

2:05:02:03. Reciprocity. The commission may waive any part of the training required by SDCL 34-45-24 upon application requesting a waiver, and a showing that the applicant meets the minimum standards for certification set forth in § 2:05:01:01, and has, within two years prior to appointment, completed a training program of equivalent content and quality in another jurisdiction, or been continuously employed as a certified 911 telecommunicator in another jurisdiction since the date of the equivalent training. The executive secretary of the law enforcement officers standards and training commission shall administer a written test to the applicant to determine the applicant's competence. Upon successful completion of the test, the commission shall issue the applicant a certificate as a certified 911 telecommunicator or shall notify the applicant of additional training to be completed before the applicant can be certified. Upon successful completion of the additional training, the commission shall issue the applicant a certificate as a certified 911 telecommunicator.
