting entity for all purposes;

21 (b) Be the same corporation or unincorporated entity without interruption as the 22 converting entity; and

23 (c) Have been incorporated or otherwise organized on the date that the converting 24 entity was originally incorporated or organized.

1 Section 231. When a conversion of a domestic business corporation to a foreign other entity 2 becomes effective, the surviving entity is deemed to:

- 3 (1) Appoint the Office of the Secretary of State as its agent for service of process in a 4 proceeding to enforce the rights of shareholders who exercise appraisal rights in 5 connection with the conversion; and
- 6 (2) Agree that it will promptly pay the amount, if any, to which such shareholders are 7 entitled under sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act.

8 Section 232. Any shareholder who becomes subject to owner liability for some or all of the 9 debts, obligations, or liabilities of the surviving entity is personally liable only for those debts, 10 obligations, or liabilities of the surviving entity that arise after the effective time of the articles 11 of entity conversion.

12 Section 233. The owner liability of an interest holder in an unincorporated entity that 13 converts to a domestic business corporation is as follows:

- 14 (1) The conversion does not discharge any owner liability under the organic law of the 15 unincorporated entity to the extent any such owner liability arose before the effective 16 time of the articles of entity conversion;
- 17 (2) The interest holder does not have owner liability under the organic law of the 18 unincorporated entity for any debt, obligation, or liability of the corporation that 19 arises after the effective time of the articles of entity conversion;
- 20 (3) The provisions of the organic law of the unincorporated entity continue to apply to 21 the collection or discharge of any owner liability preserved by subdivision (1), as if 22 the conversion had not occurred;
- 23 (4) The interest holder has whatever rights of contribution from other interest holders are 24 provided by the organic law of the unincorporated entity with respect to any owner

1 liability preserved by subdivision (1), as if the conversion had not occurred.

2 Section 234. Unless otherwise provided in a plan of entity conversion of a domestic business 3 corporation, after the plan has been adopted and approved as required by sections 215 to 234,
4 inclusive, of this Act, and at any time before the entity conversion has become effective, it may 5 be abandoned by the board of directors without action by the shareholders.

6 If an entity conversion is abandoned after articles of entity conversion or articles of charter
7 surrender have been filed with the Office of the Secretary of State, but before the entity 8 conversion has become effective, a statement that the entity conversion has been abandoned in 9 accordance with this section, executed by an officer or other duly authorized representative, 10 shall be delivered to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing prior to the effective date of 11 the entity conversion. Upon filing, the statement shall take effect, and the entity conversion shall 12 be deemed abandoned and does not become effective.

13 Section 235. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add or 14 change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles of incorporation as of the effective 15 date of the amendment or to delete a provision that is not required to be contained in the articles 16 of incorporation.

17 A shareholder of the corporation does not have a vested property right resulting from any 18 provision in the articles of incorporation, including provisions relating to management, control, 19 capital structure, dividend entitlement, or purpose or duration of the corporation.

20 Section 236. If a corporation has not yet issued shares, its board of directors, or its 21 incorporators, if it has no board of directors, may adopt one or more amendments to the 22 corporation's articles of incorporation.

23 Section 237. If a corporation has issued shares, an amendment to the articles of 24 incorporation shall be adopted in the following manner:

- 1 (1) The proposed amendment must be adopted by the board of directors;
- 2 (2) Except as provided in sections 239, and 241 to 244, inclusive, of this Act, after 3 adopting the proposed amendment the board of directors must submit the amendment 4 to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors must also transmit to 5 the shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the amendment, 6 unless the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of 7 interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, 8 in which case the board of directors shall transmit to the shareholders the basis for 9 that determination;
- 10 (3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the amendment to the 11 shareholders on any basis;
- 12 (4) If the amendment is required to be approved by the shareholders, and the approval 13 is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or 14 not entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the amendment is to be 15 submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose, or one of the 16 purposes, of the meeting is to consider the amendment and must contain or be 17 accompanied by a copy of the amendment;
- 18 (5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to 19 subdivision (3), requires a greater vote or a greater number of shares to be present, 20 approval of the amendment requires the approval of the shareholders at a meeting at 21 which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the 22 amendment exists, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate 23 group on the amendment, except as provided in section 238 of this Act, the approval 24 of each such separate voting group at a meeting at which a quorum of the voting

1 group consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the 2 amendment by that voting group exists.

3 Section 238. If a corporation has more than one class of shares outstanding, the holders of 4 the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a separate voting group, if shareholder 5 voting is otherwise required by this Act, on a proposed amendment to the articles of 6 incorporation if the amendment would:

- 7 (1) Effect an exchange or reclassification of all or part of the shares of the class into 8 shares of another class;
- 9 (2) Effect an exchange or reclassification, or create the right of exchange, of all or part 10 of the shares of another class into shares of the class;
- 11 (3) Change the rights, preferences, or limitations of all or part of the shares of the class;
- 12 (4) Change the shares of all or part of the class into a different number of shares of the 13 same class;
- 14 (5) Create a new class of shares having rights or preferences with respect to distributions 15 or to dissolution that are prior or superior to the shares of the class;
- 16 (6) Increase the rights, preferences, or number of authorized shares of any class that, after 17 giving effect to the amendment, have rights or preferences with respect to 18 distributions or to dissolution that are prior or superior to the shares of the class;
- 19 (7) Limit or deny an existing preemptive right of all or part of the shares of the class; or 20 (8) Cancel or otherwise affect rights to distributions that have accumulated, but not yet 21 been authorized, on all or part of the shares of the class.

22 If a proposed amendment would affect a series of a class of shares in one or more of the 23 ways described in this section, the holders of shares of that series are entitled to vote as a 24 separate voting group on the proposed amendment.

1 If a proposed amendment that entitles the holders of two or more classes or series of shares 2 to vote as separate voting groups under this section would affect those two or more classes or 3 series in the same or a substantially similar way, the holders of shares of all the classes or series 4 so affected shall vote together as a single voting group on the proposed amendment, unless 5 otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or required by the board of directors.

6 A class or series of shares is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section although the 7 articles of incorporation provide that the shares are nonvoting shares.

8 Section 239. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation's board 9 of directors may adopt amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation without 10 shareholder approval:

- 11 (1) To extend the duration of the corporation if it was incorporated at a time when 12 limited duration was required by law;
- 13 (2) To delete the names and addresses of the initial directors;
- 14 (3) To delete the name and address of the initial registered agent or registered office, if 15 a statement of change is on file with the Office of the Secretary of State;
- 16 (4) If the corporation has only one class of shares outstanding:
 - 17 (a) To change each issued and unissued authorized share of the class into a greater 18 number of whole shares of that class; or
 - 19 (b) To increase the number of authorized shares of the class to the extent 20 necessary to permit the issuance of shares as a share dividend;
- 21 (5) To change the corporate name by substituting the term, corporation, incorporated, 22 company, limited, or the abbreviation, corp., inc., co., or ltd., for a similar word or 23 abbreviation in the name, or by adding, deleting, or changing a geographical 24 attribution for the name;

- 1 (6) To reflect a reduction in authorized shares, as a result of the operation of section 79
- 2 of this Act, when the corporation has acquired its own shares and the articles of
- 3 incorporation prohibit the reissue of the acquired shares;
- 4 (7) To delete a class of shares from the articles of incorporation, as a result of the
- 5 operation of section 79 of this Act, when there are no remaining shares of the class
- 6 because the corporation has acquired all shares of the class and the articles of
- 7 incorporation prohibit the reissue of the acquired shares; or
- 8 (8) To make any change expressly permitted by section 56 or 57 of this Act to be made
- 9 without shareholder approval.

10 Section 240. After an amendment to the articles of incorporation has been adopted and 11 approved in the manner required by this Act and by the articles of incorporation, the corporation

12 shall deliver to the Office of the Secretary of State, for filing, articles of amendment, which shall 13 set forth:

- 14 (1) The name of the corporation;
- 15 (2) The text of each amendment adopted, or the information required by section 4 of this
- 16 Act;
- 17 (3) If an amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued
- 18 shares, provisions for implementing the amendment if not contained in the
- 19 amendment itself, which may be made dependent upon facts objectively ascertainable
- 20 outside the articles of amendment in accordance with section 4 of this Act;
- 21 (4) The date of each amendment's adoption; and
- 22 (5) If an amendment:
 - 23 (a) Was adopted by the incorporators or board of directors without shareholder
 - 24 approval, a statement that the amendment was duly approved by the

1 incorporators or by the board of directors, as the case may be, and that 2 shareholder approval was not required;

3 (b) Required approval by the shareholders, a statement that the amendment was 4 duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required by this Act and by 5 the articles of incorporation; or 6 (c) Is being filed pursuant to section 4 of this Act, a statement to that effect.

7 Section 241. A corporation's board of directors may restate its articles of incorporation at 8 any time, with or without shareholder approval, to consolidate all amendments into a single 9 document. If the restated articles include one or more new amendments that require shareholder 10 approval, the amendments shall be adopted and approved as provided in section 237 of this Act.
11 Duly adopted restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation 12 and all amendments thereto.

13 Section 242. A corporation that restates its articles of incorporation shall deliver to the 14 Office of the Secretary of State for filing articles of restatement setting forth the name of the 15 corporation and the text of the restated articles of incorporation together with a certificate which 16 states that the restated articles consolidate all amendments into a single document and, if a new 17 amendment is included in the restated articles, which also includes the statements required
18 under section 240 of this Act.

19 Section 243. The Office of the Secretary of State may certify restated articles of 20 incorporation as the articles of incorporation currently in effect, without including the certificate 21 information required by section 242 of this Act.

22 Section 244. A corporation's articles of incorporation may be amended without action by the 23 board of directors or shareholders to carry out a plan of reorganization ordered or decreed by 24 a court of competent jurisdiction under the authority of a law of the United States.

1 The individual or individuals designated by the court shall deliver to the Office of the 2 Secretary of State for filing articles of amendment setting forth:

- 3 (1) The name of the corporation;
- 4 (2) The text of each amendment approved by the court;
- 5 (3) The date of the court's order or decree approving the articles of amendment;
- 6 (4) The title of the reorganization proceeding in which the order or decree was entered;
- 7 and
- 8 (5) A statement that the court had jurisdiction of the proceeding under federal statute.

9 This section does not apply after entry of a final decree in the reorganization proceeding 10 even though the court retains jurisdiction of the proceeding for limited purposes unrelated to 11 consummation of the reorganization plan.

12 Section 245. An amendment to the articles of incorporation does not affect a cause of action 13 existing against or in favor of the corporation, a proceeding to which the corporation is a party, 14 or the existing rights of persons other than shareholders of the corporation. An amendment 15 changing a corporation's name does not abate a proceeding brought by or against the corporation 16 in its former name.

17 Section 246. A corporation's shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws.
18 A corporation's board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws, unless:

- 19 (1) The articles of incorporation or section 247 of this Act reserve that power exclusively 20 to the shareholders in whole or part; or
- 21 (2) The shareholders in amending, repealing, or adopting a bylaw expressly provide that 22 the board of directors may not amend, repeal, or reinstate that bylaw.

23 Section 247. A bylaw that increases a quorum or voting requirement for the board of 24 directors may be amended or repealed:

- 1 (1) If originally adopted by the shareholders, only by the shareholders, unless the bylaw 2 otherwise provides;
- 3 (2) If adopted by the board of directors, either by the shareholders or by the board of 4 directors.

5 A bylaw adopted or amended by the shareholders that increases a quorum or voting 6 requirement for the board of directors may provide that it can be amended or repealed only by 7 a specified vote of either the shareholders or the board of directors.

8 Action by the board of directors under this section to amend or repeal a bylaw that changes 9 the quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors must meet the same quorum 10 requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and 11 voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

12 Section 248. Terms used in sections 248 to 271, inclusive, of this Act, mean:

- 13 (1) "Merger," a business combination pursuant to sections 249 to 254, inclusive, of this 14 Act;
- 15 (2) "Party to a merger" or "party to a share exchange," any domestic or foreign 16 corporation or eligible entity that will:
 - 17 (a) Merge under a plan of merger;
 - 18 (b) Acquire shares or eligible interests of another corporation or an eligible entity 19 in a share exchange; or
 - 20 (c) Have all of its shares or eligible interests or all of one or more classes or series 21 of its shares or eligible interests acquired in a share exchange;
- 22 (3) "Share exchange," a business combination pursuant to sections 255 to 260, inclusive, 23 of this Act;
- 24 (4) "Survivor," in a merger means the corporation or eligible entity into which one or

1 more other corporations or eligible entities are merged. A survivor of a merger may 2 preexist the merger or be created by the merger.

3 Section 249. One or more domestic business corporations may merge with one or more 4 domestic or foreign business corporations or eligible entities pursuant to a plan of merger, or 5 two or more foreign business corporations or domestic or foreign eligible entities may merge 6 into a new domestic business corporation to be created in the merger in the manner provided in 7 sections 248 to 271, inclusive, of this Act.

8 Section 250. A foreign business corporation, or a foreign eligible entity, may be a party to 9 a merger with a domestic business corporation, or may be created by the terms of the plan of 10 merger, only if the merger is permitted by the foreign business corporation or eligible entity.

11 Section 251. If the organic law of a domestic eligible entity does not provide procedures for 12 the approval of a merger, a plan of merger may be adopted and approved, the merger 13 effectuated, and appraisal rights exercised in accordance with the procedures in sections 248 to 14 271, inclusive, of this Act and sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act. For the purposes of 15 applying sections 248 to 271, inclusive, of this Act and sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this 16 Act:

17 (1) The eligible entity, its members or interest holders, eligible interests, and organic 18 documents taken together shall be deemed to be a domestic business corporation, 19 shareholders, shares, and articles of incorporation, respectively and vice versa as the 20 context may require; and

21 (2) If the business and affairs of the eligible entity are managed by a group of persons 22 that is not identical to the members or interest holders, that group shall be deemed 23 to be the board of directors.

24 Section 252. The plan of merger must include:

- 1 (1) The name of each domestic or foreign business corporation or eligible entity that will 2 merge and the name of the domestic or foreign business corporation or eligible entity 3 that will be the survivor of the merger;
- 4 (2) The terms and conditions of the merger;
- 5 (3) The manner and basis of converting the shares of each merging domestic or foreign 6 business corporation and eligible interests of each merging domestic or foreign 7 eligible entity into shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to 8 acquire shares, other securities or eligible interests, cash, other property, or any 9 combination of the foregoing;
- 10 (4) The articles of incorporation of any domestic or foreign business or nonprofit 11 corporation, or the organic documents of any domestic or foreign unincorporated 12 entity, to be created by the merger, or if a new domestic or foreign business or 13 nonprofit corporation or unincorporated entity is not to be created by the merger, any 14 amendments to the survivor's articles of incorporation or organic documents; and
- 15 (5) Any other provisions required by the laws under which any party to the merger is 16 organized or by which it is governed, or by the articles of incorporation or organic 17 document of any such party.

18 Terms of a plan of merger may be made dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside 19 the plan in accordance with sections 3 to 5, inclusive, of this Act.

20 Section 253. The plan of merger may include a provision that the plan may be amended prior 21 to filing articles of merger, but if the shareholders of a domestic corporation that is a party to 22 the merger are required or permitted to vote on the plan, the plan must provide that subsequent 23 to approval of the plan by such shareholders the plan may not be amended to change:

- 24 (1) The amount or kind of shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights

1 to acquire shares, other securities or eligible interests, cash, or other property to be 2 received under the plan by the shareholders of or owners of eligible interests in any 3 party to the merger;

4 (2) The articles of incorporation of any corporation, or the organic documents of any 5 unincorporated entity, that will survive or be created as a result of the merger, except 6 for changes permitted by section 239 of this Act or by comparable provisions of the 7 organic laws of any such foreign corporation or domestic or foreign unincorporated 8 entity; or

9 (3) Any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect 10 such shareholders in any material respect.

11 Section 254. Property held in trust or for charitable purposes under the laws of this state by 12 a domestic or foreign eligible entity may not be diverted by a merger from the objects for which 13 it was donated, granted, or devised, until the eligible entity obtains an order of circuit court 14 specifying the disposition of the property to the extent required by and pursuant to § 55-9-4.

15 Section 255. Through a share exchange:

16 (1) A domestic corporation may acquire all of the shares of one or more classes or series 17 of shares of another domestic or foreign corporation, or all of the interests of one or 18 more classes or series of interests of a domestic or foreign other entity, in exchange 19 for shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other 20 securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing, pursuant to a 21 plan of share exchange; or

22 (2) All of the shares of one or more classes or series of shares of a domestic corporation 23 may be acquired by another domestic or foreign corporation or other entity, in 24 exchange for shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares

1 or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing, 2 pursuant to a plan of share exchange.

3 Section 256. A foreign corporation or eligible entity may be a party to a share exchange only 4 if the share exchange is permitted by the corporation or other entity is organized or by which it 5 is governed.

6 Section 257. If the organic law of a domestic other entity does not provide procedures for 7 the approval of a share exchange, a plan of share exchange may be adopted and approved, and 8 the share exchange effectuated, in accordance with the procedures, if any, for a merger. If the 9 organic law of a domestic other entity does not provide procedures for the approval of either a 10 share exchange or a merger, a plan of share exchange may be adopted and approved, the share 11 exchange effectuated, and appraisal rights exercised, in accordance with the procedures in 12 sections 248 to 271, inclusive, of this Act, and sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act. For 13 the purposes of applying sections 248 to 271, inclusive, of this Act, and sections 280 to 307, 14 inclusive, of this Act:

- 15 (1) The other entity, its interest holders, interests, and organic documents taken together 16 shall be deemed to be a domestic business corporation, shareholders, shares, and 17 articles of incorporation, respectively and vice versa as the context may require; and 18 (2) If the business and affairs of the other entity are managed by a group of persons that 19 is not identical to the interest holders, that group shall be deemed to be the board of 20 directors.

21 Section 258. The plan of share exchange must include:

- 22 (1) The name of each corporation or other entity whose shares or interests will be 23 acquired and the name of the corporation or other entity that will acquire those shares 24 or interests;

- 1 (2) The terms and conditions of the share exchange;
- 2 (3) The manner and basis of exchanging shares of a corporation or interests in an other 3 entity whose shares or interests will be acquired under the share exchange into shares 4 or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares, other securities, or 5 interests, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing; and
- 6 (4) Any other provisions required by the laws under which any party to the share 7 exchange is organized or by the articles of incorporation or organic document of any 8 such party.

9 Terms of a plan of share exchange may be made dependent on facts objectively ascertainable 10 outside the plan in accordance with sections 3 to 5, inclusive, of this Act.

11 Section 259. The plan of share exchange may include a provision that the plan may be 12 amended prior to filing articles of share exchange, but if the shareholders of a domestic 13 corporation that is a party to the share exchange are required or permitted to vote on the plan, 14 the plan must provide that subsequent to approval of the plan by such shareholders the plan may 15 not be amended to change:

- 16 (1) The amount or kind of shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to 17 acquire shares, other securities or interests, cash, or other property to be issued by the 18 corporation or to be received under the plan by the shareholders of or owners of 19 interests in any party to the share exchange; or
- 20 (2) Any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect 21 such shareholders in any material respect.

22 Section 260. The provisions of sections 255 to 256, inclusive, of this Act, do not limit the 23 power of a domestic corporation to acquire shares of another corporation or interests in another 24 entity in a transaction other than a share exchange.

1 Section 261. In the case of a domestic corporation that is a party to a merger or share 2 exchange:

- 3 (1) The plan of merger or share exchange must be adopted by the board of directors;
- 4 (2) Except as provided in subdivision (7) and in sections 262 to 264, inclusive, of this 5 Act, after adopting the plan of merger or share exchange the board of directors shall 6 submit the plan to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors shall 7 also transmit to the shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the 8 plan, unless the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of 9 interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, 10 in which case the board of directors must transmit to the shareholders the basis for 11 that determination;
- 12 (3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the plan of merger or share 13 exchange to the shareholders on any basis;
- 14 (4) If the plan of merger or share exchange is required to be approved by the 15 shareholders, and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the corporation must 16 notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of 17 shareholders at which the plan is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state 18 that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the plan and 19 must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. If the corporation 20 is to be merged into an existing corporation or other entity, the notice shall also 21 include or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the articles of incorporation or 22 organizational documents of that corporation or other entity. If the corporation is to 23 be merged into a corporation or other entity that is to be created pursuant to the 24 merger, the notice shall include or be accompanied by a copy or a summary of the 1 articles of incorporation or organizational documents of the new corporation or other 2 entity;

3 (5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to 4 subdivision (3), requires a greater vote or a greater number of votes to be present, 5 approval of the plan of merger or share exchange requires the approval of the 6 shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the 7 votes entitled to be cast on the plan exists, and, if any class or series of shares is 8 entitled to vote as a separate group on the plan of merger or share exchange, the 9 approval of each such separate voting group at a meeting at which a quorum of the 10 voting group consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the 11 merger or share exchange by that voting group is present;

12 (6) Separate voting by voting groups is required:

13 (a) On a plan of merger, by each class or series of shares that:

14 (i) Are to be converted under the plan of merger into other securities, 15 interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares, other securities or 16 interests, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing; or

17 (ii) Would be entitled to vote as a separate group on a provision in the plan 18 that, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, 19 would require action by separate voting groups under section 238 of 20 this Act;

21 (b) On a plan of share exchange, by each class or series of shares included in the 22 exchange, with each class or series constituting a separate voting group; and 23 (c) On a plan of merger or share exchange, if the voting group is entitled under 24 the articles of incorporation to vote as a voting group to approve a plan of

1 merger or share exchange;

2 (7) Unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, approval by the corporation's 3 shareholders of a plan of merger or share exchange is not required if:

4 (a) The corporation will survive the merger or is the acquiring corporation in a 5 share exchange;

6 (b) Except for amendments permitted by section 239 of this Act, its articles of 7 incorporation will not be changed;

8 (c) Each shareholder of the corporation whose shares were outstanding 9 immediately before the effective date of the merger or share exchange will 10 hold the same number of shares, with identical preferences, limitations, and 11 relative rights, immediately after the effective date of change; and 12 (d) The issuance in the merger or share exchange of shares or other securities 13 convertible into or rights exercisable for shares does not require a vote under 14 section 66 if this Act;

15 (8) If as a result of a merger or share exchange one or more shareholders of a domestic 16 corporation would become subject to owner liability for the debts, obligations, or 17 liabilities of any other person or entity, approval of the plan of merger or share 18 exchange shall require the execution, by each such shareholder, of a separate written 19 consent to become subject to such owner liability.

20 Section 262. A domestic parent corporation that owns shares of a domestic or foreign 21 subsidiary corporation that carry at least ninety percent of the voting power of each class and 22 series of the outstanding shares of the subsidiary that have voting power may merge the 23 subsidiary into itself or into another such subsidiary, or merge itself into the subsidiary, without 24 the approval of the board of directors or shareholders of the subsidiary, unless the articles of 1 incorporation of any of the corporations otherwise provide, and unless, in the case of a foreign 2 subsidiary, approval by the subsidiary's board of directors or shareholders is required by the laws 3 under which the subsidiary is organized.

4 Section 263. If under section 262 of this Act approval of a merger by the subsidiary's 5 shareholders is not required, the parent corporation shall, within ten days after the effective date 6 of the merger, notify each of the subsidiary's shareholders that the merger has become effective.

7 Section 264. Except as provided in sections 262 and 263 of this Act, a merger between a 8 parent and a subsidiary shall be governed by the provisions of sections 248 to 271, inclusive, 9 of this Act applicable to mergers generally.

10 Section 265. After a plan of merger or share exchange has been adopted and approved as 11 required by this Act, articles of merger or share exchange shall be executed on behalf of each 12 party to the merger or share exchange by any officer or other duly authorized representative. The 13 articles shall set forth:

- 14 (1) The names of the parties to the merger or share exchange;
- 15 (2) If the articles of incorporation of the survivor of a merger are amended, or if a new 16 corporation is created as a result of a merger, the amendments to the survivor's 17 articles of incorporation or the articles of incorporation of the new corporation;
- 18 (3) If the plan of merger or share exchange required approval by the shareholders of a 19 domestic corporation that was a party to the merger or share exchange, a statement 20 that the plan was duly approved by the shareholders and, if voting by any separate 21 voting group was required, by each such separate voting group, in the manner 22 required by this Act and the articles of incorporation;
- 23 (4) If the plan of merger or share exchange did not require approval by the shareholders 24 of a domestic corporation that was a party to the merger or share exchange, a

1 statement to that effect; and

2 (5) As to each foreign corporation or eligible entity that was a party to the merger or 3 share exchange, a statement that the participation of the foreign corporation or 4 eligible entity was duly authorized as required by the organic law of the corporation 5 or eligible entity.

6 Articles of merger or share exchange shall be delivered to the Office of the Secretary of 7 State for filing by the survivor of the merger or the acquiring corporation in a share exchange, 8 and take effect at the effective time provided in sections 9 and 10 of this Act. Articles of merger 9 or share exchange filed under this section may be combined with any filing required under the 10 organic law of any domestic eligible entity involved in the transaction if the combined filing 11 satisfies the requirements of both this section and the other organic law.

12 Section 266. When a merger becomes effective:

13 (1) The corporation or eligible entity that is designated in the plan of merger as the 14 survivor continues or comes into existence, as the case may be;

15 (2) The separate existence of every corporation or eligible entity that is merged into the 16 survivor ceases;

17 (3) All property owned by, and every contract right possessed by, each corporation or 18 eligible entity that merges into the survivor is vested in the survivor without 19 reversion or impairment;

20 (4) All liabilities of each corporation or eligible entity that is merged into the survivor 21 are vested in the survivor;

22 (5) The name of the survivor may, but need not, be substituted in any pending 23 proceeding for the name of any party to the merger whose separate existence ceased 24 in the merger;

- 1 (6) The articles of incorporation or organic documents of the survivor are amended to the 2 extent provided in the plan of merger;
- 3 (7) The articles of incorporation or organic documents of a survivor that is created by the 4 merger become effective; and
- 5 (8) The shares of each corporation that is a party to the merger, and the interests in an 6 eligible entity that is a party to a merger, that are to be converted under the plan of 7 merger into shares, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire securities, other 8 securities, or eligible interests, cash, other property, or any combination of the 9 foregoing, are converted, and the former holders of such shares or eligible interests 10 are entitled only to the rights provided to them in the plan of merger or to any rights 11 they may have under sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act or the organic law of 12 the eligible entity.

13 Section 267. When a share exchange becomes effective, the shares of each domestic 14 corporation that are to be exchanged for shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights 15 to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing, 16 are entitled only to the rights provided to them in the plan of share exchange or to any rights 17 they may have under sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act.

18 Section 268. Any person who becomes subject to owner liability for some or all of the debts, 19 obligations, or liabilities of any entity as a result of a merger or share exchange has owner 20 liability only to the extent provided in the organic law of the entity and only for those debts, 21 obligations, and liabilities that arise after the effective time of the articles of merger or share 22 exchange.

23 Section 269. Upon a merger becoming effective, a foreign corporation, or a foreign eligible 24 entity, that is the survivor of the merger is deemed to:

- 1 (1) Appoint the Office of the Secretary of State as its agent for service of process in a 2 proceeding to enforce the rights of shareholders of each domestic corporation that is 3 a party to the merger who exercise appraisal rights; and
- 4 (2) Agree that it will promptly pay the amount, if any, to which such shareholders are 5 entitled under sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act.

6 Section 270. The effect of a merger or share exchange on the owner liability of a person who 7 had owner liability for some or all of the debts, obligations, or liabilities of a party to the merger 8 or share exchange shall be as follows:

- 9 (1) The merger or share exchange does not discharge any owner liability under the 10 organic law of the entity in which the person was a shareholder or interest holder to 11 the extent any such owner liability arose before the effective time of the articles of 12 merger or share exchange;
- 13 (2) The person does not have owner liability under the organic law of the entity in which 14 the person was a shareholder or interest holder prior to the merger or share exchange 15 for any debt, obligation, or liability that arises after the effective time of the articles 16 of merger or share exchange;
- 17 (3) The provisions of the organic law of any entity for which the person had owner 18 liability before the merger or share exchange continue to apply to the collection or 19 discharge of any owner liability preserved by subdivision (1), as if the merger or 20 share exchange had not occurred;
- 21 (4) The person has whatever rights of contribution from other persons are provided by 22 the organic law of the entity for which the person had owner liability with respect to 23 any owner liability preserved by subdivision (1), as if the merger or share exchange 24 had not occurred.

1 Section 271. Unless otherwise provided in a plan of merger or share exchange or in the laws 2 under which a foreign business corporation or a domestic or foreign eligible entity that is a party 3 to a merger or a share exchange is organized or by which it is governed, after the plan has been 4 adopted and approved as required by this chapter, and at any time before the merger or share 5 exchange has become effective, it may be abandoned by a domestic business corporation that 6 is a party thereto without action by its shareholders in accordance with any procedures set forth 7 in the plan of merger or share exchange or, if no such procedures are set forth in the plan, in the 8 manner determined by the board of directors, subject to any contractual rights of other parties 9 to the merger or share exchange.

10 If a merger or share exchange is abandoned under this section after articles of merger or 11 share exchange have been filed with the Office of the Secretary of State but before the merger 12 or share exchange has become effective, a statement that the merger or share exchange has been 13 abandoned in accordance with this section, executed on behalf of a party to the merger or share 14 exchange by an officer or other duly authorized representative, shall be delivered to the Office 15 of the Secretary of State for filing prior to the effective date of the merger or share exchange.
16 Upon filing, the statement shall take effect and the merger or share exchange shall be deemed 17 abandoned and does not become effective.

18 Section 272. No approval of the shareholders of a corporation is required, unless the articles 19 of incorporation otherwise provide:

- 20 (1) To sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the corporation's assets 21 in the usual and regular course of business;
- 22 (2) To mortgage, pledge, dedicate to the repayment of indebtedness (whether with or 23 without recourse), or otherwise encumber any or all of the corporation's assets, 24 whether or not in the usual and regular course of business;

- 1 (3) To transfer any or all of the corporation's assets to one or more corporations or other
- 2 entities all of the shares or interests of which are owned by the corporation; or
- 3 (4) To distribute assets pro rata to the holders of one or more classes or series of the
- 4 corporation's shares.

5 Section 273. A sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of assets, other than a disposition 6 described in section 272 of this Act, requires approval of the corporation's shareholders if the 7 disposition would leave the corporation without a significant continuing business activity. If a 8 corporation retains a business activity that represented at least twenty-five percent of total assets 9 at the end of the most recently completed fiscal year, and twenty-five percent of either income 10 from continuing operations before taxes or revenues from continuing operations for that fiscal 11 year, in each case of the corporation and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, the corporation 12 will conclusively be deemed to have retained a significant continuing business activity.

13 Section 274. A disposition that requires approval of the shareholders under section 273 of 14 this Act shall be initiated by a resolution by the board of directors authorizing the disposition.
15 After adoption of such a resolution, the board of directors shall submit the proposed disposition 16 to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors shall also transmit to the 17 shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the proposed disposition, unless 18 the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special 19 circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, in which case the board of directors 20 shall transmit to the shareholders the basis for that determination.

21 The board of directors may condition its submission of a disposition to the shareholders 22 under this section on any basis.

23 Section 275. If a disposition is required to be approved by the shareholders under section 24 273 of this Act, and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each

1 shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the 2 disposition is to be submitted for approval. The notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the 3 purposes, of the meeting is to consider the disposition and shall contain a description of the 4 disposition, including the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by 5 the corporation.

6 Section 276. Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting pursuant 7 to section 274 of this Act requires a greater vote, or a greater number of votes to be present, the 8 approval of a disposition by the shareholders shall require the approval of the shareholders at 9 a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on 10 the disposition exists.

11 Section 277. After a disposition has been approved by the shareholders under section 274
12 of this Act, and at any time before the disposition has been consummated, it may be abandoned 13 by the corporation without action by the shareholders, subject to any contractual rights of other 14 parties to the disposition.

15 Section 278. A disposition of assets in the course of dissolution under sections 308 to 346, 16 inclusive, of this Act is not governed by sections 273 to 279, inclusive, of this Act.

17 Section 279. The assets of a direct or indirect consolidated subsidiary shall be deemed the 18 assets of the parent corporation for the purposes of sections 273 to 279, inclusive, of this Act.

19 Section 280. Terms used in sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act, mean:

20 (1) "Affiliate," any person that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries 21 controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another person or is a 22 senior executive thereof. For purposes of subdivision (4) of section 282 of this Act, 23 a person is deemed to be an affiliate of its senior executives;

24 (2) "Beneficial shareholder," any person who is the beneficial owner of shares held in a

1 voting trust or by a nominee on the beneficial owner's behalf;

13 section 281 of this Act;

15 payment, at the rate of interest on judgments in this state on the effective date of the 16 corporate action;

18 any other class or series with respect to distributions;

19 (7) "Record shareholder," the person in whose name shares are registered in the records 20 of the corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted 21 by a nominee certificate on file with the corporation;

22 (8) "Senior executive," the chief executive officer, chief operating officer, chief financial 23 officer, and anyone in charge of a principal business unit or function;

24 (9) "Shareholder," both a record shareholder and a beneficial shareholder.

1 Section 281. A shareholder is entitled to appraisal rights, and to obtain payment of the fair 2 value of that shareholder's shares, in the event of any of the following corporate actions:

3 (1) Consummation of a merger to which the corporation is a party under either of the 4 following circumstances:

5 (a) Shareholder approval is required for the merger by section 261 of this Act and 6 the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger, except that appraisal rights 7 are not available to any shareholder of the corporation with respect to shares 8 of any class or series that remain outstanding after consummation of the 9 merger; or

10 (b) The corporation is a subsidiary and the merger is governed by sections 262 to 11 264, inclusive, of this Act;

18 of this Act if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the disposition;

19 (4) An amendment of the articles of incorporation with respect to a class or series of 20 shares that reduces the number of shares of a class or series owned by the shareholder 21 to a fraction of a share if the corporation has the obligation or right to repurchase the 22 fractional share so created;

23 (5) Any other amendment to the articles of incorporation, merger, share exchange, or 24 disposition of assets to the extent provided by the articles of incorporation, bylaws,

1 or a resolution of the board of directors;

2 (6) Consummation of a domestication if the shareholder does not receive shares in the 3 foreign corporation resulting from the domestication that have terms as favorable to 4 the shareholder in all material respects, and represent at least the same percentage 5 interest of the total voting rights of the outstanding shares of the corporation, as the 6 shares held by the shareholder before the domestication; or 7 (7) Consummation of a conversion of the corporation to an unincorporated entity 8 pursuant to sections 215 to 234, inclusive, of this Act.

9 Section 282. Notwithstanding section 281 of this Act, the availability of appraisal rights 10 under subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (6), and (8) of section 281 of this Act are limited in 11 accordance with the following provisions:

12 (1) Appraisal rights are not available for the holders of shares of any class or series of 13 shares which is:

14 (a) Listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange or 15 designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation 16 system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; or 17 (b) Not listed or designated as provided in subsection (a), but has at least two 18 thousand shareholders and the outstanding shares of such class or series has 19 a market value of at least twenty million dollars, exclusive of the value of such 20 shares held by its subsidiaries, senior executives, directors, and beneficial 21 shareholders owning more than ten percent of such shares;

22 (2) The applicability of subdivision (1) shall be determined as of:

23 (a) The record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice 24 of, and to vote at, the meeting of shareholders to act upon the corporate action

- 1 requiring appraisal rights; or
- 2 (b) The day before the effective date of such corporate action if there is no
- 3 meeting of shareholders;
- 4 (3) The provisions of subdivision (1) are not applicable and appraisal rights are available
- 5 pursuant to section 281 of this Act for the holders of any class or series of shares who
- 6 are required by the terms of the corporate action requiring appraisal rights to accept
- 7 for such shares anything other than cash or shares of any class or any series of shares
- 8 of any corporation, or any other proprietary interest of any other entity, that satisfies
- 9 the standards set forth in subdivision (1) at the time the corporate action becomes
- 10 effective;
- 11 (4) The provisions of subdivision (1) are not applicable and appraisal rights are available
- 12 pursuant to section 281 of this Act for the holders of any class or series of shares in
- 13 which:
- 14 (a) Any of the shares or assets of the corporation are being acquired or converted,
- 15 whether by merger, share exchange, or otherwise, pursuant to the corporate
- 16 action by a person, or by an affiliate of a person, who:
- 17 (i) Is, or at any time in the one-year period immediately preceding approval
- 18 by the board of directors of the corporate action requiring appraisal
- 19 rights was, the beneficial owner of twenty percent or more of the voting
- 20 power of the corporation, excluding any shares acquired pursuant to an
- 21 offer for all shares having voting power if such offer was made within
- 22 one year prior to the corporate action requiring appraisal rights for
- 23 consideration of the same kind and of a value equal to or less than that
- 24 paid in connection with the corporate action; or

1 (ii) Directly or indirectly has, or at any time in the one-year period 2 immediately preceding approval by the board of directors of the 3 corporation of the corporate action requiring appraisal rights had, the 4 power, contractually or otherwise, to cause the appointment or election 5 of twenty-five percent or more of the directors to the board of directors 6 of the corporation; or

7 (b) Any of the shares or assets of the corporation are being acquired or converted, 8 whether by merger, share exchange, or otherwise, pursuant to such corporate 9 action by a person, or by an affiliate of a person, who is, or at any time in the 10 one-year period immediately preceding approval by the board of directors of 11 the corporate action requiring appraisal rights was, a senior executive or 12 director of the corporation or a senior executive of any affiliate thereof, and 13 that senior executive or director will receive, as a result of the corporate 14 action, a financial benefit not generally available to other shareholders as such, 15 other than:

16 (i) Employment, consulting, retirement, or similar benefits established 17 separately and not as part of or in contemplation of the corporate action; 18 or

19 (ii) Employment, consulting, retirement, or similar benefits established in 20 contemplation of, or as part of, the corporate action that are not more 21 favorable than those existing before the corporate action or, if more 22 favorable, that have been approved on behalf of the corporation in the 23 same manner as is provided in sections 186 to 189, inclusive, of this 24 Act; or

1 (iii) In the case of a director of the corporation who will, in the corporate 2 action, become a director of the acquiring entity in the corporate action 3 or one of its affiliates, rights and benefits as a director that are provided 4 on the same basis as those afforded by the acquiring entity generally to 5 other directors of such entity or such affiliate;

6 (5) For the purposes of subdivision (4), the term, beneficial owner, means any person 7 who, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, or understanding, 8 other than a revocable proxy, has or shares the power to vote, or to direct the voting 9 of, shares. However, a member of a national securities exchange may not be deemed 10 to be a beneficial owner of securities held directly or indirectly by it on behalf of 11 another person solely because such member is the record holder of such securities if 12 the member is precluded by the rules of such exchange from voting without 13 instruction on contested matters or matters that may affect substantially the rights or 14 privileges of the holders of the securities to be voted. When two or more persons 15 agree to act together for the purpose of voting their shares of the corporation, each 16 member of the group formed thereby shall be deemed to have acquired beneficial 17 ownership, as of the date of such agreement, of all voting shares of the corporation 18 beneficially owned by any member of the group.

19 Section 283. Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 281 to 284, inclusive, of this 20 Act, the articles of incorporation as originally filed or any amendment thereto may limit or 21 eliminate appraisal rights for any class or series of preferred shares, but any such limitation or 22 elimination contained in an amendment to the articles of incorporation that limits or eliminates 23 appraisal rights for any of such shares that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective 24 date of such amendment or that the corporation is or may be required to issue or sell thereafter

1 pursuant to any conversion, exchange, or other right existing immediately before the effective 2 date of such amendment does not apply to any corporate action that becomes effective within 3 one year of that date if such action would otherwise afford appraisal rights.

4 Section 284. No shareholder may challenge a completed corporate action described in 5 section 281 of this Act, other than those subscribed in subdivisions (3) and (4) of section 282 6 of this Act, unless such corporate action:

- 7 (1) Was not effectuated in accordance with the applicable provisions of sections 194 to 8 279, inclusive, of this Act or the corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws or 9 board of directors' resolution authorizing the corporate action; or
- 10 (2) Was procured as a result of fraud or material misrepresentation.

11 Section 285. A record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all the shares 12 registered in the record shareholder's name but owned by a beneficial shareholder only if the 13 record shareholder objects with respect to all shares of the class or series owned by the 14 beneficial shareholder and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each 15 beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. The rights of a record 16 shareholder who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held of record in the record 17 shareholder's name under this section shall be determined as if the shares as to which the record 18 shareholder objects and the record shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of 19 different record shareholders.

20 Section 286. A beneficial shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to shares of any class 21 or series held on behalf of the shareholder only if such shareholder:

- 22 (1) Submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion 23 of such rights no later than the date referred to in subsection (2)(b) of section 290 of 24 this Act; and

1 (2) Does so with respect to all shares of the class or series that are beneficially owned by 2 the beneficial shareholder.

3 Section 287. If proposed corporate action described in section 281 of this Act is to be 4 submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that the corporation 5 has concluded that shareholders are, are not, or may be entitled to assert appraisal rights under 6 this sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act. If the corporation concludes that appraisal rights 7 are or may be available, a copy of sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act must accompany 8 the meeting notice sent to those record shareholders entitled to exercise appraisal rights.

9 In a merger pursuant to sections 262 to 264, inclusive, of this Act, the parent corporation 10 shall notify in writing all record shareholders of the subsidiary who are entitled to assert 11 appraisal rights that the corporate action became effective. Such notice shall be sent within ten 12 days after the corporate action became effective and include the materials described in sections 13 289 to 291, inclusive, of this Act.

14 Section 288. If proposed corporate action requiring appraisal rights under sections 281 to 15 284, inclusive, of this Act is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who 16 wishes to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class or series of shares:

17 (1) Must deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of the 18 shareholder's intent to demand payment if the proposed action is effectuated; and

19 (2) Must not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any shares of such class or series in 20 favor of the proposed action.

21 A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of this section is not entitled to 22 payment under sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act.

23 Section 289. If proposed corporate action requiring appraisal rights under section 281 of this 24 Act becomes effective, the corporation must deliver a written appraisal notice and form required

1 by subdivision (1) of section 290 of this Act to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements
2 of section 288 of this Act. In the case of a merger under sections 262 to 264, inclusive, of this 3 Act, the parent shall deliver a written appraisal notice and form to all record shareholders who 4 may be entitled to assert appraisal rights.

5 Section 290. The appraisal notice shall be sent no earlier than the date the corporate action 6 became effective and no later than ten days after such date and must:

7 (1) Supply a form that specifies the date of the first announcement to shareholders of the 8 principal terms of the proposed corporate action and requires the shareholder 9 asserting appraisal rights to certify (i) whether or not beneficial ownership of those 10 shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before that date and (ii) 11 that the shareholder did not vote for the transaction;

12 (2) State the following:

13 (a) Where the form must be sent and where certificates for certificated shares 14 must be deposited and the date by which those certificates must be deposited, 15 which date may not be earlier than the date for receiving the required form 16 under subsection (2)(b);

17 (b) A date by which the corporation must receive the form, which date may not 18 be fewer than forty nor more than sixty days after the date the section 289 of 19 this Act appraisal notice and form are sent, and state that the shareholder 20 waives the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless the form 21 is received by the corporation by such specified date;

22 (c) The corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

23 (d) That, if requested in writing, the corporation will provide, to the shareholder 24 so requesting, within ten days after the date specified in subsection (2)(b) the 1 number of shareholders who return the forms by the specified date and the 2 total number of shares owned by them; and

3 (e) The date by which the notice to withdraw under sections 291 to 293, inclusive, 4 of this Act must be received, which date must be within twenty days after the 5 date specified in subsection (2)(b); and 6 (3) Be accompanied by a copy of sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act.

7 Section 291. A shareholder who receives notice pursuant to sections 289 and 290 of this Act 8 and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must certify on the form sent by the corporation 9 whether the beneficial owner of such shares acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before 10 the date required to be set forth in the notice pursuant to subdivision (1) of section 290 of this 11 Act. If a shareholder fails to make this certification, the corporation may elect to treat the 12 shareholder's shares as after-acquired shares under sections 295 to 298, inclusive, of this Act.
13 In addition, a shareholder who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must execute and return the 14 form and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance 15 with the terms of the notice by the date referred to in the notice pursuant to subsection (2)(b) of 16 section 290 of this Act. Once a shareholder deposits that shareholder's certificates or, in the case 17 of uncertificated shares, returns the executed forms, that shareholder loses all rights as a 18 shareholder, unless the shareholder withdraws pursuant to section 290 of this Act.

19 Section 292. A shareholder who has complied with section 289 of this Act may nevertheless 20 decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by so notifying the 21 corporation in writing by the date set forth in the appraisal notice pursuant to subsection (2)(e)
22 of section 290 of this Act. A shareholder who fails to so withdraw from the appraisal process 23 may not thereafter withdraw without the corporation's written consent.

24 Section 293. A shareholder who does not execute and return the form and, in the case of 1 certificated shares, deposit that shareholder's share certificates where required, each by the date

2 set forth in the notice described in section 290 of this Act, is not entitled to payment under this 3 Act.

4 Section 294. Except as provided in sections 295 to 298, inclusive, of this Act, within thirty 5 days after the form required by subsection (2)(b) of section 290 of this Act is due, the 6 corporation shall pay in cash to those shareholders who complied with section 291 of this Act 7 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of their shares, plus interest.

8 The payment to each shareholder pursuant to this section must be accompanied by:

- 9 (1) Financial statements of the corporation that issued the shares to be appraised, 10 consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 11 sixteen months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a 12 statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available 13 interim financial statements, if any;
- 14 (2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares, which 15 estimate must equal or exceed the corporation's estimate given pursuant to subsection 16 (2)(c) of section 290 of this Act;
- 17 (3) A statement that shareholders described in this section have the right to demand 18 further payment under section 299 of this Act and that if any such shareholder does 19 not do so within the time period specified therein, such shareholder shall be deemed 20 to have accepted such payment in full satisfaction of the corporation's obligations 21 under this Act.

22 Section 295. A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by section 294 of this 23 Act from any shareholder who did not certify that beneficial ownership of all of the 24 shareholder's shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before the date set forth

1 in the appraisal notice sent pursuant to subdivision (1) of section 290 of this Act.

2 Section 296. If the corporation elected to withhold payment under section 295 of this Act, 3 the corporation must, within thirty days after the form required by subsection (2)(b) of section 4 290 of this Act is due, notify all shareholders who are described in section 295 of this Act:

5 (1) Of the information required by subdivision (1) of section 294 of this Act;

6 (2) Of the corporation's estimate of fair value pursuant to subdivision (2) of section 294
7 of this Act;

8 (3) That they may accept the corporation's estimate of fair value, plus interest, in full 9 satisfaction of their demands or demand appraisal under section 299 of this Act;

10 (4) That those shareholders who wish to accept such offer must so notify the corporation 11 of their acceptance of the corporation's offer within thirty days after receiving the 12 offer; and

13 (5) That those shareholders who do not satisfy the requirements for demanding appraisal 14 under section 299 of this Act shall be deemed to have accepted the corporation's 15 offer.

16 Section 297. Within ten days after receiving the shareholder's acceptance pursuant to section 17 296 of this Act, the corporation must pay in cash the amount it offered under subdivision (2) of 18 section 296 of this Act to each shareholder who agreed to accept the corporation's offer in full 19 satisfaction of the shareholder's demand.

20 Section 298. Within forty days after sending the notice described in section 296 of this Act, 21 the corporation must pay in cash the amount it offered to pay under subdivision (2) of section 22 296 of this Act to each shareholder described in subdivision (5) of section 296 of this Act.

23 Section 299. A shareholder paid pursuant to section 294 of this Act who is dissatisfied with 24 the amount of the payment must notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's estimate

1 of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that estimate plus interest, less any 2 payment under section 294 of this Act. A shareholder offered payment under sections 295 to 3 298, inclusive, of this Act who is dissatisfied with that offer must reject the offer and demand 4 payment of the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value of the shares plus interest.

5 A shareholder who fails to notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's demand to 6 be paid the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value plus interest under this section within 7 thirty days after receiving the corporation's payment or offer of payment under section 294 or 8 sections 295 to 298, inclusive, of this Act, respectively, waives the right to demand payment 9 under this section and is entitled only to the payment made or offered pursuant to those 10 respective sections.

11 Section 300. If a shareholder makes demand for payment under section 299 of this Act 12 which remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty days after 13 receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares
14 and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day 15 period, it shall pay in cash to each shareholder the amount the shareholder demanded pursuant 16 to section 299 of this Act plus interest.

17 Section 301. The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the appropriate court of the 18 county where the corporation's principal office, or, if none, its registered office, in this state is 19 located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it 20 shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the principal office or registered 21 office of the domestic corporation merged with the foreign corporation was located at the time 22 of the transaction.

23 Section 302. The corporation shall make all shareholders, whether or not residents of this 24 state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their

1 shares, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served 2 by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

3 Section 303. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under 4 section 301 of this Act is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as 5 appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The 6 appraisers shall have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment 7 to it. The shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as 8 parties in other civil proceedings. There is no right to a jury trial.

9 Section 304. Each shareholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment for the 10 amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the shareholder's shares, plus interest, 11 exceeds the amount paid by the corporation to the shareholder for such shares or for the fair 12 value, plus interest, of the shareholder's shares for which the corporation elected to withhold 13 payment under sections 295 to 298, inclusive, of this Act.

14 Section 305. The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under sections 300 to 304, 15 inclusive, of this Act shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable 16 compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs 17 against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the 18 shareholders demanding appraisal, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court 19 finds such shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the 20 rights provided by sections 280 to 307, inclusive, of this Act.

21 Section 306. The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the fees and expenses of 22 counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

- 23 (1) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all shareholders demanding appraisal 24 if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements

1 of sections 287, 289, 290, 294, or 295 to 298, inclusive, of this Act; or

2 (2) Against either the corporation or a shareholder demanding appraisal, in favor of any 3 other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are 4 assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights 5 provided by this chapter.

6 Section 307. If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any 7 shareholder were of substantial benefit to other shareholders similarly situated, and that the fees 8 for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to such 9 counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the shareholders who were 10 benefited.

11 To the extent the corporation fails to make a required payment pursuant to section 294, 12 sections 295 to 298, inclusive, or 299 of this Act, the shareholder may sue directly for the 13 amount owed and, to the extent successful, is entitled to recover from the corporation all costs 14 and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

15 Section 308. A majority of the incorporators or initial directors of a corporation that has not 16 issued shares or has not commenced business may dissolve the corporation by delivering to the 17 Office of the Secretary of State for filing articles of dissolution that set forth:

- 18 (1) The name of the corporation;
- 19 (2) The date of its incorporation;
- 20 (3) Either that none of the corporation's shares has been issued, or that the corporation 21 has not commenced business;
- 22 (4) That no debt of the corporation remains unpaid;
- 23 (5) That the net assets of the corporation remaining after winding up have been 24 distributed to the shareholders, if shares were issued; and

1 (6) That a majority of the incorporators or initial directors authorized the dissolution.

2 Section 309. A corporation's board of directors may propose dissolution for submission to 3 the shareholders. For a proposal to dissolve to be adopted:

4 (1) The board of directors must recommend dissolution to the shareholders unless the 5 board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special 6 circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for 7 its determination to the shareholders; and 8 (2) The shareholders entitled to vote must approve the proposal to dissolve as provided 9 in section 312 of this Act.

10 Section 310. The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposal for 11 dissolution on any basis.

12 Section 311. The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, 13 of the proposed shareholders' meeting. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the 14 purposes, of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation.

15 Section 312. Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting pursuant 16 to section 310 of this Act require a greater vote, a greater number of shares to be present, or a 17 vote by voting groups, adoption of the proposal to dissolve shall require the approval of the 18 shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a majority of the votes 19 entitled to be cast exists.

20 Section 313. At any time after dissolution is authorized, the corporation may dissolve by 21 delivering to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing articles of dissolution setting forth:

22 (1) The name of the corporation;

23 (2) The date dissolution was authorized; and 24 (3) If dissolution was approved by the shareholders, a statement that the proposal to

1 dissolve was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required by this Act 2 and by the articles of incorporation.

3 A corporation is dissolved upon the effective date of its articles of dissolution.

4 Section 314. For purposes of sections 308 to 326, inclusive, of this Act, the term, dissolved 5 corporation, means a corporation whose articles of dissolution have become effective and 6 includes a successor entity to which the remaining assets of the corporation are transferred 7 subject to its liabilities for purposes of liquidation.

8 Section 315. A corporation may revoke its dissolution within one hundred twenty days of 9 its effective date. Revocation of dissolution must be authorized in the same manner as the 10 dissolution was authorized unless that authorization permitted revocation by action of the board 11 of directors alone, in which event the board of directors may revoke the dissolution without 12 shareholder action. After the revocation of dissolution is authorized, the corporation may revoke 13 the dissolution by delivering to the secretary of state for filing articles of revocation of 14 dissolution, together with a copy of its articles of dissolution, that set forth:

- 15 (1) The name of the corporation;
- 16 (2) The effective date of the dissolution that was revoked;
- 17 (3) The date that the revocation of dissolution was authorized;
- 18 (4) If the corporation's board of directors, or incorporators, revoked the dissolution, a 19 statement to that effect;
- 20 (5) If the corporation's board of directors revoked a dissolution authorized by the 21 shareholders, a statement that revocation was permitted by action by the board of 22 directors alone pursuant to that authorization; and
- 23 (6) If shareholder action was required to revoke the dissolution, the information required 24 by subdivision (3) of section 313 of this Act.

1 Revocation of dissolution is effective upon the effective date of the articles of revocation
2 of dissolution. When the revocation of dissolution is effective, it relates back to and takes effect 3 as of the effective date of the dissolution and the corporation resumes carrying on its business 4 as if dissolution had never occurred.

5 Section 316. A dissolved corporation continues its corporate existence but may not carry on 6 any business except that appropriate to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs, including:

- 7 (1) Collecting its assets;
- 8 (2) Disposing of its properties that will not be distributed in kind to its shareholders;
- 9 (3) Discharging or making provision for discharging its liabilities;
- 10 (4) Distributing its remaining property among its shareholders according to their 11 interests; and
- 12 (5) Doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs.

13 Section 317. Dissolution of a corporation does not:

- 14 (1) Transfer title to the corporation's property;
- 15 (2) Prevent transfer of its shares or securities, although the authorization to dissolve may 16 provide for closing the corporation's share transfer records;
- 17 (3) Subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from those 18 prescribed in sections 136 to 193, inclusive, of this Act;
- 19 (4) Change quorum or voting requirements for its board of directors or shareholders; 20 change provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors or officers or 21 both; or change provisions for amending its bylaws;
- 22 (5) Prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the corporation in its corporate 23 name;
- 24 (6) Abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the corporation on the effective

1 date of dissolution; or

2 (7) Terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.

3 Section 318. A dissolved corporation may dispose of the known claims against it by 4 notifying its known claimants in writing of the dissolution at any time after its effective date.

5 The written notice must:

6 (1) Describe information that must be included in a claim;

7 (2) Provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent;

8 (3) State the deadline, which may not be fewer than one hundred twenty days from the 9 effective date of the written notice, by which the dissolved corporation must receive 10 the claim; and

11 (4) State that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

12 Section 319. A claim against the dissolved corporation is barred:

13 (1) If a claimant who was given written notice under section 318 of this Act does not 14 deliver the claim to the dissolved corporation by the deadline; or 15 (2) If a claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved corporation does not 16 commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within ninety days from the effective 17 date of the rejection notice.

18 Section 320. For purposes of sections 318 and 319 of this Act, the term, claim, does not 19 include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of 20 dissolution.

21 Section 321. A dissolved corporation may also publish notice of its dissolution and request 22 that persons with claims against the dissolved corporation present them in accordance with the 23 notice. The notice must:

24 (1) Be published one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the 1 dissolved corporation's principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, 2 is or was last located;

3 (2) Describe the information that must be included in a claim and provide a mailing 4 address where the claim may be sent; and

5 (3) State that a claim against the dissolved corporation will be barred unless a proceeding 6 to enforce the claim is commenced within three years after the publication of the 7 notice.

8 Section 322. If the dissolved corporation publishes a newspaper notice in accordance with 9 section 321 of this Act, the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the 10 claimant commences a proceeding to enforce the claim against the dissolved corporation within 11 three years after the publication date of the newspaper notice:

12 (1) A claimant who was not given written notice under section 318 to 320, inclusive, of 13 this Act;

14 (2) A claimant whose claim was timely sent to the dissolved corporation but not acted 15 on;

16 (3) A claimant whose claim is contingent or based on an event occurring after the 17 effective date of dissolution.

18 Section 323. A claim that is not barred by section 318 or 322 of this Act may be enforced:

19 (1) Against the dissolved corporation, to the extent of its undistributed assets; or 20 (2) Except as provided in section 325 of this Act, if the assets have been distributed in 21 liquidation, against a shareholder of the dissolved corporation to the extent of the 22 shareholder's pro rata share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to the 23 shareholder in liquidation, whichever is less, but a shareholder's total liability for all 24 claims under this section may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the

1 shareholder.

2 Section 324. A dissolved corporation that has published a notice under sections 321 to 323, 3 inclusive, of this Act may file an application with the circuit court of the county where the 4 dissolved corporation's principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, is located 5 for a determination of the amount and form of security to be provided for payment of claims that 6 are contingent or have not been made known to the dissolved corporation or that are based on 7 an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution but that, based on the facts known to 8 the dissolved corporation, are reasonably estimated to arise after the effective date of 9 dissolution. Provision need not be made for any claim that is or is reasonably anticipated to be 10 barred under section 322 of this Act.

11 Within ten days after the filing of the application, notice of the proceeding shall be given by 12 the dissolved corporation to each claimant holding a contingent claim whose contingent claim 13 is shown on the records of the dissolved corporation.

14 The court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent all claimants whose identities are 15 unknown in any proceeding brought under this section. The reasonable fees and expenses of 16 such guardian, including all reasonable expert witness fees, shall be paid by the dissolved 17 corporation.

18 Section 325. Provision by the dissolved corporation for security in the amount and the form 19 ordered by the court under section 324 of this Act shall satisfy the dissolved corporation's 20 obligations with respect to claims that are contingent, have not been made known to the 21 dissolved corporation, or are based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution, 22 and such claims may not be enforced against a shareholder who received assets in liquidation.

23 Section 326. Directors shall cause the dissolved corporation to discharge or make reasonable 24 provision for the payment of claims and make distributions of assets to shareholders after 1 payment or provision for claims.

2 Directors of a dissolved corporation which has disposed of claims under sections 318 to 320, 3 inclusive, 321 to 323, inclusive, or 324 and 325, of this Act are not liable for breach of this 4 section with respect to claims against the dissolved corporation that are barred or satisfied under 5 sections 318 to 320, inclusive, 321 to 323, inclusive, or 324 and 325, of this Act.

6 Section 327. The Office of the Secretary of State may commence a proceeding under section 7 328 of this Act to administratively dissolve a corporation if:

8 (1) The corporation does not pay within sixty days after they are due any filing fees or 9 penalties imposed by this Act or other law;

10 (2) The corporation does not deliver its annual report to the Office of the Secretary of 11 State within sixty days after it is due;

12 (3) The corporation is without a registered agent or registered office in this state for sixty 13 days or more;

14 (4) The corporation does not notify the Office of the Secretary of State within sixty days 15 that its registered agent or registered office has been changed, or that its registered 16 office has been discontinued; or

17 (5) The corporation's period of duration stated in its articles of incorporation expires.

18 Section 328. If the Office of the Secretary of State determines that one or more grounds exist
19 under section 327 of this Act for dissolving a corporation, the Office of the Secretary of State 20 shall serve the corporation with written notice of that determination under section 52 of this Act.
21 If the corporation does not correct each ground for dissolution or demonstrate to the reasonable 22 satisfaction of the Office of the Secretary of State that each ground determined by the Office of 23 the Secretary of State does not exist within sixty days after service of the notice is perfected 24 under section 52 of this Act, the Office of the Secretary of State shall administratively dissolve

1 the corporation by signing a certificate of dissolution that recites the ground or grounds for 2 dissolution and its effective date. The Office of the Secretary of State shall file the original of 3 the certificate and serve a copy on the corporation under section 52 of this Act.

4 A corporation administratively dissolved continues its corporate existence but may not carry 5 on any business except that necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs under 6 sections 316 and 317 of this Act and notify claimants under sections 318 to 320, inclusive, and 7 321 to 323, inclusive, of this Act.

8 The administrative dissolution of a corporation does not terminate the authority of its 9 registered agent.

10 Section 329. A corporation administratively dissolved under section 328 of this Act may 11 apply to the Office of the Secretary of State for reinstatement any time after the effective date 12 of dissolution. The application must:

- 13 (1) Recite the name of the corporation and the effective date of its administrative 14 dissolution;
- 15 (2) State that the ground or grounds for dissolution either did not exist or have been 16 eliminated;
- 17 (3) State that the corporation's name satisfies the requirements of sections 41 to 44, 18 inclusive of this Act; and
- 19 (4) Contain a certificate from the Department of Revenue and Regulation in this state 20 reciting that all taxes and fees administered and collected by the department which 21 are owed by the corporation have been paid.

22 If the Office of the Secretary of State determines that the application contains the 23 information required by this section and that the information is correct, the Office of the 24 Secretary of State shall cancel the certificate of dissolution and prepare a certificate of 1 reinstatement that recites that determination and the effective date of reinstatement, file the 2 original of the certificate, and serve a copy on the corporation under section 52 of this Act.

3 When the reinstatement is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date 4 of the administrative dissolution and the corporation resumes carrying on its business as if the 5 administrative dissolution had never occurred.

6 Section 330. If the Office of the Secretary of State denies a corporation's application for 7 reinstatement following administrative dissolution, the Office of the Secretary of State shall 8 serve the corporation under section 52 of this Act with a written notice that explains the reason 9 or reasons for denial.

10 The corporation may appeal the denial of reinstatement to the circuit court within thirty days 11 after service of the notice of denial is perfected. The corporation appeals by petitioning the court 12 to set aside the dissolution and attaching to the petition copies of the Office of the Secretary of 13 State's certificate of dissolution, the corporation's application for reinstatement, and the Office 14 of the Secretary of State's notice of denial.

15 The court may summarily order the Office of the Secretary of State to reinstate the dissolved 16 corporation or may take other action the court considers appropriate. The court's final decision 17 may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

18 Section 331. The circuit court may dissolve a corporation:

19 (1) In a proceeding by the attorney general if it is established that:

20 (a) The corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud; or 21 (b) The corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon 22 it by law;

23 (2) In a proceeding by a shareholder if it is established that:

24 (a) The directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the 1 shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and irreparable injury to the 2 corporation is threatened or being suffered, or the business and affairs of the 3 corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders 4 generally, because of the deadlock;

5 (b) The directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or 6 will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent;

7 (c) The shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a period 8 that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors 9 to directors whose terms have expired; or 10 (d) The corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted;

11 (3) In a proceeding by a creditor if it is established that:

12 (a) The creditor's claim has been reduced to judgment, the execution on the 13 judgment returned unsatisfied, and the corporation is insolvent; or 14 (b) The corporation has admitted in writing that the creditor's claim is due and 15 owing and the corporation is insolvent; or 16 (4) In a proceeding by the corporation to have its voluntary dissolution continued under 17 court supervision.

18 Section 332. Venue for a proceeding by the attorney general to dissolve a corporation lies 19 in Hughes County. Venue for a proceeding brought by any other party named in section 331 of 20 this Act lies in the county where a corporation's principal office, or, if none in this state, its 21 registered office, is or was last located.

22 Section 333. It is not necessary to make shareholders parties to a proceeding to dissolve a 23 corporation unless relief is sought against them individually.

24 Section 334. A court in a proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation may issue

1 injunctions, appoint a receiver or custodian pendente lite with all powers and duties the court 2 directs, take other action required to preserve the corporate assets wherever located, and carry 3 on the business of the corporation until a full hearing can be held.

4 Section 335. Within ten days of the commencement of a proceeding under subdivision (2) 5 of section 331 of this Act to dissolve a corporation that has no shares listed on a national 6 securities exchange or regularly traded in a market maintained by one or more members of a 7 national or affiliated securities association, the corporation shall send to all shareholders, other 8 than the petitioner, a notice stating that the shareholders are entitled to avoid the dissolution of 9 the corporation by electing to purchase the petitioner's shares under sections 338 to 345, 10 inclusive of this Act and accompanied by a copy of sections 338 to 345, inclusive, of this Act.

11 Section 336. A court in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation may appoint 12 one or more receivers to wind up and liquidate, or one or more custodians to manage, the 13 business and affairs of the corporation. The court shall hold a hearing, after notifying all parties 14 to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a 15 receiver or custodian. The court appointing a receiver or custodian has exclusive jurisdiction 16 over the corporation and all of its property wherever located.

17 The court may appoint an individual or a domestic or foreign corporation, authorized to 18 transact business in this state, as a receiver or custodian. The court may require the receiver or 19 custodian to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

20 The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or custodian in its appointing 21 order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

- 22 (1) The receiver may dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever 23 located, at a public or private sale, if authorized by the court; and may sue and defend 24 in such person's own name as receiver of the corporation in all courts of this state;

1 (2) The custodian may exercise all of the powers of the corporation, through or in place 2 of its board of directors, to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of the 3 corporation in the best interests of its shareholders and creditors.

4 The court during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian, and during a 5 custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver, if doing so is in the best interests of the 6 corporation, its shareholders, and creditors.

7 The court from time to time during the receivership or custodianship may order 8 compensation paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements made to the receiver or 9 custodian and such person's counsel from the assets of the corporation or proceeds from the sale 10 of the assets.

11 Section 337. If after a hearing the court determines that one or more grounds for judicial 12 dissolution described in section 331 of this Act exist, the court may enter a decree dissolving 13 the corporation and specifying the effective date of the dissolution, and the clerk of the court
14 shall deliver a certified copy of the decree to the Office of the Secretary of State, who shall file 15 it.

16 After entering the decree of dissolution, the court shall direct the winding-up and liquidation 17 of the corporation's business and affairs in accordance with sections 316 and 317 of this Act and 18 the notification of claimants in accordance with sections 318 to 320, inclusive, of this Act and 19 321 to 323, inclusive, of this Act.

20 Section 338. In a proceeding under subdivision (2) of section 331 of this Act to dissolve a 21 corporation that has no shares listed on a national securities exchange or regularly traded in a 22 market maintained by one or more members of a national or affiliated securities association, the 23 corporation may elect or, if it fails to elect, one or more shareholders may elect to purchase all 24 shares owned by the petitioning shareholder at the fair value of the shares. An election pursuant

1 to this section is irrevocable unless the court determines that it is equitable to set aside or modify 2 the election.

3 Section 339. An election to purchase pursuant to section 338 to 345, inclusive, of this Act 4 may be filed with the court at any time within ninety days after the filing of the petition under 5 subdivision (2) of section 331 of this Act or at such later time as the court in its discretion may 6 allow. If the election to purchase is filed by one or more shareholders, the corporation shall, 7 within ten days thereafter, give written notice to all shareholders, other than the petitioner. The 8 notice must state the name and number of shares owned by the petitioner and the name and 9 number of shares owned by each electing shareholder and must advise the recipients of their 10 right to join in the election to purchase shares in accordance with this section. Shareholders who 11 wish to participate must file notice of their intention to join in the purchase no later than thirty 12 days after the effective date of the notice to them. All shareholders who have filed an election 13 or notice of their intention to participate in the election to purchase thereby become parties to 14 the proceeding and shall participate in the purchase in proportion to their ownership of shares 15 as of the date the first election was filed, unless they otherwise agree or the court otherwise 16 directs. After an election has been filed by the corporation or one or more shareholders, the 17 proceeding under subdivision (2) of section 331 of this Act may not be discontinued or settled, 18 nor may the petitioning shareholder sell or otherwise dispose of the petitioner's shares, unless 19 the court determines that it would be equitable to the corporation and the shareholders, other 20 than the petitioner, to permit such discontinuance, settlement, sale, or other disposition.

21 Section 340. If, within sixty days of the filing of the first election, the parties reach 22 agreement as to the fair value and terms of purchase of the petitioner's shares, the court shall 23 enter an order directing the purchase of petitioner's shares upon the terms and conditions agreed 24 to by the parties.

1 Section 341. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement as provided for in section 340
2 of this Act, the court, upon application of any party, shall stay the proceedings under subdivision
3 (2) of section 331 of this Act and determine the fair value of the petitioner's shares as of the day
4 before the date on which the petition under subdivision (2) of section 331 of this Act was filed 5 or as of such other date as the court deems appropriate under the circumstances.

6 Section 342. Upon determining the fair value of the shares, the court shall enter an order 7 directing the purchase upon such terms and conditions as the court deems appropriate, which 8 may include payment of the purchase price in installments, if necessary in the interests of equity, 9 provision for security to assure payment of the purchase price and any additional costs, fees, and 10 expenses as may have been awarded, and, if the shares are to be purchased by shareholders, the 11 allocation of shares among them. In allocating petitioner's shares among holders of different 12 classes of shares, the court should attempt to preserve the existing distribution of voting rights 13 among holders of different classes insofar as practicable and may direct that holders of a specific 14 class or classes may not participate in the purchase. Interest may be allowed at the rate and from 15 the date determined by the court to be equitable, but if the court finds that the refusal of the 16 petitioning shareholder to accept an offer of payment was arbitrary or otherwise not in good 17 faith, no interest may be allowed. If the court finds that the petitioning shareholder had probable 18 grounds for relief under subsections (2)(b) or (2)(d) of section 331 of this Act, it may award to 19 the petitioning shareholder reasonable fees and expenses of counsel and of any experts 20 employed by the petitioner.

21 Section 343. Upon entry of an order under sections 340 or 342 of this Act, the court shall 22 dismiss the petition to dissolve the corporation under section 331 of this Act, and the petitioning 23 shareholder no longer has any rights or status as a shareholder of the corporation, except the 24 right to receive the amounts awarded by the order of the court which shall be enforceable in the 1 same manner as any other judgment.

2 Section 344. The purchase ordered pursuant to section 342 of this Act shall be made within 3 ten days after the date the order becomes final unless before that time the corporation files with 4 the court a notice of its intention to adopt articles of dissolution pursuant to sections 309 to 314, 5 inclusive, of this Act, which articles must then be adopted and filed within fifty days thereafter.
6 Upon filing of such articles of dissolution, the corporation shall be dissolved in accordance with 7 the provisions of sections 316 to 323, inclusive, of this Act, and the order entered pursuant to 8 section 342 of this Act is no longer of any force or effect, except that the court may award the 9 petitioning shareholder reasonable fees and expenses in accordance with the provisions of the 10 last sentence of section 342 of this Act and the petitioner may continue to pursue any claims 11 previously asserted on behalf of the corporation.

12 Section 345. Any payment by the corporation pursuant to an order under sections 340 or 342 13 of this Act, other than an award of fees and expenses pursuant to section 342 of this Act, is 14 subject to the provisions of sections 80 to 85, inclusive, of this Act.

15 Section 346. Assets of a dissolved corporation that should be transferred to a creditor, 16 claimant, or shareholder of the corporation who cannot be found or who is not competent to 17 receive them shall be reduced to cash and deposited with the state treasurer for safekeeping.
18 When the creditor, claimant, or shareholder furnishes satisfactory proof of entitlement to the 19 amount deposited, the state treasurer shall pay that amount.

20 Section 347. A foreign corporation may not transact business in this state until it obtains a 21 certificate of authority from the Office of the Secretary of State. The following activities, among 22 others, do not constitute transacting business within the meaning of this section:

- 23 (1) Maintaining, defending, or settling any proceeding;
- 24 (2) Holding meetings of the board of directors or shareholders or carrying on other

- 1 activities concerning internal corporate affairs;
- 2 (3) Maintaining bank accounts;
- 3 (4) Maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of the
- 4 corporation's own securities or maintaining trustees or depositories with respect to
- 5 those securities;
- 6 (5) Selling through independent contractors;
- 7 (6) Soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or
- 8 otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become
- 9 contracts;
- 10 (7) Creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, and security interests in real or
- 11 personal property;
- 12 (8) Securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages and security interests in property
- 13 securing the debts;
- 14 (9) Owning, without more, real or personal property;
- 15 (10) Conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within thirty days and that is not
- 16 one in the course of repeated transactions of a like nature; and
- 17 (11) Transacting business in interstate commerce.

18 Section 348. A foreign corporation transacting business in this state without a certificate of 19 authority may not maintain a proceeding in any court in this state until it obtains a certificate of 20 authority. The successor to a foreign corporation that transacted business in this state without 21 a certificate of authority and the assignee of a cause of action arising out of that business may 22 not maintain a proceeding based on that cause of action in any court in this state until the foreign 23 corporation or its successor obtains a certificate of authority.

24 Section 349. A court may stay a proceeding commenced by a foreign corporation, its 1 successor, or assignee until it determines whether the foreign corporation or its successor

2 requires a certificate of authority. If it so determines, the court may further stay the proceeding 3 until the foreign corporation or its successor obtains the certificate.

4 Section 350. A foreign corporation is liable for a civil penalty of one hundred dollars for 5 each day, but not to exceed a total of one thousand dollars for each year, it transacts business 6 in this state without a certificate of authority. The attorney general may collect all penalties due 7 under this section.

8 Notwithstanding section 348 of this Act, the failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a 9 certificate of authority does not impair the validity of its corporate acts or prevent it from 10 defending any proceeding in this state.

11 Section 351. A foreign corporation may apply for a certificate of authority to transact 12 business in this state by delivering an application to the Office of the Secretary of State for 13 filing. The application must set forth:

- 14 (1) The name of the foreign corporation or, if its name is unavailable for use in this state, 15 a corporate name that satisfies the requirements of sections 354 to 358, inclusive, of 16 this Act;
- 17 (2) The name of the state or country under whose law it is incorporated;
- 18 (3) Its date of incorporation and period of duration;
- 19 (4) The street address, or a statement that there is no street address, of its principal 20 office;
- 21 (5) The address of its registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent 22 at that office; and
- 23 (6) The names and usual business addresses of its current directors and officers.

24 The foreign corporation shall deliver with the completed application a certificate of 1 existence, or a document of similar import, duly authenticated by the secretary of state or other 2 official having custody of corporate records in the state or country under whose law it is 3 incorporated.

4 Section 352. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state must obtain 5 an amended certificate of authority from the Office of the Secretary of State if it changes:

- 6 (1) Its corporate name;
- 7 (2) The period of its duration; or
- 8 (3) The state or country of its incorporation.

9 The requirements of section 351 of this Act for obtaining an original certificate of authority 10 apply to obtaining an amended certificate under this section.

11 Section 353. A certificate of authority authorizes the foreign corporation to which it is issued 12 to transact business in this state subject, however, to the right of the state to revoke the 13 certificate as provided in this Act.

14 A foreign corporation with a valid certificate of authority has the same but no greater rights 15 and has the same but no greater privileges as, and, except as otherwise provided by this Act, is 16 subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties, and liabilities now or later imposed on, a 17 domestic corporation of like character.

18 This Act does not authorize this state to regulate the organization or internal affairs of a 19 foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state.

20 Section 354. If the corporate name of a foreign corporation does not satisfy the requirements 21 of sections 41 to 44, inclusive, of this Act, the foreign corporation to obtain or maintain a 22 certificate of authority to transact business in this state:

- 23 (1) May add the word, corporation, incorporated, company, or limited, or the 24 abbreviation corp., inc., co., or ltd., to its corporate name for use in this state; or

1 (2) May use a fictitious name to transact business in this state if its real name is 2 unavailable and it delivers to the secretary of state for filing a copy of the resolution 3 of its board of directors, certified by its secretary, adopting the fictitious name.

4 Section 355. Except as authorized by sections 356 and 357 of this Act, the corporate name, 5 including a fictitious name, of a foreign corporation must be distinguishable upon the records 6 of the secretary of state from:

7 (1) The corporate name of a corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business 8 in this state;

9 (2) A corporate name reserved or registered under section 45 or 46 to 48, inclusive, of 10 this Act;

11 (3) The fictitious name of another foreign corporation authorized to transact business in 12 this state;

13 (4) The corporate name of a not-for-profit corporation incorporated or authorized to 14 transact business in this state; and

15 (5) The name of a limited liability company, limited partnership, limited liability 16 partnership, or limited liability limited partnership organized or authorized to transact 17 business in this state.

18 Section 356. A foreign corporation may apply to the Office of the Secretary of State for 19 authorization to use in this state the name of another corporation, incorporated or authorized to 20 transact business in this state, that is not distinguishable upon the records of the Office of the 21 Secretary of State from the name applied for. The Office of the Secretary of State shall authorize 22 use of the name applied for if:

23 (1) The other corporation or entity consents to the use in writing and submits an 24 undertaking in form satisfactory to the Office of the Secretary of State to change its

1 name to a name that is distinguishable upon the records of the Office of the Secretary
2 of State from the name of the applying corporation; or

3 (2) The applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of 4 a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name 5 applied for in this state.

6 Section 357. A foreign corporation may use in this state the name, including the fictitious 7 name, of another domestic or foreign corporation that is used in this state if the other 8 corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the foreign 9 corporation:

10 (1) Has merged with the other corporation;

11 (2) Has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

12 (3) Has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the 13 other corporation.

14 Section 358. If a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state changes its 15 corporate name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of sections 41 to 44, inclusive, of 16 this Act, it may not transact business in this state under the changed name until it adopts a name 17 satisfying the requirements of sections 41 to 44, inclusive, of this Act and obtains an amended 18 certificate of authority under section 352 of this Act.

19 Section 359. Each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state must 20 continuously maintain in this state:

21 (1) A registered office that may be the same as any of its places of business; and

22 (2) A registered agent, who may be:

23 (a) An individual who resides in this state and whose business office is identical 24 with the registered office;

- 1 (b) A domestic corporation or not-for-profit domestic corporation whose business
- 2 office is identical with the registered office; or
- 3 (c) A foreign corporation or foreign not-for-profit corporation authorized to
- 4 transact business in this state whose business office is identical with the
- 5 registered office.

6 Section 360. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may change 7 its registered office or registered agent by delivering to the Office of the Secretary of State for 8 filing a statement of change that sets forth:

- 9 (1) The name of the corporation;
- 10 (2) The street address, or a statement that there is no street address, of its current
- 11 registered office;
- 12 (3) If the current registered office is to be changed, the street address, or a statement that
- 13 there is no street address, of its new registered office;
- 14 (4) The name of its current registered agent;
- 15 (5) If the current registered agent is to be changed, the name of the new registered agent
- 16 and the new agent's written consent to the appointment. Such consent may be given
- 17 by electronic signature pursuant to chapter 53-12; and
- 18 (6) That after the change or changes are made, the street addresses of its registered office
- 19 and the business office of its registered agent will be identical.

20 If a registered agent changes the street address of the registered agent's business office, the 21 registered agent may change the street address of the registered office of any foreign corporation 22 for which the registered agent is the registered agent by notifying the corporation in writing of 23 the change and signing, either manually or in facsimile, and delivering to the Office of the 24 Secretary of State for filing a statement of change that complies with the requirements of this

1 section and recites that the corporation has been notified of the change.

2 Section 361. The registered agent of a foreign corporation may resign such agency
3 appointment by signing and delivering to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing a 4 statement of resignation. The statement of resignation may include a statement that the 5 registered office is also discontinued.

6 After delivering the statement to the Office of the Secretary of State, the registered agent 7 shall mail one copy to the registered office if not discontinued and mail another copy to the 8 foreign corporation at its principal office address.

9 The agency appointment is terminated, and the registered office discontinued if so provided, 10 on the thirty-first day after the date on which the statement was filed.

11 Section 362. The registered agent of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business 12 in this state is the corporation's agent for service of process, notice, or demand required or 13 permitted by law to be served on the foreign corporation.

14 A foreign corporation may be served by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, 15 addressed to the secretary of the foreign corporation at its principal office shown in its 16 application for a certificate of authority or in its most recent annual report if the foreign 17 corporation has no registered agent or its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be 18 served; has withdrawn from transacting business in this state under section 363 of this Act; or 19 has had its certificate of authority revoked under section 367 of this Act. Service is perfected 20 under this section at the earliest of:

- 21 (1) The date the foreign corporation receives the mail;
- 22 (2) The date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of the foreign corporation;
- 23 or
- 24 (3) Five days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark,

1 if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

2 If service cannot be obtained pursuant to this section, the Office of the Secretary of State is 3 the corporation's agent for service of process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law
4 to be served on the corporation.

5 This section does not prescribe the only means, or necessarily the required means, of serving 6 a foreign corporation.

7 Section 363. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may not 8 withdraw from this state until it obtains a certificate of withdrawal from the Office of the 9 Secretary of State. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may apply 10 for a certificate of withdrawal by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The 11 application must set forth:

- 12 (1) The name of the foreign corporation and the name of the state or country under 13 whose law it is incorporated;
- 14 (2) That it is not transacting business in this state and that it surrenders its authority to 15 transact business in this state;
- 16 (3) That it revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf; and
- 17 (4) The address of the corporation's principal office.

18 After the withdrawal of the corporation is effective, service of process is perfected pursuant 19 to section 362 of this Act.

20 Section 364. A foreign business corporation authorized to transact business in this state that 21 converts to any form of domestic filing entity shall be deemed to have withdrawn on the 22 effective date of the conversion.

23 Section 365. A foreign business corporation authorized to transact business in this state that 24 converts to a domestic or foreign nonfiling entity shall apply for a certificate of withdrawal by

1 delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth:

2 (1) The name of the foreign business corporation and the name of the state or country 3 under whose law it was incorporated before the conversion;

4 (2) That it surrenders its authority to transact business in this state as a foreign business
5 corporation;

6 (3) The type of unincorporated entity to which it has been converted and the jurisdiction
7 whose laws govern its internal affairs;

8 (4) If it has been converted to a foreign unincorporated entity:

9 (a) That it revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its 10 behalf; and

11 (b) The address of the entity's principal office.

12 After the withdrawal under this section of a corporation that has converted to a foreign 13 unincorporated entity is effective, service of process is perfected pursuant to section 362 of this 14 Act.

15 After the withdrawal under this section of a corporation that has converted to a domestic 16 unincorporated entity is effective, service of process shall be made on the unincorporated entity 17 in accordance with the regular procedures for service of process on the form of unincorporated 18 entity to which the corporation was converted.

19 Section 366. A foreign business corporation authorized to transact business in this state that 20 converts to any form of foreign unincorporated entity that is required to obtain a certificate of 21 authority or make a similar type of filing with the Office of the Secretary of State if it transacts 22 business in this state shall file with the Office of the Secretary of State an application for transfer 23 of authority executed by any officer or other duly authorized representative. The application 24 shall set forth:

- 1 (1) The name of the corporation;
- 2 (2) The type of unincorporated entity to which it has been converted and the jurisdiction
3 whose laws govern its internal affairs;
- 4 (3) Any other information that would be required in a filing under the laws of this state 5 by an unincorporated entity of the type the corporation has become seeking authority 6 to transact business in this state.

7 The application for transfer of authority shall be delivered to the Office of the Secretary of 8 State for filing and shall take effect at the effective time provided in sections 9 and 10 of this 9 Act.

10 Upon the effectiveness of the application for transfer of authority, the authority of the 11 corporation under sections 347 to 370, inclusive, of this Act to transact business in this state 12 shall be transferred without interruption to the converted entity which shall thereafter hold such 13 authority subject to the provisions of the laws of this state applicable to that type of 14 unincorporated entity.

15 Section 367. The Office of the Secretary of State may commence a proceeding under 16 sections 368 and 369 of this Act to revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation 17 authorized to transact business in this state if:

- 18 (1) The foreign corporation does not deliver its annual report to the Office of the 19 Secretary of State within sixty days after it is due;
- 20 (2) The foreign corporation does not pay within sixty days after they are due any 21 franchise taxes or penalties imposed by this Act or other law;
- 22 (3) The foreign corporation is without a registered agent or registered office in this state 23 for sixty days or more;
- 24 (4) The foreign corporation does not inform the secretary of state under section 360 or

1 361 of this Act that its registered agent or registered office has changed, that its 2 registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued 3 within sixty days of the change, resignation, or discontinuance;

4 (5) An incorporator, director, officer, or agent of the foreign corporation signed a 5 document knowing it was false in any material respect with intent that the document 6 be delivered to the Office of the Secretary of State for filing;

7 (6) The Office of the Secretary of State receives a duly authenticated certificate from the 8 Office of the Secretary of State or other official having custody of corporate records 9 in the state or country under whose law the foreign corporation is incorporated stating 10 that it has been dissolved or disappeared as the result of a merger.

11 Section 368. If the Office of the Secretary of State determines that one or more grounds exist 12 under section 367 of this Act for revocation of a certificate of authority, the Office of the 13 Secretary of State shall serve the foreign corporation with written notice of that determination 14 under section 362 of this Act. If the foreign corporation does not correct each ground for 15 revocation or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the Office of the Secretary of State 16 that each ground determined by the Office of the Secretary of State does not exist within sixty 17 days after service of the notice is perfected under section 362 of this Act, the Office of the 18 Secretary of State may revoke the foreign corporation's certificate of authority by signing a 19 certificate of revocation that recites the ground or grounds for revocation and its effective date.
20 The Office of the Secretary of State shall file the original of the certificate and serve a copy on 21 the foreign corporation under section 362 of this Act.

22 The authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state ceases on the date 23 shown on the certificate revoking its certificate of authority.

24 Section 369. The Office of the Secretary of State's revocation of a foreign corporation's

1 certificate of authority appoints the Office of the Secretary of State the foreign corporation's 2 agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action which arose during the 3 time the foreign corporation was authorized to transact business in this state. Service of process 4 on the Office of the Secretary of State under this section is service on the foreign corporation.
5 Upon receipt of process, the Office of the Secretary of State shall mail a copy of the process to 6 the secretary of the foreign corporation at its principal office shown in its most recent annual 7 report or in any subsequent communication received from the corporation stating the current 8 mailing address of its principal office, or, if none are on file, in its application for a certificate 9 of authority.

10 Revocation of a foreign corporation's certificate of authority does not terminate the authority 11 of the registered agent of the corporation.

12 Section 370. A foreign corporation may appeal the Office of the Secretary of State's 13 revocation of its certificate of authority to the circuit court within thirty days after service of the 14 certificate of revocation is perfected under section 362 of this Act. The foreign corporation 15 appeals by petitioning the court to set aside the revocation and attaching to the petition copies 16 of its certificate of authority and the Office of the Secretary of State's certificate of revocation.

17 The court may summarily order the Office of the Secretary of State to reinstate the certificate 18 of authority or may take any other action the court considers appropriate.

19 The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

20 Section 371. A corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its 21 shareholders and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the shareholders or board 22 of directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by a committee of the board of 23 directors in place of the board of directors on behalf of the corporation.

24 A corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

1 A corporation or its agent shall maintain a record of its shareholders, in a form that permits 2 preparation of a list of the names and addresses of all shareholders, in alphabetical order by class 3 of shares showing the number and class of shares held by each.

4 A corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of 5 conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

6 Section 372. A corporation shall keep a copy of the following records at its principal office:

- 7 (1) Its articles or restated articles of incorporation, all amendments to them currently in 8 effect, and any notices to shareholders referred to in section 4 of this Act regarding 9 facts on which a filed document is dependent;
- 10 (2) Its bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect;
- 11 (3) Resolutions adopted by its board of directors creating one or more classes or series 12 of shares, and fixing their relative rights, preferences, and limitations, if shares issued 13 pursuant to those resolutions are outstanding;
- 14 (4) The minutes of all shareholders' meetings, and records of all action taken by 15 shareholders without a meeting, for the past three years;
- 16 (5) All written communications to shareholders generally within the past three years, 17 including the financial statements furnished for the past three years under section 385
18 of this Act;
- 19 (6) A list of the names and business addresses of its current directors and officers; and
- 20 (7) Its most recent annual report delivered to the Office of the Secretary of State under 21 sections 386 to 389, inclusive, of this Act.

22 Section 373. A shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular 23 business hours at the corporation's principal office, any of the records of the corporation 24 described in section 372 of this Act if the shareholder gives the corporation written notice of that

1 demand at least five business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect 2 and copy.

3 Section 374. A shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular 4 business hours at a reasonable location specified by the corporation, any of the following 5 records of the corporation if the shareholder meets the requirements of section 375 of this Act 6 and gives the corporation written notice of that demand at least five business days before the 7 date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy:

- 8 (1) Excerpts from minutes of any meeting of the board of directors, records of any action 9 of a committee of the board of directors while acting in place of the board of 10 directors on behalf of the corporation, minutes of any meeting of the shareholders, 11 and records of action taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a 12 meeting, to the extent not subject to inspection under section 373 of this Act;
- 13 (2) Accounting records of the corporation; and
- 14 (3) The record of shareholders.

15 Section 375. A shareholder may inspect and copy the records described in section 374 of this 16 Act only if:

- 17 (1) Demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose;
- 18 (2) The shareholder describes with reasonable particularity the purpose and the records 19 the shareholder desires to inspect; and
- 20 (3) The records are directly connected with the purpose.

21 Section 376. The right of inspection granted by sections 373 to 375, inclusive, of this Act 22 may not be abolished or limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws.

23 The provisions of this section do not affect:

- 24 (1) The right of a shareholder to inspect records under section 95 of this Act or, if the

1 shareholder is in litigation with the corporation, to the same extent as any other 2 litigant;

3 (2) The power of a court, independently of this Act, to compel the production of 4 corporate records for examination.

5 For purposes of sections 373 to 376, inclusive, of this Act, the term, shareholder, includes 6 a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or by a nominee on his behalf.

7 Section 377. A shareholder's agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying rights 8 as the shareholder represented.

9 The right to copy records under sections 373 to 376, inclusive, of this Act includes, if 10 reasonable, the right to receive copies by xerographic or other means, including copies through 11 an electronic transmission if available and so requested by the shareholder.

12 The corporation may comply at its expense with a shareholder's demand to inspect the 13 record of shareholders under subdivision (3) of section 374 of this Act by providing the 14 shareholder with a list of shareholders that was compiled no earlier than the date of the 15 shareholder's demand.

16 The corporation may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, 17 for copies of any documents provided to the shareholder. The charge may not exceed the 18 estimated cost of production, reproduction, or transmission of the records.

19 Section 378. If a corporation does not allow a shareholder who complies with section 373 20 of this Act to inspect and copy any records required by that section to be available for 21 inspection, the circuit court of the county where the corporation's principal office, or, if none 22 in this state, its registered office, is located may summarily order inspection and copying of the 23 records demanded at the corporation's expense upon application of the shareholder.

24 Section 379. If a corporation does not within a reasonable time allow a shareholder to 1 inspect and copy any other record, the shareholder who complies with sections 374 and 375 of 2 this Act may apply to the circuit court in the county where the corporation's principal office, or,

3 if none in this state, its registered office, is located for an order to permit inspection and copying 4 of the records demanded. The court shall dispose of an application under this section on an 5 expedited basis.

6 Section 380. If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, the court 7 shall also order the corporation to pay the shareholder's costs, including reasonable counsel fees, 8 incurred to obtain the order unless the corporation proves that it refused inspection in good faith 9 because it had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect the 10 records demanded.

11 If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, the court may impose 12 reasonable restrictions on the use or distribution of the records by the demanding shareholder.

13 Section 381. A director of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy the books, records, 14 and documents of the corporation at any reasonable time to the extent reasonably related to the 15 performance of the director's duties as a director, including duties as a member of a committee, 16 but not for any other purpose or in any manner that would violate any duty to the corporation.

17 Section 382. The circuit court of the county where the corporation's principal office, or if 18 none in this state, its registered office, is located may order inspection and copying of the books, 19 records, and documents at the corporation's expense, upon application of a director who has 20 been refused such inspection rights, unless the corporation establishes that the director is not 21 entitled to such inspection rights. The court shall dispose of an application under this section 22 on an expedited basis.

23 Section 383. If an order is issued, the court may include provisions protecting the 24 corporation from undue burden or expense, and prohibiting the director from using information

1 obtained upon exercise of the inspection rights in a manner that would violate a duty to the 2 corporation, and may also order the corporation to reimburse the director for the director's costs, 3 including reasonable counsel fees, incurred in connection with the application.

4 Section 384. Whenever notice is required to be given under any provision of this Act to any 5 shareholder, such notice may not be required to be given if:

6 (1) Notice of two consecutive annual meetings, and all notices of meetings during the 7 period between such two consecutive annual meetings, have been sent to such 8 shareholder at such shareholder's address as shown on the records of the corporation 9 and have been returned undeliverable; or

10 (2) All, but not less than two, payments of dividends on securities during a twelve-month 11 period, or two consecutive payments of dividends on securities during a period of 12 more than twelve months, have been sent to such shareholder at such shareholder's 13 address as shown on the records of the corporation and have been returned 14 undeliverable.

15 If any such shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written notice setting forth such
