

41:07:01:02. South Dakota-Minnesota reciprocal access agreement. Residents of South Dakota and residents of Minnesota may fish the boundary waters of South Dakota-Minnesota only if they are in possession of a valid resident fishing license issued by the state where they reside or are otherwise authorized to fish in the state where they reside. Residents of foreign countries or states other than South Dakota or Minnesota may fish the boundary waters only if they are in possession of a valid nonresident fishing license issued by either state or if they are otherwise lawfully authorized to fish by either state. If the laws of either state differ, anglers must comply with the laws and rules of the state in which they are licensed. Anglers who are licensed by Minnesota who lawfully take fish in the South Dakota boundary waters may transport their fish to Minnesota by the most direct route.
